WEEKLY SCHOOL DEPOSITS RAP-IDLY INCREASING.

Collections Yesterday Were Larger Than Any Received Thus Far This Term-Little Child Knocked Down by a Horse and Slightly Injured-Prospects of Tolday's Elections-Liew Herbert's Concert-Father Mathew's Ball-F. F. C. Club Organized-Church, Funeral and and Other Announcements.

Yesterday's deposits at the West Bide bank from the three public schools was the largest amount since the schol term begun. This is accounted for from the fact that the employes of the pelaware, Lackawanna and Western mines were paid last week. The majority of the mine workers' families reside in close proximity to the schools and all the children receive their "wages" every pay-day and deposit them with the school fund. The largest amount collected yesterday was received from the pupils at 19 school, where Miss Josephine D. Lees is principal. It was Miss Lees who introduced the system in the pub-The sums lic schools of Scranton. collected by the teachers in the various departments was as follows:

Miss Lees, $2.50; Miss Murray, 65 cents; Miss Nichols, 64 cents; Miss Beamish, $7.23; Miss Morgan, $1.29; Miss Leader, 20 cents, Miss Flynz, $1.70; Miss Evans, $1.95; Miss Kellow, 96 cents; Miss Wade, $1.86; Miss Murphy $1.62; Miss Yost $7 cents; Mrs Feber, $1.44; Miss Peck, 32 cents; total. $23.23.

At No. 13 Prof. David Owens, principal, $19.02, was received, as follows Owens, $1.59; Martha Watking Prof. $1.25; Elizabeth Lewis, 83 cents; Alive Evans, $2.50; Bertha, Kelly, $1.95 Edna D. Evans, 60 cents; Nellie Richards, $1.66; Catherine Phillips, $3.29; Nellie Kelley, 76 cents; Sarah McDonald, 35 cents; Elizabeth Price, $3.32;

Mary Harris, $1.21; total, $19.02. There is not much interest taken in the savings accounts by the teachers and pupils at No. 32, which, in a measure, accounts for the small collections, but it must also be stated that there is not as large a number to draw from as at Nos. 13 and 19. The amount deposited yesterday, however, is in keep ing with the usual collections and is as follows:

Miss Vaughn, $1.99; Miss Frieman, $1.98; Miss Mullen, $2.86; Miss Ruddy, 66 cents; Miss Knapp, $1.59; Miss Fellows, 69 cents: Miss O'Connor, 90 cents. Miss Carpenter, $1.19; total, $11.86.
