

BRITISH TRAPPED BY PAUL'S TROOPS

Flower of the English Army Are Made Prisoners.

SURROUNDED IN THE HILLS

Two British Regiments Captured at Ladysmith—Irish Fusiliers, the Gloucestershire and a Mountain Battery Taken—Surrounded by the Burgers and Compelled to Capitulate—Fought Desperately While They Could—General White's Report of the Disaster—Assumes Blame.

London, Oct. 31.—The war office has received a dispatch from General White, commanding the British forces at Ladysmith, reporting that the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain battery and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills by the Boers and, after losing heavily, were obliged to capitulate.

General White adds that the casualties have not yet been ascertained. The following is the text of General White's dispatch: Ladysmith, Oct. 30, 10.35 p. m.—I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations today the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mountain battery and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills and, after losing heavily, had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained.

A man of the Fusiliers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column, who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report.

I formed a plan, in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred, and I am alone responsible for the plan. There is no blame whatever to the troops, as the position was untenable.

General White, in a subsequent dispatch, says: The following is a list of the officers taken prisoners today: Staff Major Aisye.

Irish Fusiliers. Col. Carleton, Lieut. McGregor, Major Munn, Lieut. Holmes, Capt. Burrows, Lieut. Kelly, Major Kinnaird, Lieut. Donohoe, Capt. Rice, Lieut. Kentish, Capt. Silver, Lieut. Kinahan, Lieut. Heald, Lieut. Jenkinson, Lieut. Southey, Chaplain Matthews, Lieut. Phibbs.

Of the above, Captains Rice and Silver and Lieutenant Donohoe were wounded. Gloucestershire Regiment. Major Humphrey, Lieut. Nisbet, Major Capel-Cure, Lieut. Ingham, Major Wallace, Lieut. Davy, Capt. Duncan, Lieut. Knox, Capt. Conner, Lieut. Tompoe, Lieut. Bryant, Lieut. Smith, Lieut. Radice, Lieut. Maekenzie, Lieut. Brial, Lieut. Beasley, Lieut. Southey, Lieut. Gray, Lieut. Short.

Of the above Captains Duncan and Connor were wounded. Royal Artillery. Major Bryant. Mounted Battery. Lieut. Wheeler, Lieut. Moore, Lieut. Nugent, Lieut. Webb.

Advices from Cape Town show that the Boers are gathering in considerable force at Dewdors, southwest of Ladysmith, while large forces of Boers are advancing over the Helpmakoer road. A big camp of Boers is to be formed between Harrismith Bridge and Potgieters Farm camp, at Dewdors, which it is said, will extend four miles.

accepted, but it is not the less gratifying of the proof of the good will of our American cousins."

EXCITEMENT AT WAR OFFICE.

Stream of Anxious Callers All Day. Harsh Criticism of British Tactics. London, Oct. 31.—The throngs of visitors at the war office remained all day as anxious people frantically fought their way to the notice board. Most affecting scenes were witnessed. Many women were heard to gasp: "Thank God, he is alive at any rate," as they found the name of some beloved one on the list of prisoners. The captives were packed with solid masses awaiting their turn to enter. There was a continuous stream of callers at the war office until a late hour, everybody anxiously inquiring regarding yesterday's casualties, but the war office declared that nothing had been received since Sir George White's dispatch communicating the news of the capture of the Royal Irish Fusiliers and the Gloucestershire regiment.

This delay in getting further intelligence is attributed in part to the breakdown of the communication system. It stands as a reason that the war office must be possessed of further news, which it is probable it is not thought advisable should be published as yet. The disaster has caused a feeling akin to consternation, and in Gloucestershire and the north of Ireland, where the capture regiments were recruited, the blackest gloom prevails, families awaiting with beating hearts the names of the killed and wounded, which are fully expected to reach a high figure. Many homes are already in mourning in consequence of losses sustained by those regiments in previous engagements.

