

FOOT BALL GAMES ON MANY FIELDS

PENNSYLVANIA OUTCLASSED BY HARVARD.

Crimsons Played the Better Game and Defeated the Quakers 16-0—Unsportsmanlike Conduct of Overfield and Several Penn Players—Princeton Wins from Brown, Yale Found West Point Easy and Lafayette Put Holes in Lehigh's Line—Games on Other Fields.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—The University of Pennsylvania foot ball team was defeated by the Harvard eleven games in that to the victor belongs the ball. When the Harvard men had recovered from their surprise they dashed after the flying Quaker for the purpose of getting the ball as a trophy.

Two or three Pennsylvania men gave the Harvard men the foot and some Pennsylvania is alleged to have struck a Harvard man in the face. A crowd gathered around the players and things for a moment looked ugly. George Woodruff, Pennsylvania's head coach, seeing the unsportsmanlike conduct of Overfield, hastened to secure the ball from him, making the latter apologize to the offended Harvard man. Several men got mixed up in the crowd and started to slug each other and the police had a hard time for a while in quelling the disturbance and clearing the field.

The final score was Harvard, 16; Pennsylvania, 0. The line-up was as follows: Harvard, ... Lafayette ... Princeton ...

Princeton—Brown. Princeton, N. J., Nov. 5.—In the presence of 3,500 people, with a cold northwest wind blowing, Princeton defeated Brown yesterday by a score of 18 to 6. The game throughout was characterized by Princeton's heavy line hitting and her strong defence.

Yale—West Point. West Point, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The Yale foot ball team defeated West Point yesterday, 24 to 0. By hard line bucking through the center and tackles, principally by McBride, Yale carried the ball three times across the goal line and got a fourth touchdown on a decision of the umpire, which was questioned by those on the side lines, who believed that instead of a touchdown by Yale the ball should have gone to West Point on their 30-yard line.

Lafayette—Lehigh. Easton, Nov. 5.—Lafayette defeated Lehigh on the gridiron yesterday by the score of 17 to 0. The scoring was all done in the first half. Lafayette worked mass plays on Lehigh's guards and tackles, scoring the first touchdown in ten minutes. Captain Bray kicked the goal. In 16 minutes more of the same style play Lafayette scored again, Bray failing at goal.

Bucknell—State College. Williamsport, Nov. 5.—The foot ball seven of Bucknell University defeated State College yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 0. In the first half Bucknell ripped holes in State's line and stopped her guards' back plays and end runs, frequently throwing State back for big losses. Following a sensational 35-yard run by Stanton, the ball was given to Case, who was shoved over from the yard and a half line for a touchdown. Matthewson's try for a goal at a difficult angle failed. Honors were more evenly distributed in the second half, but throughout the game Matthewson out-punted Case, gaining from 5 to 20 yards on nearly every exchange.

Games on Other Fields. At Chicago—University of Chicago 44, Purdue University 0. At Lancaster—Franklin and Marshall 6, Susquehanna University 6. At Utica—Carlisle Indians 32, Hamilton 0. At Millersville—State Normal 10, Yeast Institute 0. At Detroit—University of Michigan 25, University of Virginia 0. At Middletown—Westeyan 11, Dartmouth 0. At Carlisle—Swarthmore 6, Dickinson 5.

SPORTING NOTES.

Scranton foot ball enthusiasts are promised two treats in the near future. On Thanksgiving St. Thomas college will battle with the strong foot ball team of Villa Nova college. This is the eleven on which Joe Weir, of this city, who played recently with St. Thomas, is playing as quarter back. The game will be no means one-sided and ought to draw a large crowd to the park. The other foot ball treat promised will take place on November 15, when the Scranton high school and the eleven representing Williamsport high school will clash together on the gridiron for the inter-collegiate foot ball championship of Pennsylvania. Great interest is being taken in this game, and the merchants of this city are vying with each other in spurring the local pick-up chasers on to victory. One enterprising dealer has offered to the man making the most sensational play, a complete head armor; sweaters and other foot ball gear have also been offered.

In the past National league season, old Scranton base ball players have made an excellent showing, several of them batting over the .300 mark. Among these are Chiles, the big first baseman, who made a great reputation here as a heavy hitter, and then jumped the team, about four years ago. Alex Smith, who caught for one of Scranton's Eastern league teams, and Jack O'Brien, the heavy hitting outfielder and general utility man, who was such a prime favorite in Scranton. Chiles played first base for the Philadelphia Athletics, and made a reputation for himself as a fine throwing catcher and splendid batter. O'Brien played left field for Washington and covered himself with particular glory in one game by driving out a home run, a three-bagger and three singles.

