Godowsky.

Knabe.

To Mr. Pennington, of the Scranton Conservatory of Music, lo we, the music-loving people of Scranton, owe many thanks. In securing this great planist for our enjoyment, he furthers the cause of good music and brings within our reach the possibility of a better understanding of the classics.

Godowsky plays the Knabe. Other eminent pinnists, such as Von Bulow and Sauer, have used the Knabe plano, and are delighted with its beautiful tone.

Do you know this Piano? It is the best of all good Pianos. No other can surpass it either in the quality of tone or the workmanship.

JUROR WENT INTO AN APOPLECTIC FIT

HOLGATE WAS ARGUING.

Towards the Close of a Common Pleas Case Juror Michael Hughes Was Stricken with Apoplexy and the Case Had to Proceed with Eleven Jurors-A Reverened Juror Censured by Judge Savidge for Taking the Commonwealth's Time to Perform a Marriage Ceremony.

When a reargument of the Gibbons ase was ordered by the supreme court some weeks ago it was reported that the court was moved to this by its desire to hear the eloquence of Attorney Richard Holgate, of which it denied itself at the original hearing. Now it is a question if the supreme justices will persist in this intention. Yesterday afternoon while Mr. Holgate was making the closing address for the defense in the interpleader case of Lydia Bush against C. Matthewson, one of the jurors, Michael Hughes, the well known Sand Banks ball player, went into an apopletic fit and fell from his chair to the floor. Dr. George Brown, a fellow juror, and Doctors Watson and Porteus, who are witnesses in the latter's case against the trolley company, attended the afflicted juror and in the course of an hour he was able to be removed to his

The other eleven jurors withstood the ordeal and by agreement of coun-sel the case was submitted to them. An agreement was reached shortly after adjournment

CLERGLMAN DELAYED.

This same case was attended by another unusual incident. The counsel were very anxious for the case to be tried this week, and to accommodate them Judge Savidge arranged to call it at 12.45 p. m., hoping to dispose of it before 1.30 o'clock, the hour at which court usually reconvenes, and at which time Dr. Porteus' case was scheduled to be resumed. A jury was sworn before the noon adjournment at 11.45 and the jurors instructed to be on hand promptly at quarter of one. One of the jurors, Rev. C. D. Moore, of Green Ridge, was late in arriving and the court had worked itself into a very unamiable mood by the time Rev. Mr. Moore put in an appearance, He was called to the bench and asked by Judge Savidge how it came he had neglected to obey the court's directions to be on hand at 12.45 o'clock. Mr. Moore replied that when he arrived home he found a couple waiting to be married and had thrown aside his position as a servant of the commonwealth long enough to perform the nuptial ceremony. The court was not altogether satisfied with this excuse and told the tardy witness that he should have secured permission from court before entering upon employment that would trespass on the time that belonged to the commonwealth. The preacher took his seat in the box and the case was proceeded with.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS. Attorney Charles L. Hawley was making the closing argument for the plaintiff in the case of E. J. Williams against Emily L. Mgore, administratrix, at adjourning time in No. 1. At-

he defendant Much of the morning was taken up vith arguments for and against the admission as evidence of certain averments made by the plaintiff in the original suit and which are alleged to be widely at variance with the plaintiff's statement in the present case, One of these discrepancies is found n an allegation made in the original suit, but wanting in this, to the effect that a ten foot core of coal secured from an adjoining tract was secretly placed in the prospecting drill by the owner of the land with the connivance of an employe of the prospectors, with the intention of deceiving the intending purchasers. The case will likely go to the jury today. The trespass case of Dr. J. S. Porteus against the Scranton Railway company was resumed in the afternoon, the jury having spent the morning in viewing the scene of the acci-

The plaintiff presented testimony from ex-Supervisor Frank Toole, Ho-mer Warner and John Koons, residents of the township, to show that to cross the bridge it was necessary to drive

ACCIDENT DESCRIBED. Dr. Porteus then described the accident and told of the injuries he re-He was allowed by Judge Savidge to give expert testimony as to his present condition and express opinions on the probable permanent effects of his hurts. He says he is suffering from locomotor-ataxia and that it is an incurable disorder.

In the case of Salvatore Magnorta against Charles Cooper, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $91.

Eighth Ward Contest. Six witnesses were exemined in the Eighth ward election contest yesterday. They were Gus Brown, Frank Mart'n Monagaan, Jinkowtz, Michael Walsh and Edward Weiss. The cost of the session to the taxpayers was:

Examiner, $19; stenographer, $5; witnesses, $6; constables, $3; interpreter, $1; transcript of evidence (estimated), $5; total, $30. The contest it will be remembered is to decide which of two men was elected constable. It has been piling up expenses for nearly a year and promises to continue for another six months.

Henry Jurkoritz, one of the hotel proprietors, was charged with setting to the building, but O'Brien & Kelly convinced a jury last spring that this was all a mistake and the hotel propietors succeeded in collecting their insurance on the stock and fix tures. SPORTING NEWS.

