

ESCAPE OF AMERICANS

Seven Men Captured by the Filipinos Regain Liberty.

SPANIARDS ALSO DEPART

They Leave in the Turmoil of a Rebel Retreat—Ninety-Four Spaniards Also Got Away—Colonel Bell Occupies the Fortified Town of Mangalaren—Insurgents Abandoned It Without Firing a Shot. Chass of Aguinaldo—Natives Threatened to Wreck Vengeance on Aguinaldo's Mother.

Manila, Nov. 27.—The insurgents have evacuated Mangalaren, province of Pangasinan, leaving seven American and ninety-four Spanish prisoners who escaped in the turmoil of the Filipino retreat. The Americans are P. J. Green and George H. Powers, of the Sixth Infantry; Thomas E. Howard, of the Twenty-fourth Infantry; and Charles Bird, of the Sixteenth Infantry. Henry W. James, of the Twelfth Infantry; John Desmond, of the Signal Corps; and E. E. Huber, of the Signal Corps. They report that the Americans, who were unable to escape, were taken to the town of Mangalaren, where they were held in a stockade. They are being guarded by the Twenty-fourth Infantry, and William Sherby, of the hospital corps. Four deserters are with the Filipinos—Howard, Martin and Ford, of the Californians, and Watts, of the Signal Corps. Howard is a captain of the Twenty-fourth Infantry. He is a captain of artillery.

Colonel Bell, of the Thirty-fourth Infantry, arrived at Mangalaren yesterday evening, after a hard march. He found the town occupied by the Filipinos, and he occupied the town for two days. The insurgents under General Alejandro are retreating to the mountains, behind the town. They are short of food and ammunition. The Spanish men are deserting and six cannon, which he has with him, are impeding his march. Colonel Bell purposes following the Filipinos until he can bring about a decisive fight, or until they have succeeded in escaping. He is fortified with rifle pits commanding the town, but the insurgents abandoned the place without firing a shot.

Three hundred Spanish prisoners who escaped from their captors before the American advance, and who include civil officers of rank and many officers, have arrived at Manila during the last week. Francisco Reyes brought 160 of them from General Wheaton. They were a motley assemblage of all breeds of men. Some were ill, and had to be carried from Tayug on San Fabian in their wagons. A delegation of the former prisoners has visited Major General Otis in order to thank him for his hospitality, which included the furnishing of food and clothes. Senor Jamarillo, the Spanish commissioner, is making arrangements to send the men to Spain on board Spanish transports. Benicunimo has been lodged in comfortable quarters at the police station with his family. Other persons are not allowed to communicate with him. He is classed as being the most slippery personage connected with the insurrection. He was a colonel in the Spanish army and a traitor to Spain. At the beginning of the first insurrection he tried to sell out the Filipinos, and his present imprisonment excites no sympathy among his own people, while the Spaniards believe it is a mistake on the part of the Americans to refrain from shooting him.

Aguinaldo's Mother in Danger. Aguinaldo's youngest child, who was recently christened at Tarlac, General Alfredo, died and was buried at Dayabangan in Aguinaldo's flight. General Wheaton reports that natives have threatened violence to Aguinaldo's mother, who is sheltered in a convent, with a guard. The natives are endeavoring to be brought to Manila for sale.

Washington, Nov. 27.—General Otis today reports the situation in the Philippines in the following dispatch to the war department: "Manila, Nov. 27.—Steamer from San Fabian yesterday brought 145 Spanish prisoners, 375,000 insured government money and other property captured by Lawton's troops near Tayug on 25th. Wheaton's troops, Fowler's company Thirty-third, drove enemy westward from Mangalaren, few of the insurgents. Dazaron, captured five-inch muzzle-loading guns, twelve rifles, twelve thousand rounds Maxim cartridges, one thousand shrapnel, eight hundred pounds powder and other property, also ninety Spanish and seven American prisoners. Bell with Thirty-sixth Infantry, in pursuit, and will march down western Luzon coast. Insurgents are two or three bodies. Insurgent troops numbering probably five hundred are present in each, in mountainous west of railroad. They are being handled by MacArthur; they have the bulk of the insurgent artillery, all of which will be captured unless buried. Young still in pursuit of Aguinaldo, who is heading for Bangas, few miles east of Vigan. Young, with cavalry and scouts, is followed by battalion Thirty-third and by balance battalion Twenty-second; two battalions Thirty-third en route for Vigan by military post road. Young's reception by inhabitants enthusiastic; they give all aid possible. Aguinaldo has collected more than 1,000 of his troops at the north; probably most will desert him. Number small detachments insurgent have been captured and inhabitants manifest gratitude for deliverance. Indications are that insurgent force south of Manila disintegrating and troops going to their homes. Reports from southern islands favorable; Zamboanga insurgents surrendered to our troops and no trouble anticipated there."

