COMMONS ON WATER.

Common council met in special session last evening to take action on the resolution asking Governor...

UNIFORMED RANK OF ODD FELLOWS.

A meeting will be held in Odd Fellows hall, on Salem avenue, this evening, to organize a branch of the Patriarch Militant rank of Odd Fellows.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Rose church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Griffin joined in wedlock Miss Rose Murphy and William J. Hill.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. T. Peckick is in New York city on business. Mesdames A. W. Reynolds, W. T. Colville, A. P. Troutman, John Hoyt, M. O. Meaker, C. T. Meaker, H. C. Wheeler, A. L. Patterson, J. S. Niles, L. A. Bassett and Mary Maxwell, of the New Century club, were among those from this city who attended the Carlton lecture in Scranton last evening.

for children under 16 years of age. The prize was won by Miss Annie Jones. Four contestants entered for the prize for impromptu reading in Welsh. The selection was taken from the Bible. W. D. Morgans won the prize. In the Secret of His Presence, was the title of a bass solo competition. There were six competitors. The prize was carried away by David E. James. Misses Maggie Evans and Lizzie Evans were awarded the prize for the soprano and alto duet. The Gospels Call. The prize for the best impromptu reading of "The Raven" was won by Rev. Owen James. There were six contestants for this prize. "What a Gathering" was the title of the selection for the competition for juvenile choirs. Only one choir entered. They were led by Professor William Davis, and were awarded the prize of $5. The evening session opened with a neat introduction by the chairman, Rev. Ellis Roberts, which was followed by a most delightfully original and original selection by Benjamin James and John L. Davis. Five quartettes entered the contest for the best rendition of a hymn entitled, "I Will Praise Thee." The prize was given to Mrs. Richards, Miss Lizzie Evans, John J. Barry and Samuel Parry. The next number was a tenor solo, "Yn Iach i ti Cymru." There were four competitors, but the adjudicator did not think any one of them worthy of the prize. Miss Maggie Evans won the prize in the spelling bee. The last competition was a selection entitled, "In the Shadow of His Wings," for a choir of not less than twenty in number. Two choirs competed. The Calvinistic Methodist church choir and the Baptist church choir, and the former choir won the prize. The audience then sang "America," after which David Z. Davis rendered two selections. The citizenship was brought to a close by singing "Hail to the Land." David E. Lewis, esq., was called upon for some time, and the leaders in the movement have enlisted enough advocates to put the local branch on a good sound footing right from the start. It is desired that every Odd Fellow who possibly can will attend this meeting.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Rose church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Griffin joined in wedlock Miss Rose Murphy and William J. Hill. They were attended by Miss Nellie O'Hara, of Scranton, and Andrew O'Connell, of this city. The bride was adorned by a pastor colored broadcloth gown and flowers. Miss Murphy was the well-known book-keeper of Merchant G. W. Norris. Mr. Hill holds a responsible position in the coal demurrage of the Delaware and Hudson company.

An hour later at the same church, Father Griffin officiated at the marriage of Mamie Burns and Patrick Brislin. Miss Katherine Birmingham and Peter Gallagher attended the bridal party. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding tour they will reside at Freeland, which is the groom's home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Evans are in Vasa, Pa., attending the funeral of the latter's mother at that place.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Death of Miss Leona Phillips—Frank Welch's Success Against Champion Pillsbury—A Scranton Man Gets the Contract for the New Silk Mill—Personal News.

Leona Phillips, the respected daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips, of Third street, whose critical illness was mentioned in yesterday's Tribune, died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The deceased, who has suffered with consumption for the past eighteen months, has been a great sufferer and her death is therefore a happy release. The young lady, who was but 16 years of age, was held in the greatest esteem by her schoolmates and companions. She is survived by her parents, two brothers and three sisters. The funeral arrangements had not been completed up to the time of writing last evening, the family awaiting in reply to telegrams sent to relatives in New Jersey, probably the funeral will take place tomorrow.

