KILLED BY A RAM.

Terrible Death of Mrs. Boland of Warren Township

Special to the Scranton Tribune Towanda, Nov. 19 .- Mrs. Mary Boland, aged ninety years and residing in Cadis, Warren township, met death in a horrible manner jast Wednesday, She went into the lot where sheep were grazing, and one of them being victous, knocked her down and butted her so flercely she was unable to rise to her feet or get away from him. Her head and face were cut in several places, her nose broken, and hands and body badly bruised in a shocking manner. Her son Daniel and his wife, with whom she had lived, were absent at the time the accident occurred, and she was found by another son, who lives at Little Meadows. It is supposed she lived about an hour, and was conscious to the last. She was among the early settlers of that locality, and by hard work accumulated considerable property. Three sons and three daughters

MONTDALE.

The teachers of Scott township held their annual local institute at the Methodist Episcopal church at Montdale on Saturday. There were two sessions, the first being held in the afternoon. Although the first session was not crowded, there was a large number of the parents and friends of the scholars present. At the evening session the church was filled. County Superintendent Taylor was present at both sessions, but Prof. Rible of the East Stroudsburg State Normal school, who was expected, was unable to be present.

The interesting programs rendered at both sessions were as follows: Afternoon-Selection, choir: recita tion, Gaylord Powell; language, Miss Josie Kennedy: selection, choir: reci-tation. Clarence Lewis: anthem, home on Monday evening, it being his 'Reautiful Homestead," cheir; penmanship, L. D. Cure; recitation, Jane

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Nov. 19,-The tenth annual session of the Farmers' institute of Wyoming county will be held in the court house here on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28 and 29. Numerous well known speakers will be on hand to address the institute, among them Hon. N. B. Critchfield, of Somerset county: R. L. Beardsley, of Bradford county; F. W. Wheaton, eqs., of Wilkes-Barre; Hon. Louis Plo-lett, of Wysox, Bradford county, and also many of the Wyoming county farmers. The officers of the associa-tion are: Hon. R. R. Brungess, president; Elmer Deltrick, secretary. The music at the institute will be under the management of Berkley Lyman, of this place.

Charles E. Terry, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday here. Several Tunkhannock people were present at the Nesbitt in Wilkes-Barre on Friday evening to hear the Bos-tonians in "The Serenade."

On Monday Sheriff Gregory and a fury of six will view the premises in Tunkhannock borough belonging the estate of Mary Lee, deceased, for the purpose of fixing a valuation on the same, by virtue of partition proceedings. PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

A version of "The Old Curiosity Shop," which has not been used since the retirement of Lotta Crabtree, will soon be produced in Boston by Mary Sanders. Annie Russell is to remain in comedy for at least one season longer. She will appear next winter in Robert Marshall's A Royal Family."
It is said now that Ada Rehan will robably not appear at all this season, as the settlement of Augustin Daly's estate, on which her affairs depend, may be de-ayed until that time. Mrs. De Mille, principal writer of "The Greatest Thing in the World," in which Mrs. Lemoyne is to be exploited, is the widow of Henry C. De Mille, collaborator with Mr. Belasco in a memorable series of dramas. Mrs. De Mille's literary partner is Harriet Ford, actress and au-Ellen Terry has purchased a play from G. B. Shaw, which is the second that he has written for her. It is described as a melodramatic comedy. The scene is laid on the west coast of Africa and the only women is it is an English traveler in that country. "A Man of Destiny" was written with the idea that Miss Terry would play the part of The Lady. It will come as a shock to the many riends of Mrs. Leslie Carter to be told that there is every reason to beeve her career on the stage at an end. Though she may successfully pass through her present liness and emerge a well women from the hands of her Phough hysicians, a return to the profession in which she has won so many honors will not necessarily follow. Indeed, despite all the doctors say, there is little doubt but that Mrs. Carter has bidden stage adieu forever.-Philadelphia

North American. Olga Nethersole has been telling western interviewers that she selects im-moral heroines to incarnate because no dramtist has been able to supply her with a play that made a pure woman inter-esting. Miss Nethersole's use of "Sappro" this season was the result of a suggestion made by a shrewd agent, who saw in the novel an opportunity to reproduce several of "Zaza's" most striking situations. It was the same thought that inspired Berton and Simon when ++ they first wrote "Zaza" for Mme. Re-jans. They took the episodes from "Ma Cousine," "Sappho" and other plays in which the French actress had been most successful, and combined them in a role which showed her best points.

The arnual entertainment for the benefit of the Actors' Fund, was given at the Broadway Thursday afternoon, last-ing from 12.% p. m. until almost 6. It was financially the most successful that the Fund has had, realizing about 4.500. This sum includes a large gift from Elien Torry and the gains from the sale of programmes by actresses under the di-rection of "Aunt" Louisa Eldridge. The use of the theater, as well as the services of the performers, were donated. The drawing magnet was Sir Henry trying, who appeared in "Waterloo." The rest of the programme consisted of John of the programme consisted of John Drew and Isabel Irving in "Mrs. Hillery Regrets," an act of "Way Down East." two scenes of "More Than Queen," with Julia Arthur, the third act of "Becky Sharp," with Minnie Maddern Fiske, one act of "A Rich Man's Son," with William H. Crane, songs by Eugene Cowles, Idaline Cotton, Ritchie Ling, Nick Long, Presented W. Eugenic Fougere, and Mrs. Josephine Tecoby; whistling by Victor Voss, and acrobatic feats by the Craggs.