It is understood that the total receipts of the Jeffries-Sharkey fight were $93,500. Of this amount the fighters fought for two-thirds, or $48,833. As the winner, Jeffries received three-quarters of that sum, amounting to $36,625. Sharkey's share was $12,208. Jeffries' victory, although netting him a small fortune, means thousands of dollars for him in theatrical engagements. For showing at Koster & Bial's this week he will receive $2,500. Sharkey, who also appears at the same place, will receive $1,500 a week. Jeffries' share of the receipts is the largest ever received by a prize fighter for winning a battle.

Sharkey says about Friday night's fight: "I will take $5,000 on Monday to bind another match with the champion. Although Siler gave the decision against me, I think I outpointed Jeffries, and he ought to have been disqualified. The next time I fight Jeffries there will be no limit as to the rounds. It must be to a finish. I want no referee to pick the winner; I want the fight to be won or lost on a knockout, and I think I can put the boiler-maker to sleep. I honestly believe that if I had not dislocated my arm in the second round I would have knocked Jeffries out."

George Siler says of the fight: "I decided the fight on its merits, and I know that for a good many rounds Sharkey did all the leading, but every time he landed Jeffries countered. I decided on a knockout because it was the limit, and in the twenty-five rounds Jeffries' work taken as a whole, was far superior to that of Sharkey. The greatest damage that Sharkey did was by questionable tactics. Again and again he butted after being warned, and three times he struck the other man after the bell rang. The referee, in his own mind, had the fight team disbanded last Thursday. This is an unfortunate occurrence and regretted by all interested in local foot ball. The team was strong, made up of clever, strong players and well trained by an energetic coach. However, it was an admitted fact that the team was made up more or less of second-rate players. The school feeling, therefore, which cemented and keeps together nearly every team, representing any institution of learning, was absent, and the result was the disbanding of the team."

Meeting of Promoters Held in New York to Arrange Details. New York, Nov. 5.—New York city will be represented in the new American Base Ball association, Tom O'Rourke, the prominent sporting man, and manager of Tom Sharkey, the pugilist, attended a meeting of the new league yesterday afternoon held at the Delavan House, and was one of the most enthusiastic delegates. He favored the new base ball deal, and by his prominence and enthusiasm added much to the prospects for the new organization.

Mr. O'Rourke said: "I am in this thing to stay. I am sure that the room for another base ball organization in New York city other than that represented by the Giants, and I will do my best to put a winning team in the field."

The new American association met this afternoon at the Delavan House. The Western delegates had a wild and woolly surplus of enthusiasm and after a time got down to business. There were present the following delegates: Detroit, Thomas Navin; Milwaukee, H. D. Quin; C. S. Heron; St. Louis, Chris von der Ahe; George Schatz, A. De Donate; Al Spink; Philadelphia, Frank Hough; Baltimore, John McGraw; William Robinson; Boston, C. W. Hyde. The new association claims that it has many players of the National league in its ranks and the presence of McGraw and Robinson, the crack players of the Baltimore club, proves the reliability of the claim. The new league starts off with considerable promise, and is as solid as can be in the west. St. Louis, Chicago, Milwaukee and Detroit will be the Western circuit. The Eastern circuit will be selected from the following cities: New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Boston and Providence.

STATE OFFICERS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

CHOSEN AT SATURDAY'S SESSION OF CONVENTION.

Mrs. L. M. Gates of This City is Continued in the Office of President. Missionary Conference on Saturday Afternoon Was Led by Miss Hays. Farewell Service Was Held Last Night in the Baptist Church. Several Scranton Delegates Left for Home Saturday.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune. Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 5.—The morning session of Friday opened with prayer services led by Mrs. G. E. Wilbur, of Bloomsburg. Miss Babcock, of New York, gave a Bible study on the gift of the Holy Spirit. The section conferences were crowded full of interesting discussions. The city conference was led by Miss Nild, of Chicago. The finance topic was discussed very ably by Miss Wood, of Reading. Miss Van Nort, of Scranton, gave one of the most practical and interesting talks of the convention on the girls' branch, telling of the experience of the Loyalty club, of South Scranton. Miss Carson, of New York, also spoke of the work for young girls in New York, and Miss Nild told of some recent successful work in Chicago. Miss Shadlow, of Wilkes-Barre, read a fine paper on "Physical Training as a Part of Young Women's Christian Association Work."