The foot ball event of the season will take place next Saturday afternoon when the high school teams, of Williamsport and Scranton, will battle for the state inter-scholastic championship. The High School team is materially strengthened by the addition of Arch Brown and James Horan to the team. These two men will both prove towers of strength, and by the acquisition of them the eleven present an entirely new appearance when it files on the field. John Malla, who has been playing guard on the team was formerly the High School center, and in 1897 was chosen as the center of the all Lacka-wanna county eleven. He will be seen in the old position again Saturday. On either side of him will be the strapping guards, John and James No. 21—Two engines. John Gahagan. Behind the line the High School is almost invincible. Captain Clarence De Bow is one of the fastest halfbacks in the county, while his dough-ty running mate Arch Brown, will undoubtedly get around the ends and rip up the line, in the same manner that the won so many games for the School of Lackawanna. Oliver Williams, who 7.30 a. m., north—McLane. has been playing half-back so far this to a. m., north-E. McAllister, season, will be stationed at full-back, 12 noon, south-H. The game is expected to draw 7 a. m., Widener. the largest crowd ever seen at the 8 p. m.-Peckins. park, and it probably will.

Another eventful game of the season will take place on Wednesday, November 22, when the strong St. Thomas eleven will join issues with the High School. St. Thomas has a very strong team, and it will doubtlessly be a very fierce game.

The merchants of this city are taking great interest in the game for Saturday, and by offering prizes are doing their best to spur the boys on to play a great game. Florey & Brooks offer a complete head-harness to the runner making the first touch-down. Jonas Long's Sons offer a handsome sweater to the man playing the best sued by Superintendent Salisbury, relagame, and Alex. Dunn will give a tive to the collection of fares for chilnecktie to the player putting up the dren on the Lackawanna railroad: best all around game.

Charles Gelbert, of the city, is playing a great game at end on the Duquesne Athletic club team at Pittsburg. This eleven is one of the strongest aggregations of players on the gridiron and the fact that Gelbert shines as he does, among such a galaxy of stars, stamps him as one of the finest players that ever booted the pigskin. Pesides Gelbert. Wagonhurst. and Jackson, old University of Pennsylvania men, are on the team, and the half-backs are Fultz and Gammons, who played with Brown University in 1897, and were then regarded as two of the fastest backs in the foot ball world. Nearly every man on the team was formerly a star player on one of the larger university tcams, and so far this season, the eleven has not met a single adversary against whom It has not rolled up an overwhelming

KING HUMBERT'S SPEECH.

At Opening of Parliament-Italy's Participation in The Hague Affair. Rome, Nov. 14.-At the opening of parliament today, King Humbert in his speech from the throne alluded to Italy's participation in The Hague eace conference, and, after enlarging on the responsibility of parliament to secure to the country progress and the development of its economic resources,

"The forthcoming celebration of the oly year will be a signal event for the Catholic world and our epoch and will afford us an opportunity of showng once more how entirely we respect and cause to be respected the obligations we assumed, when in achieving Italian unity, we made good the title of Rome to be the capital of the kingdom of the Italian people. I am watching you, gentlemen, and I await your labors with confidence. May they be as fruitful as the events require. The innate satisfaction arising from the accomplishment of your duty will be your most cherished reward for the good you will have done the country by strengthening the confidence of the people in the national institutions. This is the dearest wish I can form today, as king and an Italian, that you will so act. | 0000000000000000

I am convinced that I will have the satisfaction of seeing my desire realized. Everything leads to the hope that the notable economic revival in Italy will continue and that by sedulous work by the utilization of all our productive energies and by the intelligent and assured protection of our agriculture and industries we will be able to lay solid and durable foundations for the reforms of which so much has been said but which have never been real-

GRUESOME RUSINESS.

Undertaker Thompson Admits Selling Human Bodies.

St. Louis, Nov. 14.-Four zinc-lined runks, such as are used by traveling men to carry samples, each containing a corpse, were taken from the baggage room at Union station today, and Frank Thompson, who says he is city undertaker of Memphis, Tenn., is under ar rest. Charges against Thompson ar eing formulated.

For some time the police have been aware that a traffic in human bodies has been going on through this city and have been on the watch for evidence. Recently a shipment of four podies in trunks was made, addressed o W. H. Hamsen, at Keokuk, Iowa, to whom those captured today were consigned.

When taken to police headquarters, Thompson made a clean breast of the whole affair. He said he had the contract for burying the city dead of Memphis. For some time he had been sell-ing the bodies to medical colleges throughout this part of the country. His method was to pack them with excelsior in drummers' zinc-lined trunks and take them with him as baggage as far as St. Louis. From here he shipped the trunks to their destination by express. Thompson said he had been paid all the way from $50 to $200 per body. He said the name W. H. Ham-sen, to whom the trunks were addressed in Keokuk, is a fictitious one but refused to reveal the right address.
In the trunks are the bodies of three negroes, two men and a boy and white woman. From appearances they all died of consumption or some other wasting disease. All the bodies are well preserved.

CHARLES STEWART ARRESTED.

A Dangerous Forger and Confidence Man in the Toils.

Pittsburg, Nov. 14.-Charles E. Stewart, said to be one of the most noted and dangerous forgers and confidence men in the country, was arrested here today and he is confined in the central police station awaiting the arrival of an officer from Buston, where he is wanted in connection with a $3,000 swindling scheme. The Pittsburg police have been on the lookout for him for several weeks. Stewart is said to be a member of a notorious gang of bunco workers that has been doing business all over the country. Stewart is about sixty years of age, and would be picked out for a preacher rather than a criminal.