Frank Welch, the local druggist, who defeated the great Pillsbury in a chess game at Scranton Tuesday, received a number of congratulations yesterday. While he is known amongst Scranton and Wilkes-Barre chess players, having frequently, some years ago, played with the Tunkhannock team against both cities, there is probably not half a dozen people in town who were aware of his success in the game, much of this being due to his natural modesty. His success against the champion is remarkable from the fact that there are no players here, and it is a long time since he played a game. Attorney Carey, secretary of the committee appointed to secure the location here of a new silk mill, in conversation with us last evening stated the contract for the erection of the mill was yesterday awarded to Conrad Scherer, of the Scranton contractor, and the contract specifies the work must be completed by February 1. It is therefore probable the work of excavating for the foundations will have commenced in a few days. The secretary also requests that subscribers at once pay in their subscription either to the treasurer, William Walker, or either of the three members of the soliciting committee, S. F. Baker, James Allan and Thomas Sundry.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Evans took place yesterday afternoon. Services were held in the Congregational church by Rev. Thomas Cook, whose sermon left a deep impression upon the many friends who had gathered to assist in the last sad rites. The choir of the church sang several well known hymns. Interment was made in the cemetery at the Ridge. The pallbearers were David and Abraham Elkins, David Williams, William Jones, John Gravel and Thomas Parry.

THEATRICAL.

The Burrell Company. At the Academy of Music last night the Burrell company presented "Infatuation" in a very clever manner. This afternoon the company will be seen in "Eugene O'Neill" and tonight in "A Flag of Truce."

Godowsky Recital.

Leopold Godowsky, the famous Russian pianist, will give the eagerly anticipated recital this evening in St. Luke's parish house auditorium, under the auspices of the Scranton Conservatory of Music. This is the first of a series of two artists' recitals to be given under the Conservatory management. Tickets for the series, $1.50. Single tickets to the Godowsky concert, $1. Diagram of seats at the Conservatory, 604 Linden street, today; in the evening at the parish house. Mr. Godowsky will play the following programme: Schuman—Fantasia, Op. 11. Brahms—Variations on a Paganini Theme. Leopold Godowsky—Capriccio, C minor. Menuet, A flat. Courente, E minor. Paraphrase on the Studies for the development of the left hand; Leopold Godowsky—Op. 25, No. 4 (A minor), left hand alone. Op. 19, No. 11, and Op. 25, No. 3, combined in one piece. Op. 19, No. 8 (F major). Op. 25, No. 8 (D flat), in sixths. Op. 19, No. 7 (C major) study in G flat version. Brahms—Op. 10, No. 5 and Op. 25, No. 9, combined in one piece. Chopin—Impromptu, in F sharp. Berceuse. Ballade, in A flat. Scherzo, in C sharp minor. Liszt—Eclogue. At the Spring. Concert Study, in F minor. Mummery of the Forest. Spanish Rhapsody.

GAIN FLESH

An Absolute Necessity in Many Cases.

A DECREASE IN WEIGHT FREQUENTLY INDICATES A DECLINE.

Our Modern Rebuilder, Vinol, Will Help You Do It.

THE WAY IT ACTS ON A DEPLETED CONSTITUTION IS SIMPLY MARVELOUS.

Are you getting thin? If you are you had better watch yourself. Take Vinol. It will build you up quickly and surely.

A healthy man does not vary much from year to year in his weight. This is as it should be. Vinol enables the organs of the body to renew flesh, muscle tissue, bone structure, and attends to purifying the great vital current of the human system, the blood. Vinol contains the active curative properties of Cod-Liver Oil in a highly concentrated state, and is the most wonderful tonic that we have ever had anything to do with.

Vinol acts upon the stomach in a beneficial way, enabling it to obtain for itself the necessary ingredients from the food that is taken into it to build up the pure healthy body and increase the weight.

Mr. H. M. Stueff, who is a well-known passenger trainman on the Boston and Maine Railroad, suffered, as many railroad men do, with kidney and other troubles. He writes as follows:

"My kidneys troubled me a great deal, my bowels were very irregular, I had great distress in my stomach, suffered with bilious headaches, had no appetite, could not sleep nights, and was losing flesh rapidly. I began to take Vinol, I am now on my third bottle, and it is doing wonders for me. My kidneys are better, my bowels are again regular, my stomach no longer troubles me, and no more headaches, and as for appetite, don't speak of it; I sleep like a top and have gained thirteen pounds. You can count on me always to recommend Vinol as the king of medicines."

With many such testimonials as the above coming before us, it is not strange that we endorse Vinol as strongly as we do. We unhesitatingly agree to return to any one who has taken Vinol and is not satisfied that it has accomplished all that we claim for it every cent that they have paid us for this remedy.

PECKVILLE.

Mr. W. F. Ketchum was a visitor at the Electric City yesterday.

The contract for carrying the mail between the Delaware and Hudson depot and the postoffice has been awarded to Mr. Levi Stage, the compensation being $12 per month.

