THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1899.

be fashionable and as her husband expressed it as his opinion that at any rate the new physician wouldn't harm her she decided to be a convert. The doctor declared that the difficulty was all indigestion and she quite enjoyed the small pellets and the two glasses of pleasant fluid which she must take more or less alternately.

One day another friend who sympathlzed with her difficulties, asked cave to introduce a new physician who had come to this city. He was an esteopathist and all the other doctors ridiculed him and his kind of a pathy.

When you had a pain in your little inger he was very apt to begin plach-ing your great toe in order to locate the disease. He located Mrs. X's all-ment in the third section of her vertebra below the back of her neck, and men welcome that.

gibbering idiot.

money for frills.

on schedule time.

wedding of Miss Simpson to Mr. Henry Harvey Brady, jr., on Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Brady will be at home after

Dec. 1 at $25 Olive street. On Tuesday night Miss Welles en-tertained the guests of the bridal parwho were to have been prominent in the church wedding at a dinner at her home on Vine street. The guests were the bride and groom, Miss Kauffman, of Lancaster; Florence Waring, of Plainfield, N. J., Miss Eleanor Hall, Morristown, N. J.; Miss Anne Rey-solds, Orange, N. J.; Miss Elizabeth Lefforte, New York; Miss Belin and Miss Augusta Archbald, of this city, who were to be bridesmaids: Harden S. Crawford, Mr. Arthur L. Whesier, of Philadelphia: Dr. Jacob C. Otto, of Buffale, N. Y.; William C. Nelll, War- ful lamp was given to the bride. ren, Pa.; George Jarvis, jr., Pittsburg; Dr. J. Windsor Decker, James Blair, jr., P. B. Belin and J. H. Brooks, of Scranton On Wednesday night the bridal pa-ty, chaperoned by Mrs. Evereit War-ren and Mrs. H. W. Kingabury, enjoyed a dinner dance at the Country club.

One of the most pleasing events that and Mrs. Willis Kemmerer, Mr. and has occurred in church circles in recent Mrs. Oscar Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. years was the praise meeting conducted Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kingsby the Dunmore Presbyterian Missionary society at the home of Mrs. A. D. Blackinton, at Dunmore, Thursday afternoon. The beautiful residence was w. G. Parke, Mrs. M. A. Friedlander, Mrs. M. W. Torry, Miss Margaret L. enhanced by a display of chrysanthemums and other flowers, and the rooms where the event was celebrated wore a pleasing appearance. The meeting was taken up with a programme of merit participated in by members of the society, assisted by Mrs. Diadunton a guests. A charming solo was rendered M. Harper, Miss Gussie Harper, Mr. by Mrs. George DuB. Dimmick and plano selections by Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James McWill-George B. Smith were thor- lams, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McWilliams, oughly enjoyed by those present. Papers of an interesting character were read by Mrs. J. E. Burr, of Carbondale, and Mrs. Kays of this city, Mrs. A. E. Hunt and members of the society contributed to the program.

During the session $140 was collected by various methods and donated to the cause. At the conclusion of the entertainment refreshments were served. Those who assisted Mrs. Blackinton in receiving were: Mrs. J. E. Burr, of Carbondale; Mrs. W. F. Gibbons and Mrs. M. E. Close. Around the rooms as guests of the society were Mrs. William Teeter, Mrs. Henry Beyea, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. C. S. Weston, the Misses Bone, Miss Taft and Miss Brun-Those who served at the table son. were Mrs. George B. Smith and Miss King, assisted by Miss Lewis and Miss King, of West Pittston; Miss Farrer, Miss Fowler, Miss Decker, Mrs. A. E. Hunt, Mrs. M. R. Kays of Scranton and Mrs. J. E. Burr, of Carbondale.