Public anxiety was increased by a special dispatch from Ladysmith published in the late editions of the London afternoon papers to the effect that before darkness yesterday the Boers had taken the position held by their heavy artillery, which General White had reported silenced by the guns of the naval brigade from the Powerful, and had opened fire again. The dispatch further says: "The enemy are again closing in and the situation is one of great anxiety. Beyond doubt the Boer retirement yesterday (Monday) was a ruse to draw General White into the hilly country and away from the British camp."

This last sentence is significant and confirms the opinion of military experts here that General White is allowing himself to be out-generalled by Commandant General Joubert. Repetition of Majuba Hill. From scanty advices received up to 11 o'clock p. m., it seems tolerably certain that the disaster was a simple repetition of the battle of Majuba Hill, though on a larger scale. The two regiments were allowed to march into a trap set for them by the Boers. It is simply a case of the Boer spider and the guileless British fly. In fact, the whole engagement of Monday seems to have been brought on by Commandant General Joubert, who skillfully conceived a gigantic trap out of which, as the official dispatch shows, Sir George White only escaped with difficulty.

General White advanced with the idea of driving the Boers from the hill seven miles out which General Joubert made an ostentatious show of fortifying on Sunday. The Boer commander left a force sufficient to draw General White on, while the mass of the Boers moved stealthily round the British right, to deliver a flank attack and to endeavor to cut off General White from Ladysmith. The Boer commander succeeded in beating off the attack but only with great difficulty, and during the turning movement his troops suffered from a flanking fire.

Harsh things are said in military circles of the British tactics, which have made possible the ambush of the Eighteenth Hussars at Glencoe, and now the loss of two fine regiments. It is feared that Sir George White is no match for the Boers in that cunning by which Boer tactics are conceived and it is pointed out that if the British commanders continue to lead their men into such traps, further disasters must be looked for.

Sir George White's honest admission of full responsibility and the terms of his despatch are regarded in some circles as virtually placing his case in the hands of the home authorities, and it is even rumored late only with great difficulty, and during the turning movement his troops suffered from a flanking fire.

About 6,000 fresh troops will arrive at Cape Town on Sunday next from England and will be available to reinforce Sir George White. Transports will arrive there daily after Sunday until the end of next week 28,000 troops will have been landed in South Africa. These men are intended for General Buller's army, but they will undoubtedly be detached to Natal if the situation there should become serious. The British army will eventually reach the huge total of 85,654, of which 69,634 will be regulars and the other 20,000 miscellaneous, but excellent colonial troops.

Late this evening the Prince of Wales and the Marquis of Salisbury sent their respective secretaries to the war office to make inquiries, but the reply given was that no further news had been received. Large crowds still waited in the vicinity shortly before midnight. The tidings of disaster will have the effect of giving a strong impulse to the popular movement to raise funds for the benefit of the wives and children of the men at the front. The war office, under the signature of the Marquis of Lansdowne, secretary of state for war, and General Lord Wolseley.

Of course, this offer cannot be accepted, but it is not the less gratifying of the proof of the good will of our American cousins."

(Continued on Page 2)

THE ASSURANCE OF AGUINALDO

ASKS DR. JURADO TO REPRESENT HIM IN WASHINGTON.

The Honor Declined—The Doctor Will Represent Filipino Clergy Only—To Ask President McKinley to Grant Them the Same Protection That General Otis Extends to the Spanish Ecclesiastics.

London, Oct. 31.—Dr. Regidor Jurado, chairman of the Spanish chamber of commerce in this city, yesterday evening received a cable message from Senator Paterno, president of the so-called Filipino cabinet, from Manila, as follows: "I have been instructed by Aguinaldo to ask you to accept the post of representative of the Filipino government in Washington if you are going to America for any other purpose."

Dr. Jurado says he will not accept an official position. He goes to the United States in December in the interest of the Filipino clergy, who are anxious to obtain the protection that Major General Otis has granted to the Spanish clergy. If he accepts an official position in Washington, it is said, the authorities would not receive him. Washington, Oct. 31.—Cable advices to the war department today indicate that General Young's column is steadily continuing its advance in spite of unfavorable conditions. In a cable message General Otis says: "Young's advance north and east; Cabanatuan; will occupy Talavera and probably Altaga today; objective, San Jose and Carrangian; wet season has rendered roads in that region impracticable for wagon transportation and progressing difficult."