SENATOR FLINN IS PLACED ON TRIAL

CHARGED WITH UNLAWFUL USE OF FUNDS.

Books of City of Pittsburgh Alleged to Show He Borrowed City Funds. Flinn Claims He Paid It All Back and Doesn't Owe the City a Cent. Testimony of Moreland and Flinn.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 27.—The trial of the suit in trespass for $200,000 damages brought by the city of Pittsburgh against late Senator William Flinn, ex-City Attorney W. C. Moreland, ex-Assistant City Attorney W. H. House, J. J. Booth and Booth & Flinn, was called before Judge J. W. F. White, of the common pleas court No. 2 today. The suit is based on the alleged action of ex-Assistant District Attorney House in loaning city money to Senator Flinn, owing to the recent discovery of the existence of cancelled checks made payable to House and endorsed to the order of Flinn.

All of these interested in the case were present including W. H. House, who came from the penitentiary accompanied by Warden Wright. The greater part of the morning sitting was devoted to examination of papers presented by both sides. Ex-City Attorney Moreland was on the stand at adjournment.

Before proceeding with the hearing of testimony Senator Flinn, through his counsel, announced that he refused to take advantage of the status of limitation and desired the case to be tried strictly on its merits. The other defendants claimed the right to plead the statute.

TELEPHONE TRUST RECEIVES A BLOW

William C. Whitney and Others Withdraw from the Scheme Which Promised to Include Everything on Wire in a Combine.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—The Evening Bulletin today publishes the following: The colossal plan to control all of the independent telephone companies in the United States and to combine them with the great telegraph companies and the five Atlantic cable companies for which purpose the Telephone, Telegraph and Cable company of North America was incorporated Nov. 9, with a capital of $50,000,000, received a severe blow today, the effect of which may be far reaching. This was none other than the withdrawal from the scheme of William C. Whitney, Thomas F. Ryan, Anthony N. Brady, William L. Ekins, P. A. B. Widener and Thomas Dolan, the latter of whom is president of the Garfield bank, Thomas Dolan; Charles E. Adams, of Boston; Charles Holbrook, of Boston; V. R. Francis, of St. Louis; William H. Crocker, of California; and James E. Hays.

The president of the company is William J. Latta, former general agent of the American Telephone and Telegraph company in this city, which office he resigned Sept. 1 last. Associated with him in the beginning of the enterprise were: J. J. Astor, P. A. B. Widener, Charles R. Flinn, Martin Muloney, J. F. Jones, W. E. Ekins, Frank H. Tilford, W. H. Geshelein, president of the Garfield bank, Thomas Dolan; Charles E. Adams, of Boston; Charles Holbrook, of Boston; V. R. Francis, of St. Louis; William H. Crocker, of California; and James E. Hays.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

The Latest Test Is Made at Chicago. Has Proved Successful.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Prof. W. S. Johnson and C. L. Fetter, of Milwaukee, today made a successful test in this city of the wireless telegraph. They succeeded in telegraphing, without wires, through a suite of seven rooms with all doors closed and through seven walls. Another test was made, when the signals were successfully conveyed through three fire-proof vaults. The professor claims that his invention is materially different from that of Marconi, that instruments can be constructed to be carried on horseback and be ready for operation within a few moments after they have reached their destination.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The postmaster general today issued a fraud order barring the mails against the Franklin syndicate, of No. 144 Floyd street, Brooklyn.

The strikers, through a committee, have requested the officials of the Susquehanna Coal company to grant them another conference. The request was granted by General Manager Williams, and Wednesday afternoon the date for the meeting. All was quiet at the company's works today.

THE ADVANCE OF METHUEN

ANOTHER BOER POSITION TAKEN ON THE KIMBERLEY ROAD.