The International doll collection will be exhibited at the Keystone building. 520 Spruce street, November 23, 24 and 25, for the benefit of the Scranton Free Kindergarten association. This money must be secured for running ex- valuable in the city and should be penses. The free kindergarten work is the most beautiful and practical work of modern times, for it influences the little people, and through them produces marvelous results in many wretched homes. It would be a pity any free kindergarten established through the medium of the association should be abangoned for lack of funds. Mr. and Mrs. John McWilliams telebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Thursday, when a large number of guests was present and many valuable gifts were received, one of which was a cane from the elders of the First Presbyterian church, presented to Mr. McWilliams, while a beauti-

Among friends who felicitated the happy pair were: Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon, Alfred Hand, Alex W. Dickson, Hon. H. A. Knapp, Louis T. Mattes, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tracey, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richmond, Mr. W. R. Storrs, Mrs. Charles S. Weston, Mr. C. Mattes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Josephson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Kemmerer, Mr. bury, Mrs. David Haines, Miss Alice

Haines, Mrs. William Kelley, Mrs. Poole, Rev. Dr. N. G. Parke, Pittston; Torry, Miss Mary Mattes, Mrs. M. E. Ward, Mrs. Goodhand Clark, Miss Ella Josephson, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Logan. Mr. E. L. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. A. Meldrum, Mr. and Mrs. James Scranton, Mrs. C. John McWilliams, jr., Miss Elsle Mc-Mr. and Mrs. George A. Highfield, Miss Janet C. Highfield, Mrs. P. W. Roll, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. K. Levy, Miss Christina Oswald, Miss May Runk, Mr. G. A. Fuller, Mr. James Kays, Mrs. Frank Hall, Miss Anna Scranton, Mrs.

Laura Beardsley, Mrs. George Ma-ioney, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Highfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson. Mrs. J. Benj. Dimmick gave a pretty huncheon yesterday, when the guests Mrs. W. W. Scranton, Mrs. Selwere: den Blair, Mrs. A. E. Hunt, Mrs. James A. Linen, Mrs. A. M. Decker, Mrs. Henry Belln, jr., Miss Platt, Mrs. R. Q. Powell, Mrs. E. B. Sturges, Mrs. R. W. Archebald, Mrs. F. C. Dimmick, New York this week. Mrs. Milton Blair, Mrs. R. J. Bennell, Miss Sanderson, Miss Jessie Gay.

The Scranton Bicycle club has issued innouncements of a second whist tournament, as follows:

A whist tourcament will be held at the Horse show this week. the Club house, on Thursday, Dec. 7, 1850.

Two open games for pairs will be played at 2.30 p. m. and 7.45 p. m. The games will be reversed by the rules of the American Whist League and played by either the "Mitchell" or "How-Mrs. Sidney Williams has returned from a yisit in Germantown.

Silidadidididididididididi lected from the leading singers of the city. Mr. F. W. Widmayer, violinist, and Miss Adda B. Dean, reader, will also assist. The program will consist of organ solos interspersed with choral Summer an an an an an an an an an numbers, quartets, readings and a sonata for violin and plano, played by Mr, Widmayer and Prof. Pennington, The Young Women's guilds of St. Luke's church have united in a fair which will be held next Friday and attending the horse show, but she suf-Saturday afternoon and evening in the fered with frightful headaches and was guild rooms at St. Luke's parish. The frequently forced to admit that she fair is for the benefit of the Cedar ave- must probably relapse into permanent nue kindergarten, toward the support invalidism. Her family physician was of which Mr. William Connell recently The chief event of the week was the (opened by the association, and more gave $100. This work is one of the most of course in Scranton, as well as else-> given the hearty co-operation of everyme interested in little children. Christmas time is approaching and this fair wil be found to contain quantities of articles suitable for beautiful gifts. Refreshments will be served from 3 to 10 o'clock on both days. The voyage. She somehow gained the imommittee in charge is Mrs. W. H. pression that he had lost interest in Whyte and Miss Cramer, of the Lackaherself and her symptoms and one day when a friend assured her that if she wanna hospital. wanted to be fashionable she should

The Godowsky concert promises to be the great musical event of the year. homeopathy, she was not ill pleased The Conservatory of Music is Instru- with the suggestion. She did want to mental in bringing to the city such artists as this famous planist. The value such visits have for the musical atmosphere of Scranton can not be too highly appreciated.