A message from General Miller at Manila says that William P. Chamberlain, the messenger who was wounded in the fight in which Captain Guy Howard was killed, is doing well.

DEATH OF CAPT. FRENCH.

Wounded Officer Dies After Amputation of Leg.

Washington, Oct. 31.—A cable dispatch from General Otis to the war department announces today the death of Captain Charles French, Thirteenth infantry, who was wounded in yesterday's fighting near Florida Blanca. General Otis says that death was the result of shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg, the knee, necessitated by the wound.

FIRE IN MONTREAL.

The Webster House Burned—Three Persons Perish—Majority of Guests Escape in Night Clothes.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Fire which broke out at half past five o'clock this morning in the Webster house, a small hotel on St. James street, caused the death of three persons and the probable fatal injury of a fourth. The dead are: Joseph F. Wilson, balliff, Sherbrooke; John Benbow, Ottawa; Jane McConen, employe of the hotel. Captain J. K. Oswald, of Montreal, a broker, jumped from a window and fractured his skull and will probably die. The fire broke out behind a sidewalk in the dining room and quickly spread over the whole house. Wilson and Benbow were killed by jumping from windows while the firemen were engaged in hoisting ladders to rescue them. Mrs. McConen was found suffocated in her room.

There were about 40 guests in the hotel at the time and most of them escaped in their night clothes only. The house was not provided with fire escapes as the law provides. The property loss is placed at $40,000.

SCHAEFER OUTPLAYS SLOSSON.

But the Latter Maintains His Lead at the End.

New York, Oct. 31.—The second night's play in the professional cushion carom billiard match was a close struggle and the small crowd that braved the rain to see the experts were well repaid for their trouble. Schaefer outplayed Slosson by just ten points, but Slosson maintained his lead at the end. The final score at the end of the evening stood 400 to 395 in Slosson's favor. The final block of 500 points will be played tomorrow evening. The match and $1,000 stakes will go to the player whose total reaches 900 first. Schaefer's splendid brace at one point gives his admirers ground for hoping that he may yet win out. The highest runs were: Schaefer, 55, 27, 23, 20; Slosson, 22, 18, 17, 12. Average, Schaefer, 336.79; Slosson, 323.79. Total tonight, Schaefer, 319; Slosson, 300.

SPANISH SENSATION.

Count D'Almenas Claims Three Islands of Philippine Group.

Madrid, Oct. 31.—A sensation was caused in the senate today by the declaration of Count D'Almenas that owing to the ignorance of the Spanish-American peace treaty commissioners three islands of the Philippine group, the two Batanes and Celayan islands, both north of Luzon, were not included in the scope of the treaty. These islands, he asserted, ought to be made the basis of negotiations for the liberation of the Spanish prisoners.

New Jersey's Balance.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 31.—State Comptroller Hancock tonight sent a telegram to Governor Voorhees, at his home in Elizabethtown, stating that the balance in the state treasury at the close of business tonight, which ends the fiscal year, is $1,255,152.42. This is an increase of about $25,000 over the balance a year ago. The increase is due to the larger revenue of the past year for fees for filing articles of incorporation. The receipts from this source alone was $780,000.

FERRYBOAT COLLISION.

Coroner Rausch Has Decided to Issue Warrants for Captains.

New York, Oct. 31.—Coroner Rausch, after a consultation with the harbor police regarding last night's collision in North river, decided to issue warrants for the arrest of the captains of the steamship City of Augusta and the ferry boat Chicago, on the charge of manslaughter. The affidavits are signed by the police and are based on the case of John Bryson, the driver of the mall wagon, who was drowned.

Mrs. Mary Weir, of Brooklyn, called at police headquarters today and stated that her husband, Alexander Weir, a coal dealer, was missing and that she feared he was on the ferry boat Chicago. Word was received at police headquarters from Brooklyn that a man named Carl McCready had been reported missing. McCready was a Brooklyn man and is supposed to have been on the ferry boat which was run into and sunk.

