Knabe.

To Mr. Pennington, of the Scranton Conservatory of Music, lo we, the music-loving people of Scranton, owe many thanks. In securing this great planist for our enjoyment, he furthers the cause of good music and brings within our reach the possibility of a better understanding of the classics.

Godowsky plays the Knabe. Other eminent planists, such as Von Bulow and Sauer, have used the Knabe plane, and are delighted with its beautiful tone.

Do you know this Plano? It is the best of all good Planos. No other can surpass it either in the quality of tone or the workmanship.

Rose Williams, of Raymond Court, Attempted to End Her Life Yesterday Morning with a Razor.

Mrs. Rose Williams, of Raymond court, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital about 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning, with her throat cut in four places, as the result of an attempt to ommit suicide

Mrs, Williams' husband works in a Raymond court junk-shop, and while at his work heard his wife call him from their residence, which is nearby. He hurried home and found her with her throat cut, and lying near her was the razor she had used for the purpose.

He immediately hastened to the Lackawanna hospital for aid. Dr. Weisenberg, the house surgeon, went to the house and there found the woman. She told the doctor that she was weary of life and had suffered enough, and that was the reason she had attempted suicide.

She is known to have suffered much recently from ill-health, and it may be that while in a fit of despondency she may have tried to put an end to her

The woman was removed to the hospital, where it was found that the trachaea was cut in two places and that she had had a very narrow escape from death.

PORTEUS CASE IS IN JURY'S HANDS

WAS SUBMITTED BY JUDGE SAV-IDGE AT SIX O'CLOCK.

Closing Arguments by Major Warren for the Defendant Company, and by George M. Watson for Plaintiff. Jury in the Ninth Street Damage Case Is Evidently in a Tangle-Big Suit for Coal Royalties Instituted by Representatives of the Winton Estate Against D., L. & W. Co.

The $25,000 damage case of Dr. J. S. Porteus against the Scranton Rallway company was given to the jury at 6 o'clock last evening, after the twelve good men and true had listened to four hours of speech-making. When the testimony closed at noon,

Major Warren, for the defense, argued for binding instructions, alleging that the plaintiff was palpably guilty of contributory negligence by his own admission that he drove slowly along the track a distance of 170 feet after the last time he says he looked around to see if a car was coming. Court would not, however, grant the motion. At the opening of court Dr. Wehlau was recalled on cross-examination. He clung to his statement made on direct examination that while the text writers hold that a small percentage, of locomotor ataxia cases result from violence, he never heard of such a case in his experience. He also persisted in his statement that he did not believe Dr. Porteus was afflicted with locomotor ataxia.

OTHER EXPERTS HEARD. Dr. N. Y. Leet, Dr. C. L. Frey and Dr. J. F. Grant, the last two occulists, also believed Dr. Porteus mistaken in the diagnosis of his own case. Attorney James E. Watkins, of Taylor, was called by the defense to rebut the testimony of witnesses for the plaintiff who stated that Dr. Porteus' physical experience has undergone a decided change for the worse since the time of the accident. Mr. Watkins believes he looks as well today as he did four years ago.

Motorman Bragg was recalled and denied the remarks which Homer Warner says he made immediately after the collision to the effect that every time there is a green motorman there

Major Warren began the closing address for the detense shortly after 2 o'clock and spoke for an hour and a hair. George M. Watson summed up for the defense, taking the same length of time that was consumed by the plaintiff. Judge Savidge entered upon his charge at 5 o'clock and an hour later he submitted the case to the jury.

The case of Margaret O'Connor, Catherine Sullivan and Patrick Sullivan against the city of Scranton was given to the jury by Judge Edwards at 11 o'clock, but at adjourning time no agreement had been reached.

WANTED BINDING INSTRUCTIONS City Solicitor Vosburg argued for binding instructions, holding that there is no law holding a municipality liable for damages such as is claimed in this case, where the plaintiffs aver that were at the hospital in great mental their properties were lessened in value anxiety over her condition, but when by reason of the end of the street on Don't you wait until it is too late, but which they are located having been come at once while the assortments ing easily, and it is very probable that | narrowed. INCREASE IN DELIVERY AND COLLECTION FACILITIES.

Four Mail Deliveries a Day Are Now Being Given Business Portion of City-Early Morning Collection in Time to Catch the 8 O'Clock New York Train a Feature-New Morning Collection in Hyde Park Also Introduced-Service Generally Improved All Over City.

As mentioned in yesterday morning's Tribune, a number of the mail routes of the city have been re-arranged and etter delivery and collection facilities afforded in various sections of the city. There will be four deliveries on the following streets where there have been heretofore only three: 200, 300 and 400 blocks of Spruce street; 200 and 300 blocks of Penn and Wyoming avenues; 300 and 400 blocks of Linden street; 600 and 700 blocks of West Lackawanna avenue and Dockash place. These deliveries will be made at 6.30 and 10.50 a, m. and 1.54 and 4.29 p. m.

There will be three deliveries in the following districts where there have been only two heretofore: All the territory bounded by Adams avenue, Spruce street, Clay avenue and Gibson street; the 300, 400 and 500 blocks of Wyoming avenue and the 400 block of Vine street.

The upper Petersburg district above Webster avenue, including Nay Aug and Tripp park, will be given two deliveries a day instead of only one.

MORE COLLECTIONS. It is, however, the increased number of collections which have been arranged for that will appeal principally to and be of more benefit to the larger portion of the city's population. The increased facilities along this line are due to the fact that there are now two mounted collectors attached to the orps of postoffice servants. There will be from now on an early morning collection at 7 o'clock from all the boxes included between Lackawanna avenue, Franklin avenue, Spruce street and Washington avenue, including also the lower or wholesale block of Lackawanna avenue. The mail colected at this time will go out on the o'clock New York train, whereas up to the present time the earliest that New York mail ever left the city was at 9.30 a. m. The collector will then go to West Scranton, where collections will be made from all the boxes on Main avenue between Eynon street and West Lackawanna avenue. The mail thus collected will be distributed in time to catch the 9.50 train. This is a most important innovation, as heretofore if a letter was mailed in Hyde Park after 9 o'clock at night, when the last collection is made, it could not leave this city before 12.55, there being no morning collection until after 11 o'clock.

IN NORTH SCRANTON.

There will also be a morning collection on Main avenue, North Scranton, Green Ridge street and Capouse avenue in time to catch this 9.50 train. There will also be a collection on Cedar and Pittston avenues, as far south as Birch street, at the noon hour and one in Hyde Park at 3.59 p. m.

The "hill" district included between Jefferson and Webster avenues and Linden and Gibson streets will have a collection at 9 o'clock each morning. This district has never been favored with a night collection before. The
