VICTORY IN MONROE.

teturns Indicate That Republicans Have Made Large Gains.

ecial to The Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 7 .- The indiations point to a substantial victory n Monroe county for the Republicans. From returns received, the election of amuel Reinhart, county commissioner, more than probable. Little scratchng was done today by the independent roters on the state ticket. Uarnett vill fall only about 100 behind Brown, who will receive the largest vote on he Republican ticket. Every possisle means was used today by the Demerats to get out the full party vote end in consequence liverymen in the poroughs and farmers in the county reaped a small harvest. The Demowatic leaders failed to get out the rote in this town. Barnett's Republican candidate for state treasurer, vote in this county will be about 800. County Chairman John T. Palmer's esmate was 900. Creasy will poll near-y 2,800. Democratic County Chairy 2,800. man ex-Judge Barnett Mansfield's esimate was 3,200. Ex-Judge Mansfield had counted on a great many Republicans to cut Barnett, but in this he appears to have been mistaken. The farmers appear to have stood nobly by the soldier candidate and but little cutting was done in this town and East Stroudsburg. The returns come in slowly from the country districts and it is hard to make any accurate estimate on the county ticket. The western districts are believed to have voted heavily for the candidates on the farmers' ticket. There was a small vote for the farmers' ticket in the towns. Samuel Reinhart, the Kepublican candidate for county commissioner, today received a great many Democratic votes and his election seems assured. There is also apparently no doubt over the election of ex-County Treasurer Fred W. Eilenberger, the regular Democratic candidate for county treasurer. Walter S. Dutat, regular Democrat, will have over 500 majority over A. H. Teeter, the Republican candidate for register and recorder, who was endorsed by the independents.

TROUBLE AT FRIENDSVILLE.

A Republican Inspector of Elections Ejected from the Polls by a Democratic Board.

Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, Nov. 7 .- Friendsville, the home of B. B. Buffum, Democratic candidate for register and recorder, was the scene of the only disgraceful incident connected with election in the entire county of Susquehanna. Recently Attorney Selden Munger presented to court a petition and affidavit of the voters of Friendsville in which it was set forth that M. McInerney, who was elected inspector of election last February, had removed from the election district and prayed for the appointment of Robert Gillen, a worthy and reputable citizen, who has held many offices in the borough, notably justice of the peace. The Democratic board refused this morning to recognize the order of Judge Searle appointing Squire Gillen as inspector and forcibly ejected him from the polls. Attorneys Selden Munger and R. B. Little were in telephonic connection with Mr. Gillen and after consultation the board, which is illegal, was allowed to proceed with its work. It is in the opinion of the best legal authorities an illegal election for Friendsville borough and Mr. Buffum will probably lose the votes of his own district, which generally goes Democratic by 25 ma-

Interesting Programme Presented Yesterday-Prominent Instructors. Special to The Scranton Tribune

Honesdale, Nov. 7 .- At the teachers' institute yesterday afternoon Prof. Thomas S. March and Prof. Creasy were chosen vice-presidents. Mr. H. H. Rounds, secretary, and Mr. Prosper Gager, treasurer. Porf. Bible missed railroad connections and could not appear on his number. The time was well taken by Dr. Kinnaman on primary reading and by Dr. Henry R. Sanford, of the department of public instruction state of New York state, on number work.

In the evening Dr. Henry Sanford gave his very interesting illustrated lecture on Cuba and Porto Rico.

Tuesday morning devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. J. Whalen. Prof. J. A. Sprenkel, of Bethlehem, Pa. is musical director, and Miss Grace Corey, of Honesdale, planist for the Dr. A. J. Kinnaman, professor of pedagogy in central Normal College and Commercial Institute, Danvilla, Ind., took up the subject of "Primary Reading." which he presented as idea writing and reading by object in a very interesting manner. He was followed by Prof. George P. Bible, A. M., principal State Normal school, Stroudsburg, Pa., who took up the subject of "School Management." To illustrate he referred to the history of Arcadia and the story of Evangeline. He was followed by Dr. Sanford. who continued his talk on number work by signs and observations and illustrations which he followed up at the afternoon session. Dr. Sanford visited

FATAL GUNNING ACCIDENT.

Edward Kuhn Killed by Discharge of His Weapon.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Susquehanna, Nov. 7 .- A fatal gunning accident occurred at Stevens Point, on the Jefferson branch, on Saturday afternoon. While Edward Kahn, a young man of that hamlet, was out on the mountains hunting, he in some manner accidentally discharged his gun, and severed an artery in one of his legs, bleeding to death before medical aid could be secured. His age was 22 years, and he was unmarried. The funeral took place and was largely attended this afternoon from the Stevens' Point Methodist church. Rev. D. C. Parsons, paster of the Lanesboro Methodist church officiating. The remains were interred in the Stevens' Point cemetery.

Marriage of Miss St. John and Mr. Hutchins at Pittston. Special to The Eccapton Tribune.

Pittston, Nov. 7 .- Miss Lucy St. John, a popular young lady of the Garden Village, daughter of C. A. St. John, was united in marriage this evening to Rheiner T. Hutchins, a highly respected young man of Wyoming. The wedding was performed in Trinity Episcopal church by the rector, Rev. Frank P. Harington in the presence of a number of invited guests.

An elaborate reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride's parents, on York avenue. Openheim's orchestra furnished music and a tempting wedding supper was served. The wedding was the leading society event of the season.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

pecial to The Scranton Tribune

Towarda, Nov. 7 .- In the locomotive explosion on Thursday night, Warren Robinson, of Sayre, was killed, instead of one Fred Robinson, as first reported. The funeral of Deegan was held at Dushore on Sunday, as also was that of Robinson. A large number from this place attended the funerals, a speial train being run to Dushore. Mr. Robinson leaves a wife and three young children, and had been employed as Lehigh Valley brakeman only a few weeks.

Neil Allen, a fourteen-year-old lad, fell from a tree onto a stick and received a severe injury in the right side of his groin. The stick was forced upward into the bowels.

The wedding of Hon. E. M. Dunham, president judge of the Fortyfourth judicial district, and Mrs. Nelli-Shaut, one of Towanda's popular society members, was solemnized at the bride's home by Dr. J. S. Stewart last Wednesday, After their return from Philadelphia they will reside at Laorte, Sullivan county.

David Goodman, the colored blacksmith, died last Wednesday, aged seventy years, from results of being kicked by a horse some time ago. A wife and several children survive him.

Track hands are now being laid off on the Lehigh Valley sections at a rapid rate. A ten-mile railroad is to be built MABEL. I expect you'll think me a crank on Ripans Tabules. I want to tell you the latest case. Roswell was here from Schenectady. You know he's Emily's husband: he was looking as yellow as saffron, and I went right over to the drug store opposite and bought a supply of the Tabules, and made him take them according to the directions-three a day.

MABEL.

Did he do it? Yes, and you ought to have seen the change in him; It's complexion cleared up in the week he was here, and Em writes that she never saw such a change in a man in all her life.