The graduation exercises of the Hahnneman hospital training school will take place on Tuesday next. The annual meeting of the hospital direc- Then it was a change and most wotors will also be held on that day, when all friends interested in the work are invited to attend.

· At the funeral of Major John A. Logan, who was killed in the Philippines this week, Chanlain C. C. Pierce, brother of Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, officlated, as is his sad task for all the burials of the soldiers of the Union.

The marriage of Miss Phelps to Mr. George C. Yocum will take place on Wednesday evening next at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. Phelps, on Linden street.

It is proposed by one of the reading clubs of the city to ask Prof. Van Lear to give an afternoon talk in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dickson will be ployed by the doctor of bones that she "at home" to their friends at 616 Quin- thought she must be better since it cey avenue next Tuesday. fted

Movements of People Joseph P. Dickson, of New York, is at the Jermyn. P. J. Casey has been in New York most Miss Mary Manness is visiting friends in Philadelph Mrs. F. E. Lebeck attended the Horse this Mr. E. L. Fuller returned from New York last night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones returned from New York yesterday

Mr. W. H. Jeesup, jr., spent part of this week in Montrose. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Shepherd have returned from New York. Larry Ketrick will go to Denver, Colo., rather odd when you come to think of it, for what is a person to recover from ext week for his health. if nothing ails him? and Mrs. J. L. Crawford attended Mrs. X. said something to her hushannger Shverstone, of the Honesane theater, was in town yesterday. Mrs. L. F. Hiorns, of Quincy avenue, Dummore, is in Fredonia, N. Y. Mr. Harry Nichols, of Salt Lake city, s the guest of relatives on Adams ave-

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Megargel spent the past few days in New York.

Mr. J. S. McAnulty is at home from a two weeka' trip to Colorado. Manager Silverstone, of the Honesdale

MUSICAL GOSSIP.

HER POINT OF VIEW S Leopold Godowsky, who appears in St. Luke's parish house auditorium next Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Conservatory of Music, is rightly termed the coming Pader-She had been ill for some months, not ewski. His execution is simply astounding; elasticity, buoyancy, free-dom and precision are all there, and alarmingly ill, you know, not so seriouslyy as to prevent playing golf or his playing is infinitely tender and poetic. His bewildering technique, his broad, beautiful, sensuous tone, and his subtle conceptions are the wonder and despair of planists. His management of the pedal, the most severe test allopathic in tendency which meant, of musicianship, is perfect, and his memory remarkable. In style he is refined and artistic. He strives for where, that he spurned with haughty corn the idea of consulting with the pure beauty. His interpretations are members of the other school. He told never bizarre, he avoids eccentricity and sensationalism. His playing is Mrs. X. that she had nervous prostration and needed a sea voyage. She demarked by a delicate adjustment of clared that he gave her medicine that made her just as sick as would the sca severity and sweetness, power and swiftness, possible only to the master mind aided by a phenomenal dexterity. His program, which is given below, is calculated to bring out all these qualities, and is simply astounding in the accumulated demands upon his virtufollow the fad of the hour and try osity. Schumann-Fantasle, Op. 17.

Brahms-Variations on a Paganini Theme Leopold Godowsky-Capriceio, C minor, Menuet, A flat.

Courante, E minor. Paraphrases on Chopin's Studies for the left hand: conold Godowsky-

Op. 25, No. 4 (A minor), left hand

Op. 10, No. 11, and Op. 25, No. 3, com-bined in one piece. Op. 10, No. 8 (I⁵ major.) Op. 25, No. 8 (D flat), in sixths.

Op. 10, No. 7 (C major study in G flat version). Badinage-Op. 10, No. 5 and Op. 25, No. 9, combined in one

In-Impromptu, in F sharp. Berceuse. Ballade, in A flat

Scherzo, in C sharp minor, szt-Eclogue At the Spring.

