MILLER LABAR SUED.

Another Phase in the Celebrated Case. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Nov. 10.—Another turn was taken in the Miller-Labar feud. The family of Hiram Miller who sent his newly wedded son-in-law, Mossa LaBar, to jail, has turned against him. Justice Robert Ammer has ordered LaBar to answer the charge of larceny preferred by his brother-in-law, Hiram Miller. The bonds were furnished by Lewis Miller, a son of the prosecutor. The father will not be reconciled and asserts that he will have LaBar arrested for stealing his daughter who is only 15 years old. When the license was given to the bride she swore that she was 21 years old. LaBar, who had recently married Miss Annie Miller, daughter of Hiram Miller, swears that the bridegroom, LaBar, and two wagon wheels alleged to have been stolen were given the newly married couple as wedding presents. Miller, who is causing all the family disturbance, is a well known doctor in the town of Stroudsburg, this county. He does not like his son-in-law, who has been in the penitentiary no less than two years.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM CURES OTHERS, WHY NOT YOU?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well. —Adolph L. WYOMING SEMINARY.

Cornell scrubs and Wyoming seminary "varsity" will meet in a contest this afternoon on the local gridiron. Great interest and enthusiasm abound over this game that has ever before been displayed in the history of the seminary. Excursion parties from all the surrounding towns are already arranged. "Al" Bull, Pennsylvania's coach and ex-center rush, has been coaching the seminary team on some new plays. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. The Syracuse University Glee and Mandolin clubs have been secured to give a concert on January 3, 1900, in the Nelson Memorial chapel. The entertaining Amphletton society are the ones who have arranged for the date. The junior and senior classes will play a game of football on the Wyoming field on November 21. A "Deestrich Schule" is scheduled to take place during the first week of December. The cast will be composed of the best talent of the seminary and many laughable features will be introduced.

It is Incontrovertible!

The Editor of the "Christian Million," under the heading of "General Notes," on August 20, 1898, wrote: "A good article will stand upon its own merits, and we may rely upon it that nothing will continue to be best standard of the many which are published concerning it." Mr. Hall Calne, Author of "The Deestrich," "The Manxman," "The Christian," etc., when speaking of "The Deestrich," recently said: "When a thing that is advertised greatly is good it goes and goes permanently; when it is bad, it only goes for a while to the public mind." The Proprietor of BEECHAM'S PILLS has said over and over again: "It is a fallacy to imagine that anything will last just because it is advertised. How many nostrums have been started with glare and scented oil in bloom? The fact is, a medicine is not easily gulled a second time; and every dissatisfied purchaser does ten times more harm than one satisfied does good. Accordingly the sale of more than 6,000,000 boxes of BEECHAM'S PILLS per annum, affords a partial trial of half-a-century, is a conclusive testimony to their popularity, superiority and proverbial worth." Beecham's Pills have won many prizes from the public and they now stand without a rival. In bottles, no cost and no charge, sent on request.

LOST A RAFT OF LOGS.

Oscar Polner and Partner Are Searching for the Susquehanna. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Towanda, Nov. 10.—Oscar Polner and partner are in search along the Susquehanna river for a raft of logs, containing 10,000 feet of lumber, which represents a whole season's contract. The logs had been taken to the river at Mehoopany, lashed into a raft and moved to the side of the stream to await the stream's arising so that they could be floated down to Forty Fort. It is a mystery as to their whereabouts as they were seen last Thursday.

Test the Game Law.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Milford, Pa., Nov. 10.—The state board of game commissioners have taken action that may possibly lead to the testing of the Pike county game law, which act, they contend, was repealed by the general act of 1897. If evidence can be secured it is said that two parties in Pike county were prosecuted for killing deer before Nov. 1 in the state of Pennsylvania. If such a thing occurs it seems certain that the case will be carried to the Supreme court, when a decision will be rendered as to which law is operative in Pike county, and whether the game commissioners' assumption is correct.

Republican Gain.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 10.—There is one township in this county which is giving the Republicans encouragement. Eldred township for a number of years only cast one Republican vote. At the late election two votes were polled for Barnett, the popular soldier candidate, and 157 for Farmer Greasy. The Republicans leaders expected a great margin this year, but are satisfied with the outlook of eventually capturing Eldred township. In Price township the Republican vote was one, showing a loss.