The police think that the body of a woman which was picked from the East river, off eighty-second street, this afternoon, is the body of one of the victims of the collision. Captain Daguerre of the steamship City of Augusta, accompanied by counsel, appeared before the coroner and was held in $10,000 bail which was furnished by Superintendent Levere of the Savannah line. The reports of Captain Durham of the Chicago, and Captain Daggett were filed with the local board and the coroner is expected to report this afternoon. The reports will not be made public until the investigation is finished.

ILLNESS OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

Authorized Statement by the Physicians Who Have Attended Mr. Hobart—His Present Condition.

Pateron, N. J., Oct. 31.—The following statement of the origin and development of the illness of Vice-President Hobart is authorized by his family and by the physicians who have attended him on the latter part of November he was in good health. He stood remarkably well the strain and excitement incidental to the opening of congress and he was making favorable progress until in January he became a victim of the grip. Following this there was a return of the heart trouble, accompanied by signs of degeneration. His ailment was diagnosed as dilated right heart due to myocarditis. The recovery from this attack was slow and the prognosis was uncertain. The doctor, Joseph F. Wilson, balliff, Sherbrooke; John Benbow, Ottawa; Jane McConen, employe of the hotel.

At the conclusion of General Lee's remarks there were loud cries for Secretary Root, who appeared on the platform and spoke as follows: "Follow citizens of the state of Virginia: I have no words to express to you the gratification which I feel in being the secretary to aid the president of the United States in the conduct of a war where the men of the north and the men of the south fight side by side under the same old flag maintaining the honor of our common country, which, God helping, the northern and southern soldiers of the United States will maintain forever, united, free, a blessing to humanity and the sustaining strength and power of justice throughout this world."

At 11:01 the president's train stopped at Ashland. The Richmond reception committee, headed by Governor Tyler, welcomed the president to the state. The president, after introduction by Governor Tyler, addressed the citizens as follows: "My fellow citizens: I have been very greatly touched by the more than gracious welcome extended to me by the governor of Virginia on behalf of its people. It gives me peculiar pleasure to come into this state. My first object on my coming to the city of Ashland is to pay my respects to the members of the reception committee. I think of our national blessings, when we think of the glorious unification of all the people of our forty-five states and territories, we are most thankful to a kind providence that has cast our lines of march in the city of Ashland. It is the motto, 'think and thank.' When we think of our national blessings, when we think of the glorious unification of all the people of our forty-five states and territories, we are most thankful to a kind providence that has cast our lines of march in the city of Ashland. It is the motto, 'think and thank.'"

SAVED A GIRL AS SHE LEAPED.

Passenger on Car Platform Held Her and Dragged Her Along.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 31.—A handsomely dressed young woman who refused to jump from a Pennsylvania railroad train near Montandon today. G. W. Smith, a passenger, noticed the girl, who appeared to be much perturbed, and he immediately ran to the platform and was just in time to catch her by the collar of her tight-fitting coat as she flung herself into space. Hanging on to the railing of the car, Mr. Smith clung to the struggling girl, as her feet bumped along over the rails, and he managed to hold her up and the young woman was drawn back to safety. She gave up her reason for attempting suicide that she did not want to go back home. She had a ticket good from Scranton to New Castle.

Colonel Yule Promoted.

London, Nov. 1.—The Gazette announces the promotion of Substantive Lieutenant Colonel W. A. Yule to the rank of major general on the staff to command the Fifth brigade of the South African field force with the substantive rank of colonel in the army.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—Charles E. Parker, the well-known sporting man, who was stricken with paralysis while reading a paper in a cafe yesterday evening, died today. Portland, Me., Oct. 31.—Henry Adams Neely, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Maine, died at 9 o'clock. Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Rev. John Wesley Cracraft, a retired clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church, died here today of paralysis, aged 72 years. He was born near Cleveland, and had spent a considerable portion of his life in Ohio. He was the largest of the church of the Ascension at Chicago. Clifton Springs, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Colonel J. C. Battersby died here last night, aged 80 years. He was present at Lee's surrender, when he was lieutenant colonel of the First regiment, New York cavalry, attached to Grant's command. He devoted years to the reproduction of a canvas of the scene of surrender at Appomattox.