Concert Study, in F minor. Murmurs of the Forest. Spanish Rhapsody

A partial list of the patronesses of nummeled and pinched her poor skull the Beynon testimonial concert which until she knew she was to become a is to be held at the Lyceum Thursday evening Dec. 7, is herewith appended: She continued imbibling the little pel-Mesdames E. L. Fuller, Thomas Dick-son, H. M. Boies, R. G. Brooks, H. M. lets and incidentally took a sea voyage and she finally became so accus-Edwards, William Connell, E. N. Willtimed to the manipulating process emard, A. D. Blackinton, R. J. Foster, H. C. Shafer, L. A. Watres, T. H. Watkins, Joseph O'Brien, J. W. Torcould be endured without the screams rey, C. H. Welles, E. G. Coursen, A. E. of pain which his treatment first elic-Connell, C. L. Connell, T. C. Von Storch, J. T. Richards, C. H. Schadt, Mr. Bey-Later a Christian Scientist acquaintnon is meeting with flattering success ance desired to give her absent treatin the disposal of the boxes and loges, ment. She thought this might be rathall of which will be occupied on the er comfortable, particularly as it in-convenienced her in no way and did evening of the testimonial. An incomparable programme is being arranged not necessitate a long and dreary wait and will present the very best people in the outer office of a doctor while in Scranton, Mr. E. L. Fuller, chairseveral dozen of her friends who had man; Mr. H. C. Shafer, treasurer, and come earlier were admitted. Then it all the members of the committee are obviated drug bills and left more sanguine of the most genuine success for Mr. Beynon. On more than one occasion when the

The following musical selections will be rendered at the morning and evening services tomorrow at Elm Park that of her husband were in the way of church, under the direction of J. Alfred Pennington:

> MORNING SERVICE. Organ-Prelude in C minor ...Gladstone Choir-Jubilate in CSchilling Cholr-Hymn-AnthemChadwick Organ-Postlude in B flatCutler EVENING.

hoir-Hymn-Ar

much success. The tickets have been oncert the finest audiences of the sea-

1 1 1

MORNING.

Organ prelude, Andante lassenet Anthem, "Life Up Your Heads"...Davis Quartette end choir.

Miss Black and Mr. Beynon

EVENING.

Offertory, duct, "Hear Us, O Father,

solo, "The City of Perfect

Celery Compound Prevents

Breaking Down of the Nervous System: Muscular Weakness; Feelings of Debility and Exhaustion from famous collection of over 300 dolls was made by Miss Elizabeth Honton, of Boston, and is exhibited only for children's charities.

The exhibition will be under the patronage of Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. E. L Fuller, Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mrs. James Archbald, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. , B. Powell, Mrs. C. S. Weston, Mrs. J. Benj. Dimmick, Mrs. W. W. Scranton, Miss Underwood and Miss Howell.

Tea will be served each afternoon and evening and the proceds will be devoted to the support of the kindergartens in operation under the direction of the association.

The sum of $3,000, which was recently appropriated by the Scranton board of control, has been used in opening additional kindergartens and is not used church quartet and a large chorus sein the support of schools heretofore systems Souvenirs for top score Table fee, 25 cents each player. No smoking during the first session. All whist players are invited.

Lackawanna and Wyoming Aves., Scranton, Pa.

succeeding lectures.

The third lecture in the art course Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, of San at St. Luke's parish hall will be held lerson avenue, are visiting in Philadel Monday evening, the subject being, phia "Millet and the Barbizon School." It Mi

Miss Jermyn and Mr. George Jermyn will be one of the most interesting of and daughter, were in Philadelphia this the series and should be largely at- week. tended. The audiences have been very New York, where she spent the past few lent sents to be secured for the two weeks. James Wagonhurst, of Mansfield, O., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Wagonhurst, of Mulberry Prof. J. Alfred Pennington will give street. Christian Fichler, of the West Side, an organ concert in Elm Park church on the evening of Thanksgivng Day, spent yesterday hunting in the vicinity of Foster. when he will be assisted by the

