SUSQUEHANNA POLITICS.

Lively Fight Among the Various Elements Anticipated.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Nov. 2.-Candidates and their Heutenants are just now doing a good deal of necessary eleventhhour work throughout Susquehanna Few public meetings have been held, but the work performed has been of the most practical sort, Some of the candidates have made a house-to-house canvass in whole districts, and even the most isolated sections have not been neglected.

The Susquehanna Journal, anti-Wright, has issued two special election editions. On Thursday it sent out an extra 4,000 edition. Besides the usual broadsides against Register and Recorder Wright, it contains, as an "advertisement" an eulogy of Bruce B. Buffum, of Friendsville, the Democratic candidate for register and re-corder, together with another "advertisement," an article entitled "To Lower the Price of Board at the County Jail." The price paid by the county to verely from an injected limb, sustained the sheriff for boarding prisoners is while milking a cow. $3.50 per week. The Democrats of the county have pledged themselves to board them for $1.75 per week.

The Hallstead Herald on Thursday issued a large special edition, with articles supporting the entire Republi-can ticket. In the event of the election of the entire Republican ticket, it is claimed that one of the new $2,000.000 state hospitals will presently be located in Susquehanna county; and that a bill will probably be passed by the next legislature, paying into the treasury of Susquehanna ccunty, $500,000. the amount paid the state as bonus by the Eric railroad company.

With the exception of the Montrose Democrat and the Susquehanna Journal, all of the newspapers in the county are giving the entire Republican ticket their support.

There is no good reason to believe that Susquehanna county will go Democratic next Tuesday.

UNION STATION.

Will Probably Be Erected in Honesdale in the Near Future.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, Nov. 3 .- Since the official notice one year last Saturday that the Gravity railroad and canal would be abandoned, the work of changing to a locomotive read has been steadily pushed forward. The stone work for the iron bridge at Plandin's is completed and the abutments for bridge at Torrey's dam will be finished this week. Today a survey is being made for a turn table to be located just south of the union docks, Most of the old iron has been taken from the union docks and the works are being razed to the ground. This is the last that remains of the canal equipment at Honesiule. Heavy steel rails are now being laid on the main track through the canal basin; the filling is completed except for track grading.

Contractor Conrad Schroeder of Scrunten was here today looking over the site for the new union passenger

FATAL ACCIDENT

Locomotive Explodes Near Wyalusing-Two Men Killed.

Special to The Scranton Tribune Towanda, Nov. 3.-A fatal accident, caused by the explosion of a locomotive occurred about eleven o'clock last evening, near Carmody's about four miles below Wyalusing. A D. & S. locomotive drawing a northbound train exploded, and killed Eugene Deegan, of Dushore, the fireman, and Fred Robinson, a brakeman of Towanda. The engineer, Daniel Georgia, of Sayre, received severe injuries. The body of Deegan was thrown into the river about thirty feet from where the accident occurred; and several hours were taken up in finding him. The killed are unmarried men. Georgia was Brandt on Saturday, Nov. 11. The suptaken to the Sayre hospital. Both tracks were blocked for several hours. The train was in motion when the explosion occurred.

TO BREAK THE HOYT WILL.

Disposition of Estate Attacked by Dead Woman's Son.

Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 3.-Before Judge Darte in the orphans' court room this morning Frank W. Hoyt, of Kingston, tried to break the will of his mother, the late Mary M. Hoyt, of Kingston, because he believes undue influence was used. His mother n cs tate is valued at between $150,000 and $200,000 and he received but $1,000.

In the arguments on the part of Mr. Hoyt's attorneys, H. W. Palmer, J. T. Lenahan and E. E. Hoyt, were made plain to the judge reasons why the will should not be set aside and the case given to a common pleas jury to decide the merits of the plaintiff's contest. Mrs. Hoyt died Sept. 4, 1898. By a will made seven years before her death she bequenthed her books, book ases and $1,000 in money to her only son, Frank b. Hoyt. The will explained that she did not give him a arger part of the estate because he already had abundant means from his father's estate. The remainder of her friends. large estate was bequeathed to her sisters, brothers and nieces. Attorney George K. Powell was made executor the will and he and ex-Judge D. L. Rhone are defending the will. The son who wishes to break the will alleges that undue influence was exercised by his aunt, a sister of the deceased, and that his mother was prevalled upon by such influence and confidence as to deprive him of the bulk of his mother's estate. Decision was reserved.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Two great concerts are soon to be giv n under the auspices of the Conserva tory of Music. Godowsky, the pianist, gives the first, and Ernest Gamble, the amous American basso, with Madame planist, of London, who toured with Madame Patti, give the second. Much the same interest is being mani-ested in the coming of the great Russian pianist. Gogowsky, under the ausof the Conservatory of Music, was shown in the visit of Rosenthal the teachers of the plane, to whom Golowsky is well known, are urging their tudents to attend, and as one teacher has taken forty tickets, another thirty, nother lifteen, etc., the sudent element will be well represented.