MUSICAL GOSSIP.

Leopold Godowsky is an artist whose fame is so widespread, and whose abilities are so generally recognized, that comment on his successes or description of his exceptional powers as planist and musician are superfluous. His recognition by public and press has known constant and steady increase. Today he occupies an acknowledged place among the world's most eminent planists, and his playing is that of one who rightly wears by virtue of super-lor merit the title of master.

A notable feature of Mr. Godowsky's recitals this season is his playing of certain of the twenty-six studies founded upon the Chopin Etudes, which he has just composed-works of tremendous difficulty but of surpassing beauty, which have been declared by an eminent authority to mark a new advance in the technics of plane playing.

Mr. Godowsky will appear in a mag-nificent programme at the St. Luke's parish house auditorium next Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Conservatory, Present indications point to a full house. The diagram of reserved seats is now at the Conservatory, Adams avenue and Linden street.

The season of grand opera at the Metropolitan opera house in New York will open on December 15 with "Faust." It is probable that Signor Alvarez will sing the title role, and possible that Calve may be the Marguerite. It was with this opera that the building was opened in the fall of 1882, with Ulisson. Campanini and Novara in the cast. It has been sung there over 100 times since then and never fails to fill the house. The opening this year is the latest in several seasons, as the company will be heard in Boston and Chicago before appearing in New York Not many novelties are promised for the coming season, but several 'all star" performances will be given, one of Don Giovanni containing no less than nine of the leading artists of the company.

David Bispham, the basso profundo, whose singing here is pleasantly remembered, will give a song recital in New York at Mendelssohn hall, Dec. , and Vladimir De Pachmann, shortly to appear in Scranton, will play an entire Chopin programme at the same hall Dec. 2. Mile, Elsa Ruegger, the greatest living lady performer on the violincello, will play at the Metro-politan Opera house Nov. 25, assisted by Mme. Gadski and the Kaltenboin orchestra. Mark Hambourg, pianist. about decided to wait for the next dis- | ist, the latter of whom is expected to and Petschimkoff, the Russian violinar in Scranton this playing at Carnegie hall. New York. Clara Butt, the phenomenal contralto, who, by the way, is six feet tall, is to sing in two concerts this week at Mendelssohn hall, New York.

> Miss Susie Black, who will be the soloist at the third annual concert by Bauer's orchestra at the Lyceum on Tuesday evening, is one of the most talented young vocalists in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Miss Black has for some time past been solo soprano at the Second Presbyterian church where her efforts are always appreciated. She has also been very successful in concert work in this vicinity.

The New York World is authority for the statement that the body of Chopin is to be removed from Paris to Cracow for burial in the vault of the Polish kings. Two thousand floring have been subscribed by Frederick Chopin and a like amount by Paderewski, and it is intended to make the re-interment the occasion of a great Polish festival.

One of the greatest afflictions encountered by a person with an ear for music at this period is the magic lantern vocalist who sings doleful ballads filustrated by more doleful pictures thrown on muslin by the aid of calcium lights. Managers would confer a boon upon the suffering if they would arrange the lantern song numbers either at the beginning or the end of the show so that they could be avoided by people with weak nerves.

CAPTURE OF KNOX.

Delay in the Arrival of Papers at New York.

York, Nov. 19.-Robert J. Knox, alleged to be one of the Whiteman gang of swindlers, was held by an acting magistrate today upon the arrival from Albany of requisition papers which will give him into the custody of the Pittsburg police.

The delay in the arrival of the pa-pers was due to the absence from Albany of Governor Roosevelt, whose practice it is to review each case himself before signing the papers.

D. W. Gallup, assistant cashier of the First National bank of Woonsocket. R. I., which was swindled by the Whiteman gang, and A. J. Belter, a real estate broker of the same town, were in court and identified Knox as R. E. Webster, who deposited with the bank the bogus draft on the Lawrence National bank, of Lawrence, Kansas, for $10,000. The Woonsocket police are anxious to get Knox and Charles J. Iteway, who operated with him there, but who is now held in Pittsburg.

New York Grain and Produce Market.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Nov. 18.-The notable thing on today's stock market was the small range of prices considering the extent of the activity and the wide distribution. which looked like realizing and which held the market back from any advanced but which was discentinued on any signs of reaction. The absorption of Baltimore and Ohio continued on a large scale and Glucose rose 4%. Minneapolis and St. Louis preferred gained 2%. The large advance in Sugar invited a realizing and Baltimore and Ohio was affected by the same cause. The bank statement was followed by a slight hardening at points but this did not last and the market closed easy at mixed net changes. The recuperation in the proportion of bank reserves is almost wholly due to loan contraction. The sum of over $5,000,000 which has been paid to the market by the sub-treasury in the last three days for bond redemptions seems to find al-most no reflection in the statement. On the other hard, the showing of loan con-traction is believed to be exaggerated as that precess came in the period covered by the week. The banks have been of sufficient sums to largely offset the earlier contraction. While the statement seems to understate the cash gains and to overstate the loan reduction the re-duction of the deficit in reserve met ex-