Mr. C. J. Zenzmuller was a business caller at Scranton yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Guest and son, Paul, of Clifton, are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Callender, of North Main street.

Mr. Frank Davis and Mr. Arthur Thompson returned from a hunting expedition at Stevens Point last evening. They captured eighteen rabbits and several partridges.

Think of a woman being sick and suffering six weeks when she might have been well all the time! Think of her taking the treatment of four different doctors and getting no better. Think of the pain and suffering of the patient and the uselessness of the medicine made for just one purpose—to cure disorders or diseases of the feminine organism. It is the only preparation of its kind introduced by a regularly graduated physician—a skilled specialist in the diseases of women, whose thirty years of successful practice are a guarantee of health to all sufferers who consult him.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive the most careful and confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will send a paper-bound copy of his great 1,000-page book "The Common Sense Medical Adviser" to any one who will send a cent stamp and ten cent mailing.

stretches its endeavor to restore the musical element of the performance to its proper importance. The English minstrels have always attached much importance to the musical features of their performances, and among the vocalists of the company, which is to appear here this evening at the Lyceum theater, is Walter Thompson, one of the foremost ballad singers of Great Britain, who for years has been one of the strong cards with Moore and Burgess in London, and who has been brought to America especially for this season's tour of the company. J. J. Cluston, who is admittedly one of the best of American ballad singers, and a dozen of others are also members of the organization, and their ability should guarantee a vocal first night such as has never before been attempted in this country.

At the Gaiety.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Nov. 23, 24 and 25, Rice & Barton's Big Gaiety company, with daily matinee, will be seen at the Lyceum theater at the Lyceum next Saturday afternoon and evening. It is promised that the company is one of the strongest and most pretentious farce comedy organizations seen here. Can't remember appearing to have been selected for individual specialties, aside from the comedy ability. The result is a galaxy of talent unequalled in farce comedy. The music, melodies, songs and dances introduced during the action of the play are of the highest quality. There are plenty of pretty girls, whose costumes are said to be very elaborate, and some of the finest scenic effects ever introduced into a farce comedy.

A Hot Old Time.

The Rays' Hot Old Time, "A Hot Old Time," will be the attraction at the Lyceum next Saturday afternoon and evening. It is promised that the company is one of the strongest and most pretentious farce comedy organizations seen here. Can't remember appearing to have been selected for individual specialties, aside from the comedy ability. The result is a galaxy of talent unequalled in farce comedy. De Fachman's Concert.

Vladimir de Fachman is considered the greatest and best interpreter of Chopin now before the public. He has been styled the "Chopinizer" by James Huneker, the brilliant New York critic, who is a leading authority on Chopin. De Fachman is without a doubt the greatest piano virtuoso we shall here see in this country. He has an international reputation, and is as great a favorite in Europe as in this country. In addition to his wonderful playing, he has eccentricities of manner which are positively fascinating. His manager has enough faith in his reputation at Scranton to send him here on an ordinary theatrical attraction, without any guarantee and this, too, when his terms for each recital are five hundred dollars.

Every student, every teacher, and every musician in the city should appreciate this fact, and also the extremely modest price for tickets, and give De Fachman a crowded house, and a rousing welcome. Then we shall reap what we sow, in future concerts as well as in this one. He will be at the Lyceum Monday night.

The Spooners. Manager Long announces for next week the well known Spooners and company, supporting the clever young artists, Edna May and Cecil Spooner. This excellent company is too well known to the amusement loving people of Scranton to require an introduction, and it goes into all regarding the merit of their performances would simply be a waste of time and valuable space.

The engagement will open Monday night with the rollicking four-act comedy, "That Girl from Texas." This is a thoroughgoing comedy, and a most attractive sort, perfectly rational and perfectly charming.

Commencing Tuesday there will be a matinee daily. Special Thanksgiving matinee Thursday. The box for this occasion will be $1.00 and $1.50. For New York and London success, "Trilby." Ladies' 15 cent tickets for Monday night. Sale of seats opens at 9 a. m. Friday.

The residents of Oak street are up in arms against their representative in council, on account of that insignificant incandescent light which is situated in that vicinity. The Oak street inhabitants claim that they are not benefitted in any way by the light plant, and yet they say the same tax is imposed upon their neighbors, who are receiving the great benefit of an are light. What makes them feel still more indignant is the placing of two are lights at Nos. 1 and 2 schools by the school board. The Oak street people would be pleased to know why the council overlooked the matter.