The Chicago musical critic for the New York Musical Courier says of a recital by Leopold Godowsky in Chicago in December of last year as follows: "The recital given by Mr. Godowsky, the great Russian planist, was the principal planistic event heard here for some time Modern criticism tends towards extrava-gance, either for or against, but in the matter of Mr. Godowsky it would be im-possible to speak aught but extravagantly, for the man is such a consummate artist. Godowsky, in the judgment of the unprejudiced, ranks with Rosenthal for technique, and is unsurpassed in inter-pretation. The extraordinary arrangement of the two G flat studies of Chopin is attemptable only by a Godowsky or Rosenthal, as the work to be done by the left hand is stupendous. After the performance of this arrangement, the audience insisted upon a repetition, and not the least enthusiastic applauder was Moritz Rosenthal, who occupied a box, and was probably the most appreciative istener in the audience. All the witchery of Godowsky's playing was apparent in the Liszt-Tanheueser overture which was the concluding number of a recital which ranks with any recital heard in Chicago

A school or class, for children, in the rudiments of music and singing, has been a long felt want in our city. We are glad to note that such classes are now being formed at the Jervis-Hardenbergh School of Music and Art. So many pupils were enrolled in the childrens class last Saturday that it has been found neces-sary to engage a larger hall. Guernsey's hall has been secured for the Saturday

Mr. Thomas Beynon, the excellent tenor singer of the Schubert quartette, and solist for years of the Second Presbyterian church choir, is soon to reside in New York city, where it is his intention of delevelopment of his rare tenor voice. Mr. Beynon has upon many occasions de-lighted Scranton audiences, and just as often has he been urged by his numerous friends to take up the study of music eriously for he surely has a bright futre in store. As a fitting token of esteem for his many good qualities timonial concert is being arranged for his benefit by a committee of representative people, with Mr. E. L. Fuller as chair-man; Mr. H. C. Shafer, treasurer, and E. E. Robathan, secretary. A full list of the names of the members of the committee will be published in a few days. The very best talent is being procured for the testimonial concert, which will be given at the Lyceum the forepart of De-cember. Tickets will soon be on sale by various parties.

SPORTING COMMENTS.

Buck Freeman, of the Washington National League Base Ball team, is at home in Wilkes-Barre, after establishing a record for himself as the champion long distance batter of the country. Freeman had to marvelous score of over 150 extra bases to his credit. He draws out twenty-six home runs alone. This is the big-gest record made in many seasons in the big league, and sets the old base ball scribes to thinking of Pete Browning, Dave Orr, Dan Brouthers, and other an-elent wielders of the ash of great renown. Freeman played with Washington all last season and a short part of the season before going to the team from Toronto in the Eastern league, well known in this city, having makes them the more striking.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The resolutions adopted by the board of coutrel were read to the pupils during chapel exercises yesterday. Every pupil under the new resolutions is expected to make seventy per cent. In each of his respective studies in order to be promoted. This entirely does away with the system of averages which was in prosystem of averages which was in progress last year, and puts in its place a superior system. It by the first of January the pupil falls to make the required mark he is just in a different class which has to go over the same work. This plan will show the pupils who have not devoted the required time to their different subjects and give proper credit to these subjects, and give proper credit to those who have the ability to advance, and those who have worked faithfully to pursue their studies without the hindrance of the backward scholars.

Beginning with Monday Professor Derman, the mustcal director of the school, will instruct the pupils of each class, which has a study period during the day, in the art of music. Five periods every Menday will be devoted to this purpose.

The High school is rapidly gaining the reputation of being one of the best pre-paratory schools in the state. Many pupils who have recently been graduated are leading their classes in some of the most prominent colleges in the country. Many studies which were not in the school last year are now being taught with great success. Spanish, French and German are taught the second year, to-gether with Latin and many other studtes. Everything needful to the pupil is furnished by the school board, and in a short time it is hoped that Scranton shall have the finest high school in the country.
