COMPLETE BACKDOWN BY THE SELECT COUNCIL. After Declaring They Would Never Permit the Mayor to Ignore Council in Police Matters the Grave and Reverend Signiors of the Upper Branch Break Rules and Precedents and Threaten the Furniture in Falling Over One Another to Approve His Honor's Action.

After a sleep of nearly two months select council last night, unconditionally surrendered to the mayor in the police removal fight. The removal of Patrolman Saul and Dyer was approved and the appointment of Patrolmen—Special Officers Hockenbery and Davis in their stead was confirmed.

GILLETTE'S LATEST PLAY. Novelist Doyle Suggested the Possibilities of Sherlock Holmes to Him While in London.

William Gillette, whose latest play, "Sherlock Holmes," was presented at the Lyceum again last night before an audience that was charmed and fascinated is one of the most interesting characters on the stage today.

MR. ROCHE'S REMARKS. When the report was presented to council, Mr. Roche arose and read a communication sent up by the controller at a recent meeting enclosing the bill of Messrs. Hockenbery and Davis for services as special policemen for ten-day periods, extending from August 18 to September 27.

O'BOYLE DOES NOT KNOW. Mr. Roche interrupted with: "I would like to inquire if the gentleman from the Eighteenth doesn't know of the case-stated which ex-City Solicitor Torrey has brought in the interest of Messrs. Saul and Dyer?"
