

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

EXCELLENT CONCERT BY THE TILL FAMILY ROCK BAND.

Given in the Plymouth Congregational Church Last Evening—Entertainment and Japanese Social at Hampton Street Church—Funerals of George Warner and J. C. Moyer—First Baptist Church Is Being Misrepresented—An Aged Man Knocked Down by a Wagon.

The famous Rock Band Concert company gave an excellent entertainment in the Plymouth Congregational church last evening before a large and well-pleased audience. The artists were: William Till, organist, director and originator of the Rock band; Miss Mildred Till, contralto, and Miss Esther Till, humorist and dramatic reader. Their instruments are rocks of skiddaw granite, which were obtained in the mountains of England; swinging harps and musical glasses.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS SOCIAL.

A good sized audience attended the entertainment in the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church last evening, which was given under the auspices of the members of Class No. 11, of the Sunday school. Rev. James Benninger was chairman of the evening. Mrs. Stone played a pleasing piano solo and Miss Clara Sanders sang a solo in fine voice. Recitations were given by Reba Williams, Cora Young, Bessie Diehl, Bessie Richards, Maud Wetheroz and Olive Brown. George King played a cornet solo and Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Reese sang a duet. An interesting feature was the posing of several little girls who have made quite a reputation in that line. Misses Elizabeth Heiser and Edna Saxe sang a duet, Edward James tendered a tenor solo, and the class sang a song. A Japanese tea was held after the entertainment, at which ice cream and cake were also served.

VISITED THE HOSPITAL.

The officers of the mine and accidental funds of the Fyne, Archibald, Continental, Hampton and Hyde Park mines of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, visited the Moses Taylor hospital yesterday afternoon in company with Superintendent Thomas J. Williams, and were shown through the institution. The purpose was to acquaint the men with the superior advantages for treatment of employees who may suffer injury in the mines. The officers in turn will impart the knowledge to the men employed in the mines.

The party was composed of the following from the different mines: Fyne—President, Joseph Marsh; secretary, Frank Dunstone; treasurer, John Archibald—President, William Anthony; secretary, Daniel Givary; secretary proxy, Thomas Wilby. Continental—President, M. Lavelle; secretary, Thomas Parry. Hampton—President, Henry C. Morgan; secretary, Thomas J. Williams. Hyde Park—President, James Morgan; treasurer, John Ord.

The men were well pleased with their visit and are high in their praise of the hospital.

FUNERALS YESTERDAY.

Rev. John P. Moffat, D. D., pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, officiated at the funeral of the late George Warner yesterday morning. The bearers were: David Richards, H. W. Rivenberg, Horatio Keller and W. Haydn Evans. The remains were interred in the Forest Hill cemetery.

The funeral services of the late J. C. Moyer were held at the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., and Rev. James Hughes were the clergyman in attendance. Hoaring Brook lodge, No. 491, Knights of Pythias, of which deceased was a member, were also present. Burial was made in Forest Hill.

CHURCH MISREPRESENTED.

Rev. S. F. Mathews, pastor of the First Baptist church, desires The Tribune to announce that he is in no way responsible for the publication of a paper pertaining to Christmas exercises, for which a solicitor has secured a number of advertisements in the city.

It has been learned that the individual represented to advertisers that the publication was for the benefit of the new church, but the only permission granted by Mr. Mathews was to have the young ladies of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church organized a literary society last evening.

AN INITIAL SUPPER.

The ladies of the First Baptist church, whose names begin with the letters C, D, E, F and G, will serve another of their popular initial suppers tomorrow evening, at the home of Mrs. Robert Peckins, 112 North Lincoln avenue.

The tables will be set from 6 to 9 o'clock and the bill of fare will be of the usual high order and will be served at the regular price. The public is cordially invited. The proceeds will be devoted to the building fund.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The funeral of the late Isaac Richards will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the house, 332 North Lincoln avenue. Burial will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

A clam chowder supper will be served at the home of Mrs. W. L. Grass, on North Hyde Park avenue, this evening. The Christian Endeavor society of the Plymouth Congregational church will meet this evening.

The funeral of John Gray will occur

THE ills of women overshadow their whole lives. Some women are constantly getting medical treatment and are never well. "A woman best understands women's ills," and the women who consult Mrs. Pinkham find in her counsel practical assistance. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

MRS. MABEL GOOD, Correctionville, Ia., tells how Mrs. Pinkham saved her life. She says: "I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. I can recommend it as one of the best medicines on earth for all women's ills. I suffered for two years with female weakness and at last became bedfast. Three of our best doctors did me no good so I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do all my household work. I know that your medicine raised me from a bed of sickness and perhaps death, and am very thankful for what it has done for me. I hope that every suffering woman may be persuaded to try your medicine."