Honey Nest Kloof and Two Million Rounds of Ammunition Said to Have Been Captured—Joubert Retiring Rapidly in Natal—Destroys Railroad Bridge at Frere—Expected to Give Battle at the Passage of the Tugela River—General Advance on Colenso Ordered.

Cape Town, Nov. 27.—Afternoon.—It is reported that General Methuen has captured Honey Nest Kloof, ten miles north of Gras Pan, and 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition.

Retreating, Sunday, Nov. 26.—The railroad bridge at Frere, which spanned a wide stream has been destroyed by the Boers, who are reported to be retiring rapidly. A general advance on Colenso has been ordered by the British command. A firing column has left here to intercept the Boer raiding parties.

London, Nov. 27.—The Colonial office has received the following dispatch from the governor of Natal, dated Pietermaritzburg, Sunday, Nov. 26: "The Boers are retiring rapidly. Our troops are occupying a ridge three miles northward of the Mool river. It appears that the Boers have found our position too strong and are retiring toward Ladysmith with the loot they have collected. The river is in flood. Fuller has arrived by telegraphic communication with Pietermaritzburg and is expected to arrive here this morning."

MORE CUBAN RUMORS.

Reports of an Uprising Against Americans on the Island—Food for Reflection on Part of Hysterical People.

Havana, Nov. 27.—Nothing is known at present of this insurrection, says General Lee's to justify the report published in the United States and cabled back here that a thousand armed Cuban insurgents have taken to the woods in the province of Pinar del Rio and that a general uprising against the American troops had been planned for Thanksgiving day.

Indeed, the story is absolutely discredited by the American authorities, who say it is impossible that anything of the kind should have happened or about to happen without knowledge of it coming to some army post. Rumors of a more alarming character have for some time been plentiful around Havana. It is said, for instance, that this general or that is about to take to the woods and it is apparently true that certain men are nursing programmes hostile to the American administration. But the spread of the campaign of education is doing a good deal to offset the influence of such people, and in any event, no trouble whatever is likely to occur until after congress meets.

It is a fact, however, that many Americans here believe that if nothing is done towards giving the Cubans some definite assurance, if not a precise date, regarding the independence of the island, there will be a rising of some sort, although opinions differ widely with regard to what it will amount to. Some believe that the malcontents will be practically bandits, easily controlled by a few troops. Others hold that the rising would be a general one and would call for a large American force.

H. G. Taylor Will Be Appointed to Settle Franklin Syndicate.

DISPOSITION OF SAMOAN ISLANDS

United States Disapproved Anglo-German Plan—Another Suggested. State Department at Washington Has Drafted Convention—Berlin and London Considering It.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The United States has declined to accept the agreement reached by Great Britain and Germany as to the disposition of the Samoan Islands. Possibly it was the lack of out of some information to that effect that caused the rise of the report circulated in European capitals recently of the development of a serious hitch in the negotiations.

As a matter of fact, there is no serious hitch and the reasons which influenced the state department here in its rejection of the Anglo-German arrangement related to minor matters and touched rather on the form than the substance of the arrangements.

MINE WORKERS DISAPPOINTED.

Three Thousand Men at Shamokin Ready to Strike.

Shamokin, Pa., Nov. 27.—Three thousand United Mine Workers of America, local colliers of the Susquehanna district, were disappointed tonight upon learning that the strike of the company's men at Nanticoke and Glen Lyon was not settled today. A prominent organizer official of the lower anthracite district, who has expressed the belief that the Shamokin men will now join in the strike if ordered to do so by President Mitchell, of the National order of United Mine Workers. He served notice on the company last night that the strike would be ordered unless the Nanticoke strike was ended.

FIRE IN A MINE.

Kebley Run Veins Still Burning Fiercely.

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 27.—Fire was discovered early today in the West Mammoth gangway of the Kebley run mines, near here, operated by the Thomas company. The entire force of the colliery was put to work with water, chemicals and grenades in an effort to extinguish the flames. After daylight the fire was extinguished and made some headway, but the fire is still burning fiercely. During the day many of the fire fighters fell unconscious from the gases but all were quickly taken out of the mine and revived. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as it was burning when the men went to work early this morning.

Demand for More Wages Refused.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—The upholstery manufacturers of this city today refused the demand of their employees for an increase in the wage scale. The upholstery weavers presented their demand at a week ago. The low scale makes a general increase in wages of 25 per cent. A number of the manufacturers had made an advance of 10 per cent. and the additional increase was excessive. There are about 1,100 upholstery weavers in the city, 800 of whom are members of the union.

