REV. CRAWFORD'S NOTICE.

Threatens to Publish the Names of License Signers.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Nov. 13 .- At the close of his evening service in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening, the pastor, Rev. Robert H. Crawford, created a decided sensation by announcing that he intended to read from the pulpit the names of all the license signers and those lawyers who plend for the licenses. The remark was occasioned by a report that the young pastor had backed down and that he was afraid to carry out the reform which he had adopted some months ago. Said the paster, I don't care to be harping on the same story all the time, but when the proper time ar-Quite a few prominent lawyers belong to Rev. members. Rev. Crawford also had something to say about the election methods of Monroe county politicians. He scored treating and spoke of the excellent run a defeated candidate had made because he had used clean methods. The pastor referred to the Republican candidate for register and recorder. who had only spent five dollars for campaign purposes. He said that he would dismiss his class meeting if it interferred with the primaries.

HOWMAN-CORCORAN CASE.

Judge Halsey Handed Down an Ominion.

Special to the Scrapton Tribune. Pittston, Nov. 13 .- In court at Wilkes-Barre today Judge Halsey handed down an opinion in the Bowman-Corcoran case, which was an action brought to test the legality of the election of Thomas J. corcoran to be mayor of Pittston during the term for which he was elected councilman.

At the death of Mayor Harding racently Mr. Corcoran who was then a councilman, resigned, and was elected mayor by the city councils. Mr. Bowman contended that Mr. Corcoran could not legally hold the office of mayor, because the two years which he was elected councilman had not yet expired. Judge Haisey decides in favor of Mr. Corcoran and in his opinion he says, in brief, that the act of May 23, 1809, regulating cities of the third class supersedes the act of May 15, 1874. Mr. Bowman having based his claims on the 1874 act, loses the ---

Nimrod Lowerv's Hunting Trip at Gulf Summit Proves Exciting.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Nov. 13 .- L. E. Lowery met with a queer adventure at Gulf tistic manner. Summit a few days ago.

He recently purchased a valuable fox hound and while out hunting, started Lowery did not know just where the runway was until the fox ran between his legs, tripping him in such a manner as to throw him bodily. In falling one barrel of his gun was lischarged, killing a Jersey cow in an adjoining field. A farmer of the viinity who saw the accident ran to Lowery's assistance, only to find him with a sprained wrist. The farmer soon after saw the fox a short distance away and he picked the gun up and killed it. Lowery will be compelled to pay for the cow.