At the college conference, led by Miss Price, Miss Bynon, of Woman's Medical college, told of their Young Women's Christian association building, and other college delegates also told of rooms fitted up by their associations for their use. Miss Cora Clark, of Shippensburg, spoke of Christian influence in the gymnasium. Miss Mary Dunn gave an excellent talk on the value of affiliation membership with the State association.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session hour found the young women hurrying to the church in gossamers with umbrellas, for the rain was pouring down. But Young Women's Christian association delegates are not easily discouraged, and so the attendance was good. Mrs. Gates, state chairman, gave her report. This was followed by the report of Treasurer Mrs. H. J. Carr, of Scranton, which was, as usual, very full and complete and accurate.

After the treasurer's report came an address by Mrs. W. T. Smith, state chairman, of New York on the relation of the local association to the state committee. Mrs. Smith has a charming personality and completely won the audience. She spoke of the relation of the individual association to the general organization as that of the child to the mother. At the close of the afternoon session a reception was given at the association building on Third street. It is an old-fashioned home, reminding one of Mt. Vernon with its big columns in its front and its quiet interior. It is fitted up in a cosy, homelike way. Besides the meeting room, office, library, reception room and dining room, there are five rooms upstairs where ten girls can be accommodated who are employed in the city. The general secretary, Miss Stover, also has rooms in the building. The house is surrounded by a large yard, containing a rose garden which has a mass of bloom all summer. The evening session was also in the midst of a severe storm, but many were present to hear Miss Nild's earnest talk.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

The following committees were appointed: Credentials, Mrs. Howard Cheyner, Williamsport, chairman; Mrs. Pierce, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Allen, Pennsburg. Resolutions, Miss Martha Shoemaker, chairman, Wilkes-Barre; Margaret Irwin, Allegheny college; Miss Mary Chambers, Darlington seminary. Report and elections, Miss Emma Hays, chairman, Pittsburg; Margaret Bynon, Women's Medical college; Martha Bennet, Wilkes-Barre. These new officers were chosen: President, Mrs. L. M. Gates, Scranton; Vice-president, Mrs. E. J. Gray, Williamsport; secretary, Miss Ida Shaffer, Reading; secretary of the city conference, Miss Lois Shadlow, Wilkes-Barre; secretary of the college conference, Miss Sarah S. Kirk, West Chester.

Clear and cold was the morning air when the delegates to the Young Women's Christian association state convention on Saturday wended their way to the church for the morning prayer service and the Bible study. Miss Babcock, of New York, who is giving the Bible lessons, is a clear, simple speaker with a practical, helpful message, and her work is much appreciated. A feature of the forenoon was the singing of the Juniors, of Williamsport, who marched in with their pink badges on and sang very sweetly a gospel song.

The conferences were full of interest. The city workers spent most of the time discussing the adaptation of Young Women's Christian association to business women. In the college conference Miss Stanton, of Lewisburg, gave a good talk on "A Girl's Influence in College."

Saturday afternoon Miss Hays led a missionary conference, when various phases of the missionary work of the association were discussed. Dr. Underwood, of Lancaster; Miss Fonce, of Pittsburg; Mr. M. R. Kays, of Scranton; Mrs. W. W. Lathrop, of Scranton; Miss Eveline Stanton, of Lewisburg; Mrs. J. A. Robertson, of Williamsport, and Mrs. W. M. Stephens, of Scranton, were re-elected as members of the state executive committee. Morning services are as follows: Morning devotionals at association building; consecration service in the afternoon, led by Miss Carson, of New York, followed by gospel meeting for girls of Williamsport, led by Miss Nild. The delegates spoke at various churches in the evening and all joined in the farewell service in the Baptist church at 8:30, which closed the convention. Several Scranton delegates left for home Saturday afternoon. The Dickinson Seminary association gave a reception Saturday evening.

FIREMEN WILL BE TRIED.

Charges Preferred Against Permanent Men by Chief Walker. Permanent Men Bailey and Lisk, of the General Phinney Engine company, have been summoned to appear before Mayor Mohr this morning to answer charges preferred against them by Chief Walker. One of the men, it is understood, was found out duty without permission and the other made mis-statements to the chief in trying to shield his erring brother. The chief made an investigation of the matter and came to the conclusion that this sort of thing had been of frequent occurrence.