British Casualties.

London, Nov. 27.—The commander-in-chief at the Cape has sent the admiralty an additional list of casualties among the British naval brigade engaged at the battle of Gras Pan, as follows: Midshipman Huddart, of the cruiser Doris, and ten sailors and marines killed and seven other sailors and marines and seven officers and six non-commissioned officers and men of the Marines wounded. Total casualties 165.

Rumor Denied.

Susquehanna, Pa., Nov. 27.—The current report that the Erie Railroad company is about to build in connection with a short cut across Wayne county from Lackawanna to Honesdale, another short cut to Owego to shorten the main line between New York and Chicago is probably untrue, according to Secretary Middleton of the Erie company as wholly without foundation.

Respect for Vice President.

HAS BETTER MONEY PLAN

Comptroller Dawes Offers Some New Recommendations.

Washington, Nov. 27.—According to the annual report of Comptroller of the Currency Dawes the number of national banks in operation on Sept. 7, 1899, was 2,556, with a paid in capital of $657,722,570. The individual deposits on that date amounted to $2,450,725,295.21, and the aggregate resources to $4,650,355,123.44. A comparison of the Sept. 7 returns with those made on Sept. 23, 1898, indicates an increase during the year in individual deposits of $119,271,055.62; in loans and discounts of $349,789,623.20; in amount due from other banks and bankers, $150,391,396.68; in specie $14,497,223.44, and in aggregate resources, $646,844,088.57. On Sept. 7 the net deposit liabilities of national banks of the country aggregated $3,031,462,914.68, on which a reserve of $890,568,826.90, or 29.38 per cent, was held.

ELASTICITY THE OBJECT

Would Let National Banks Issue Circulation to the Par of Deposited Bonds, but on the Ten Per Cent, Extra Circulation Would Impose a Tax of from Two to Three Per Cent, and Remove the Tax from the Circulation Up to That Point—Arguments Offered in Support of This Proposition.

In recommending improvements in banking laws the comptroller repeats his recommendation of one year ago for a law providing for an unsecured emergency circulation to lessen the destructive power of financial panics, and taxed so heavily that under normal conditions it must be retired and can neither provide profit for the issuer nor serve as a basis for the expansion of commercial credits. He then says that if such a law be not passed, a marked degree of elasticity is possible of attainment in connection with our present system of bonded national bank notes and should be provided for by law whether the former law is passed or not.

Circulation to Par.

The comptroller believes that, in accordance with the president's recommendation, national banks should be allowed to issue circulation to the par of the United States bonds deposited by them for circulation, and that, in connection with the law authorizing this, provision can be made for a secured emergency circulation. The object of allowing the banks to take out circulation to the par of the bonds is to induce them to furnish for the use of the public a larger amount of circulation than is in existence at present. The present rate of profit to be derived by the banks from their circulation is not sufficient to justify them in issuing a larger amount, but any method of increasing the profits on circulation will result in an increase of circulation.

Elasticity Secured.

The comptroller, therefore, would recommend legislation authorizing the issuance of national bank note circulation to the par of the deposited United States bonds, and that the additional 10 per cent. circulation thus allowed the banks be subjected to a tax at the rate of 2 or 3 per cent. per annum for the time used, which will tend to prevent its unrestricted use under normal conditions, and to save it for use at these periods of the year when crops are to be moved, and in those periods of panic when it is most valuable both to the banks and the business public as a means of assisting the general liquidation of credits. With the object of securing an increase in the present bank-note circulation, he would recommend the reduction or abolishment of the present tax of 1 per cent. per year on the circulation to 90 per cent. of the deposited bonds—the amount of the reduction in the tax on currency to be collected from the necessary per cent. of tax on the capital and surplus of national banks if requisite to the public revenues. To allow the banks to issue up to the par of the bonds, unsubjected to additional tax on the 10 per cent. extra circulation, will result in their immediately taking out their additional circulation for the purpose of profit. Business credits will be extended and adjusted to correspond with such increase of the currency, and practically the same inelasticity will characterize our bank note issues then as now. With the advent of a panic we would have no additional means of lessening the necessity of a call upon the business community to furnish, by the repayment of loans, practically the bulk of the deposits drawn off by frightened depositors.

The Comptroller Believes that the