Miss Cornelia Galpin will spend Thanksgiving at home with her aunt,

J. Mrs. A. D. Blackinton, J. W. Keeley and wife, of Deposit, N. Y., are visiting his sister, Mrs. A. C. Balley, of New York street, Mrs. Louise MacDonald, of Linden street, is home from Detroit, Mich., where she has been for the past three weeks. Mrs. Laflin, who has been the guest at the home of her cousin, Colonel H. M. Bolos, has returned to Mt. Clair, N. J. Mr. W. J. Watts and family have re-aracd from Glenburn, where they spent summer, and are residing at 1043 Sanderson avenue. Benjamin F. Maxey,formerly of Phelps' drug store, has accepted a position with McGarrah & Thomas, at their Lackawanna avenue store Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Scranton will oc-upy the handsome residence of Mr. Frank Merrifield, 1521 Jefferson avenue, in Green Ridge, during the winter. The mother and sisters of Attorney J. J. Hamilton, who died in this city esterday morning, will be the guests of Attorney W. S. Huslander, 834 Jefferson avenue, until Monday morning. R. J. Little, of Tunkhannock, who was reported lost in the sinking of the cruis-Charleston, was formerly a teller in People's bank, Wilkes-Earre, and was employed as a paymaster clerk in the navy during the past fifteen months. He also served on the Oregon, Montera and Charleston. Mr. Little was a arother of Attorney C. B. Little, of this Joseph Ansley, of Scranton, Pa., a recent arrival in Alamogordo, has decided to stay and will make his home here in the future. * * * P. H. Gammon and M. F. Dougher, of Scranton, Pa., spent a day or so in Alamogordo this week, leaving Wednesday for Capitan to in-spect the coal fields and the development work being done along the line of the railway.-Alamogordo News.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA NOTES.

Star of the North commandery, No. 92, of Slatington, Pa., on Nov. 10, admitted a class of sixty-one novices, and conferred the higher degrees upon seven companions.

Deputy Grand Commander Dr. W. H. Bean, of Columbian commandery, No. 132, at Middletown, Pa., died of acute pneu-monia on Nov. 7, and was buried with full Malta honors by a remarkably large number of the companions on Nov. 10.

Erie, Pa., conferred the Appendant Order of the Red Cross and Sepulchre in full uniform in their large council chamber on Nov. 14.

The Past Commander's Degree will be onferred in the council chamber of Sa-m commanders, No. 72, at Philadelphia, n Nov. 23, upon all those entitled to re-eive it and who are members of the commanderies stationed in Philadelphia Montgomery, Delaware and Cheste Supreme Commander Bir John sounties.

A faith cure lady desired to say that Tenor the church to which she belonged which Peace' Organ-Postlude in G was the only church containing no hypocrites, was willing to send up prayers for her relief. Any offering she night feel disposed to give in return cientist was present she assured Mrs.

X, that nothing was the trouble with her except that her mortal mind and her recovery, a statement which seems band about his mortal mind being the cause of their married infelicity and he swore softly to himself, mentioning the name of the Christian Science friend, would be acceptable.

During this period of vicissitudes Mrs. N received the usual number of consolutory letters and visits from friends who sympathized with her because of her failing health.

The minister hoped she would continue to attend the means of grace as long as her strength would allow and there he stopped, since to proceed with the pre-arranged sentiments about being always prepared either to die or to be prayed with, was manifestly impossible when speaking to a very vivacious lady in a distractingly pretty house rown.

Her neighbors sent in nice desserts and came often to ask how she was feeling and sometimes she caught herday evening at the Lyceum. We have self wondering what on earth she no fear in predicting a crowded house should do without all these graceful for Prof. Bauer and his musicians on little attentions and whether she this occasion. The honorary members wouldn't miss a lot of pleasant things have been circulating among their if she became entirely well. friends in the interest of the coming

Her oldest enemy came and sweetly remarked: "Dear me, but your IIIness is aging you dreadfully. There's no use in trying to conceal the fact that we are no longer young, is there? Her dearest friend grew very tender as the months passed and it was an understood fact that Mrs. X was not likely to recover her health. One day they were talking over old times and fell to exchanging confidences regarding what had been their pet ambitions. The friend grew strangely silent and then after a little,dropped down on her knees and burying her tear-wet face songs in Scranton this season. in the invalid's lips, said brokenly: "Dear, I never could have had the courage to tell you, but now that you seem to be slipping away from me I want your forgiveness for something long ago. Can't you guess? Oh no! Well, you never knew it, but I once thought I was going to marry the man who is your husband. It's all past now. I know you don't mind," and then she went away. Organ postlude, Prelude and Fugue in Mrs. X suddenly began to improve in health. Today she is practically a well woman. I wonder which or what with an honest intent. The material used never varies from the highest grade. Every pair sold

Lewis, Reilly & Davles,

114-116 Wyoming Ave.

has made a satisfied customer.

wrought the cure? Saucy Bess. 000000

SHOES

For Women.

