EXCITING RUNAWAY.

The team of Thomas Walker, an employe of the Grand Union Tea company, ran away on Pike street, Saturday afternoon. The horses carried the front wheels from the buggy and made a dash for the "Lookout" crossing. The gates were down and the animals turned into the old gravity roadbed. crossed the bridge just west of the tower, galloped through the river and went up the steam road like a cyclonuntil they reached the big red bridge below Eighth avenue. This bridge is not planked and the horses fell through. One got all fours down between the ties and the other fell between the tracks into the river, a distance of nearly twenty feet. The former was extricated by the use of planks and the latter helped itself out of the river. Both were badly bruised and cut up, but the remarkable feature of the affair is that they were not killed.

TOO MUCH MONEY WASTED.

Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, preached a rather direct sermon to his congregation yesterday morning. His discourse was in behalf of synodic sustentation and he took occasion to cite the fact that immense sums of money are wasted weekly on confections, useless ornamentation and innumerable other trivialities. His hearers were deeply impressed by the force of his remarks which fell upon the guilty everywhere.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

The Palace Creamery firm of Munn & Avery was dissolved Saturday afternoon, F. C. Munn established the business eight years ago. A couple of years later he admitted to partenrship E. B. WE THINK EVERY MOTHER IN THIS TOWN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT VINOL.

It is the Delicious Tonic We Advise for Growing Children.

Is your boy or girl pale and listless? Do they act differently from other children? Do they sleep poorly and eat poorly? Does your boy avoid the sports and games of other boys? Does your girl complain of headache and find her studies a hardship?

If so, you may make up your mind they are growing too fast. They need something to help nature in her great work of furnishing the necessary ele-ments for creating flesh and muscle tissue, bone structure and rich, pure, red

They need a tonic in the full sense of the word and we can tell you what

It is Vinol Wine of Cod-Liver Oil, the great modern reconstructor. Children like it, it is so delicious to the taste, in spite of the fact that it contains a highly concentrated extract of the medicinal principles that are found in cod-liver oil.

But because the vile-smelling and tasting grease has been discarded and all of the other disagreeable features eliminated, the benefits of Vinol are easily understood.

Vinol acts favorably on the stomach, creates an appetite and enables the food that is eaten to do the greatest possible amount of good.
Following is a letter that bears di-

reetly on this subject:
"I was all run down and took Vinol. It did me so much good and it was so pleasant to take that I gave it to my children. They were growing fast and needed something in the way of a tonic and I found it to be just the thing for them."-SARAH PICKERING, 1932 Fall

We cordially invite mothers interested in the welfare of their children, as well as any one else needing a sure, safe and delicious tonic, rebuilder and rejuvenator, to call on us. We will gladly tell any one all we know about Vinol and why we so highly endorse it.

Inasmuch as we are always ready and pleased to refund the cost of Vinol to those who don't find it exactly what we claim it to be, it will be seen that we are prepared to substantially endorse our claims for the excellence of this

Jack and the Beanstalk.

Under the new management, which includes Mr. E. J. Goodwin, of Scranthe magnificent extravaganza. "Jack and the Beanstalk," is better than ever this season, as the delighted audiences that greeted the spectacle at the Lyceum on Saturday afternoon and evening will attest. Upon witnessing a presentation of "Jack" it is easy to understand why the extravaganza should increase in popularity. The catchy music and gorgeous features of the spectacle in the way of dazzling scenery and costumes are retained, while the company has been strengthened by the addition of the well-known omedians Frank Deshon, Sarony Lambert, George Gorman and Dan Darleigh.

Miss Edith Yerrington, as "Jack" Hubbard, gave an excellent interpretation of the character and sang sweetly throughout the entertainment. Miss Margaret Mills and Miss Cora Leslie, as "Princess Mary" and "Little Miss Muffet," were as near the ideals of Mother Goose creations as could be impersonated by grown persons. The chorus is large and as effective as that of any comic opera troupe in rendition of the bright music that assists so materially in making the production pleasing and the vocal numbers were all that could be desired. From present indications the extravaganza will be more successful this season than ever before.

For the last half of this week the management announces Rice and Barton's big gnyety spectacular extravaganza comdy, which this season is practically a new show. The performance they give is unique, bright and entertaining throughout.

Among the features of the program is a laughable farcical success in three scenes called "Maud of the Tenderloin," in which Charles Barton will take the leading part of Woodby Smart, who goes to New York and falls in with the queen of the Tenderloin. This company carries its own scenle artist and costumer, and the result of tion are cordially invited to attend the their labors is some very handsome and original costumes which are well filled by a score of pretty, shapely and ficers will be elected for the ensuing vivacious girls who know how to sing and dance. Burrill Comedy Company

This evening "The Burrill Comedy company," an organization of unusual merit, will commence a week's engagement at the Academy of Music at popular prices. This company has an established reputation in the larger cities, and the class of plays presented are far superior to anything ever produced in repetroire. During the engagement a number of scenic productions will be offered, including William Haworth's famous naval drama, "The Ensign;" "Saved from the Sea," was rendered for the services by the a great melodramatic success; "A Fing church choir, under the direction of of Truce," by the author of "The Ensign," will be seen during the week's engagement. Thatcher's Minstrels.

The coming of the only and original George Thatcher in these days of stage trifles, when worn-out jokes, sketches Mine Organizer John Gymnne of the and after-pieces are rehashed and United Mine Workers of Hazleton was served up as minstrelsy, it is a welcome innovation to see a minstrel show containing all the picturesqueness of the darkey. Life is what we make it, and so, too, the value of a mimic representation can be easily estimated by a glance at the names of the artists engaged in the performance. George Thatcher's greatest minstrels will appear at the Lyceum on next Thursday evening and the company will be identically the same in every respect and detail as that which has received the unanimous praise from press and public in all the cities it has visited this season.