THE PRESIDENT IN VIRGINIA

ACCOURED A WARM WELCOME IN OLD DOMINION.

Despite the Inclemency of the Weather, People of the Old Commonwealth Turn Out in Large Numbers to Welcome Mr. McKinley and His Companions—Remarks Made by the President and Various Members of the Party. Richmond, Oct. 31.—The torpedo boat Shubrick was successfully launched here today in the presence of President McKinley, many members of his cabinet, Governor Tyler, of Virginia, and an immense outpouring of people. The demonstration was marred in some of its features by a heavy rain storm. The city carnival parade was abandoned until tomorrow evening, when the weather and the decorations of the buildings presented a bedraggled and we-begone appearance. But the people, residents as well as visitors from other Virginia cities and points outside the state, who came to witness the launching and see the parade were enthusiastic. President McKinley and his official party and the invited guests of the city of Richmond were hurried into carriages in waiting and conveyed to their hotel.

The trip to Richmond was uneventful. On the train were two hundred invited guests of the William R. Trigg ship building company including prominent officials of the government and representatives of the press. At Fredericksburg the train made a seven minute stop, where in spite of the storm and inclemency of the weather a cordial welcome by several hundred people. Introduced by M. G. Willis, chairman of the reception committee, President McKinley, from the rear platform of his car, spoke as follows: "My fellow citizens: It gives me very great pleasure to meet you, my fellow citizens of Fredericksburg, and your welcome is all the more appreciated because so many of the people have assembled here. I am sure you will not expect me to do more than to make a simple acknowledgment of your courtesy and kindness."

The president then introduced the members of the cabinet who accompanied him, each being received with applause. The president also introduced General Fitzhugh Lee, who spoke briefly. At the conclusion of General Lee's remarks there were loud cries for Secretary Root, who appeared on the platform and spoke as follows: "Follow citizens of the state of Virginia: I have no words to express to you the gratification which I feel in being the secretary to aid the president of the United States in the conduct of a war where the men of the north and the men of the south fight side by side under the same old flag maintaining the honor of our common country, which, God helping, the northern and southern soldiers of the United States will maintain forever, united, free, a blessing to humanity and the sustaining strength and power of justice throughout this world."

At 11:01 the president's train stopped at Ashland. The Richmond reception committee, headed by Governor Tyler, welcomed the president to the state. The president, after introduction by Governor Tyler, addressed the citizens as follows: "My fellow citizens: I have been very greatly touched by the more than gracious welcome extended to me by the governor of Virginia on behalf of its people. It gives me peculiar pleasure to come into this state. My first object on my coming to the city of Ashland is to pay my respects to the members of the reception committee. I think of our national blessings, when we think of the glorious unification of all the people of our forty-five states and territories, we are most thankful to a kind providence that has cast our lines of march in the city of Ashland. It is the motto, 'think and thank.'"

The police have possession of many gushing love letters that passed between the couple. PENNSYLVANIANS IN GOTHAM. Their First Annual Dinner Held at the Waldorf-Astoria. New York, Oct. 31.—Two hundred members of the Pennsylvania society of New York held their first annual dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight. Those who responded to toasts when called were Charles Emory Smith, "The President of the United States," Congressman C. W. Stone, of Warren, Pa., "The State of Pennsylvania," J. L. McCurdy, the "Fellowship of Pennsylvanians and the South," Hampton L. Carson, "The Philadelphia Bar," Fred Powers, "The Newspaper Press," Tunis G. Bergen, "Kindred Societies," Rev. S. D. McConnell, "Pennsylvania and the Church," and John Drew, "Old Philadelphia and the Stage."

CAPE COLONY PROCLAMATION. Sir Alfred Milner Issues Reply to the Boer Manifesto. London, Oct. 31.—The colonial office received this evening a dispatch from Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony, saying that he had issued a proclamation in reply to the Boer proclamation annexing a portion of Cape Colony, in the course of which he had warned British subjects to disregard all such annexation pronouncements. Sir Alfred Milner adds, however, that so far as he can discover, the people north of the Vaal river accept the alleged annexation as a fact.