Get Mrs. Pinkham's advice as soon as you begin to be puzzled. The sick headaches and dragging sensation come from a curable cause. Write for help as soon as they appear.

MRS. DOLE STANLEY, Campbellburg, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I was troubled with sick headache and was so weak and nervous, I could hardly go. A friend called upon me one evening and recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying that she knew that it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine and after taking five bottles of it, I was entirely cured. I cannot praise it enough."

this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Members of Washington commandery, No. 222, Knights of Malta, will attend. The young ladies of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church organized a literary society last evening.

The members of the Jackson Street Baptist church are meeting with success in raising money to buy off their mortgage. A large delegation of West Scranton people attended Bauer's band concert in the Lyceum last evening.

Miss Annie Argus, of Washburn street, is slowly recovering from a severe attack of acute indigestion. The special meeting of the borough school directors announced to take place in the central building last evening was again postponed, there not being a quorum of the directors present.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Seven Polish Lads Arrested Yesterday—Oriental Tea Party a Success—Other News Notes.

Anthony Swirkowski yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of Anthony and Stanislaus Wilezyski, Wladislaw Cerarkowski, Joseph Stankowski, Johnny Sereata and Martin Karpiak, boys between the ages of 11 and 14 years, charging them with entering his premises by force, breaking fence and gate, using vile language and making threats.

The defendants were arrested and arraigned before Alderman Lentz last evening for a hearing. They all cried piteously and promised to do better in the future. After giving them a severe reprimand the alderman discharged them.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

A very unique affair was held last evening at St. John's church hall, when the ladies of the Blessed Virgin Sodality conducted an Oriental tea party. The interior of the hall was decorated in Oriental fashion, and the ladies who served the tea were robed in Oriental costumes. The attendance was very large. During the evening the following very interesting programme was rendered: Overture, Cusick's orchestra; solo, Sidney Hughes; selection, string instruments, Marie, Thomas and Edward Burke; address, Rev. J. J. McCabe; piano solo, Miss Kate Reardon; selection, string instruments, the Hoffmanns; recitation, "A Little Surprise," Thomas Handing. The programme will be continued this evening and a name quilt, valued at $5, will be changed off.

A very pleasant entertainment was given at the Young Women's Christian association rooms on Cedar avenue last evening. The ladies were rewarded for their untiring efforts by a very interesting gathering of members and their friends. A very interesting programme had been arranged and was well rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fuchs and Miss Dora Fuchs, of Cedar avenue, left yesterday for New York city, where they expect to spend a week. Frank Nollin, of New York city, is the guest of James Caveney, of Cherry street.

GREEN RIDGE.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Simpson, of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, will lecture in the Moose Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday evening on "Life in the Highlands of Scotland."

The marriage of Miss Kate Crane and Patrick McAndrew will take place in St. Paul's church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller, of Delaware street, will leave today for Sterling, Wayne county, northward.

Cards are out announcing the fact that A. B. Lidstone, of Dickson avenue, will be a candidate for select council from the Thirteenth ward, subject to the decision of the Republican caucus.

The young ladies of class No. 12 of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will spend their afternoon, returning to reside in North Scranton.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Rachel Pritchard passed away at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at her home in Olyphant after an illness of four weeks of pneumonia. Mrs. Pritchard was born in Wales in 1838 and came to Olyphant in 1865, where she has since resided. She was a faithful member of the Congregational church. A woman of many estimable traits of character and had a large circle of friends. She is survived by one daughter and one son, Mrs. John M. Evans and Albert Pritchard. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon from her late home on Lackawanna street.

CUCUMBERS WERE THE CAUSE. Same way in Carbondale, except that it is a vegetable instead of a vizard that caused the split in the local case. Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, according to the testimony adduced in divorce proceedings before Judge Archibald, got along well together until the summer following their wedding day, October 4, 1887, when the wife unfortunately served cucumbers for dinner. They were in vinegar. The husband regretted the fact that they were not served as naturals, as he was very fond of cucumbers and could not eat them in vinegar. The wife was very much chagrined. She was firmly impressed with the belief that her husband had said once he fairly adored cucumbers in vinegar, and she insisted that her memory served her right. It was "No, dear, you are wrong," and "But, dear, I know better, you did," and so on until finally the husband, according to Mrs. Thompson's story, broke forth into a fiery shout of temper. Instead of it being a momentary outbreak, Mrs. Thompson claims, it was the true nature of the man, and after once disclosing itself, kept continuously exposed.

So unbearable was his conduct at times that she was compelled, she says, to leave him, and, finally, in March last, when she quit his bed and board for the fifth time, she stayed quit and instituted proceedings for divorce through Attorney Louis Gramer. The husband is not opposing the petition.