Custom Made

S

Gilchrist Fasefeli Beynon and Morgan.

E Minor .

Young People's Society of Christian

Endeavor. Cornet solo, selected. Cornet solo, selected, Mr. William Stanton, jr. Quartette, "I Lay My Sins on Jesus," Hawley

Mrs. Brewster and Miss Salmon, Messrs. Williams and Hollister. J. M. Chance, organist and director, 11 11 11 The annual concert of Bauer's or chestra at the Lyceum on Tuesday evening next, Nov. 21, will be one of he pleasing musical events of the week. As will be observed by the programme which appeared in the colamns of The Tribune yesterday, an entertainment of unusual merit will be given.

While the "Serenade" is probably one produced during the past four or five years, there is no doubt that the per-

Care and Overwork. .Chas

Edward L. Preetorius, St. Louis, The famous Bauer's hand began its existence on the West Side in the year MANAGER WESTLICHE POST, writes: 1876, and has during the period of time since became well known for its musical abilities. The band has attended "I have found that Paine's Celery Commany large events in Philadelphia, New Jersey and New York during the past twenty years, one of which was the funeral of U. S. Grant in New York city, accompanying the Paterson, pound is the only remedy that will restore the nerves which have been shattered by N. J., First Life Guards, and returning home with fresh laurels won for h Scranton musicians. The band at present consists of a larger memberoverwork, worry or business cares. I can ship than at any time since its orcertainly recommend it without hesitation to ganization, and is better equipped for oncert and solo work, which was deall those in need of such a reconstructant of monstrated to the public by their work of the last season. The band now contemplates another treat for the music loving public, and a program of excelthe nervous system." lence has been prepared for next Tues-

Without vigorous nerves the stomach, liver and kidneys are the source of much pain; they make impoverished, acid blood, which cannot sustain the entertainment and have met with wasting tissues of the body. Paine's Celery Compound is a great reconstructant of the nervous selling in a way that insures for the system.

Men's Heavy Ribbed Shirts and Drawers 45c Better Grade Ribbed, Camel's Hair and Natural Wool75c Wool and Mercerized Silk and Wool95c "Duvet's" Wool Ribbed, Fleece Lined $1.25 Imported Holroyds and Silk and Wool......$2.50 Outing Flannel Night Robes 45c Higher Grade Outing Flannel Night Robes......75c Men's Fine Cashmere Hose 230 Gents' Walking Gloves-dressed, undressed or silk lined$1.00 Celebrated Fownes' English Gloves......$1.50

We have the largest assortment of 50c Neckwear ever exhibited in Scranton.

Try one of our 10c Special Collars-better than any 15c collar in the market.

Sole Agent for Young's Hats.

Thursday evening in Scranton was a which at one time could only be spoken disappointment. The members who of in reverential whispers, appears to assisted in making the company fam- be existing solely upon the glories ous nearly a quarter of a century ago when they were known as the "Hoston threadbare as the overcoat of a home Ideals," are decidedly in their dotage missionary. If the Bostonians will of the best comic operas that has been and places of those who have dropped embrace the opportunity offered by the produced during the past four or five out have not been filled as acceptably ten-cent matinee all may be happy yet. as one might expect under the circum-Otherwise, the jumping off place does formance given by the Bostonians on Istances. This haughty aggregation | not seem to be far distant.

Lojaer

Bach

Mount Sinal commandery, No. 127, at Every stitch in 'EASEFELT' -the perfect shoe - is put there

W. Hicks, of Boston, will be present Ocn(ws. 9 ramth ramth ramth ramth rat