(Continued on Page 2)

THE NEWS THIS MORNING

- Weather Indications Today: RAIN; NORTHEAST GALES. 1 General—British Eustain a Crushing Defeat in South Africa. President McKinley in Virginia. Aguinaldo's Presumption. Henry Cabot Lodge on Expansion. 2 General—Northeastern Pennsylvania. Financial and Commercial. 3 General—Largely Attended Session of the County Institute. Dumore's Doings. 4 Editorial. News and Comment. 5 General—Reasons Why Mormon Roberts Should Not Be Seated in Congress. 6 Local—Report on the New Y. M. C. A. Plans. Old Forge Murderer Still at Large. 7 Local—Official List of Candidates for next Tuesday's Election. Fight Over the New Trolley Road. 8 Local—West Scranton and Suburban. 9 Round About the County. 10 Local—Live Industrial News. Dr. Bullard on Homeopathy.

THE REVOLUTION IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Seven of the Insurgents' Vessels Destroyed—Leader Uribe Killed and Ruiz Taken Prisoner. Colon, Columbia, Oct. 31.—A report has reached here that on October 22 two armed government steamers destroyed seven insurgent vessels, one of the latter sinking with it is rumored, 200 soldiers. The government troops were victorious in a pitched battle with the insurgents near Bucaramanga. The insurgent leader, Uribe, was killed and the insurgent leader Ruiz taken prisoner. It is now believed that the revolution is ending.

SINGING BROKE UP A HOME.

Young Man with a Fine Tenor Voice Won the Wife Away. Allentown, Pa., Oct. 31.—Wesley Hawk, a young silk weaver of this city, was arrested today by Chief of Police Morris at Pleasanton, Berks county, who charges Hawk with alienating the affections of his wife. Duma was formerly recorder of Berks county and is active in Democratic politics. He is wealthy and owns a great deal of property at Pleasanton. He is an attractive woman of 39 years, and upon her Duma lavished all that money could buy, as her fancy dictated. When she wanted a piano it was at once procured, and when she desired a spanking team that attracted her fancy she was given it. Her husband, however, was not content with the society of young men, and her husband never objected until Hawk made his appearance in the town. He came there about a year ago to work in the silk mill, and soon after he met the pretty Mrs. Duma, Hawk, who is possessed of a fine tenor voice, has since that time been giving the admiration of Mrs. Duma, who is passionately fond of music. Hawk paid frequent visits to the Duma house, but his calls became so frequent as to excite public comment. The husband became suspicious, but indulged Hawk's attentions to his wife until several months ago, when he forbade him the house. Not long after Hawk left Pleasanton and came to Allentown, whether he was followed six weeks ago by Mrs. Duma. The latter, it is alleged, told her husband that she was going for some weeks, and Wilkes-Barre for some weeks, and Duma gave her $50 to pay the expenses of the trip and to enable her to have a pleasant time. She, however, came only as far as Allentown, where she joined Hawk.

The two lived together at a hotel until Saturday night, when Duma, who had heard of his wife's unfaithfulness, came to Allentown to investigate. He had warrants issued for the arrest of the couple, but a friend of Mrs. Duma, who had learned of the husband's intentions, came to Allentown with the same train and gave the couple the tip. Mrs. Duma managed to pack her trunks just in time to escape, but Hawk was arrested today at work and was lodged in jail. The police have possession of many gushing love letters that passed between the couple.

Our Trade with China. Our trade with China has been growing rapidly. But within a few years we have seen Russia closing in upon the Chinese empire. If she succeeds we shall not only be excluded from those markets, but we shall stand face to face with a power controlling an extent of territory on a scale of population, the like of which the world has never seen. In the presence of such a colossus of despotism and military socialism the welfare of every free people is in danger. Long before we are threatened by her, we should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except by name, some of us in Washington had foreseen this peril looming on the horizon, and had, long before we had our foothold on the island of Luzon, the master of Manila can make terms with every power in the East, and the Chinese empire, if she should ever know the Philippines except