MIXED MONROE CASES.

Franklin Mill, J. E. Everitt and Eugene Mill Under Bail. Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 27 .- A pecu-Har triangle fight is being enjoyed by the residents of Brocherdsville, this county. Constable J. D. Weiss, a few days ago, toook into custody a painter named Franklin Mill on a warrant sworn out before Juntice Haney. The charge against Mill is of a serious na-The prosecutrix is Miss Emma ture. Custine, who is employed at the hotel of which J. E. Everitt is landlord, Mill in return has caused the arrest of Hotelkeeper Everitt for selling, as he alleges, liquor on Sunday and election day, to minors, and for keeping a gambling house. Constable Altemose toook Everitt into custody. Everitt now, in return, has caused the arrest of Eugene Mill, a brother of Franklin Mill. Constable Allemost also took Mill into custody. All the parties are under ball. Twenty-eight witnesses have been subpoenaed for the hearing. The Eurene Mill case was aired today and the illegal selling of liquor of Everitt on Tuesday. The parties are well known and the small village is very much excited over the triangular law suit.

JIMMIE AND THE BULL.

Experience of a Man Who Attempted to Lead the Animal with a Rope.

Special to the Screnton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Nov. 27 .- A few days ago Jimmie Crow, chore boy for Robert Bryce, who resides some miles beyond Spruce Cabin, thought he would put a rope on a yearling bull and tie him in the stable. Mr. Bryce ad-vised the boy to let the "critter" alone, but Jimmie thought, like many a boy in the past, that he would show the old man a thing or two and went on with the roping. He got the rope on the bull's neck, but, not being used to any such decoration, he turned on Jimmie, ripping his trouser leg and made a bad gash in the thigh that required three or four stitches to close It up.

A doctor did the necessary stitching and Jimmie is helping to eat the meat of the bull that has been slaughtered.

CRIME SUSPECTED.

Mysterious Screams Heard on the Ferry Bridge at Pittston.

Pittston, Nov. 27 .- About 4 o'clock this morning as Henry Berlew was crossing the Water street bridge on his way he heard screams of "Oh! Oh!" break the still night air. They seemed of over and terminer, $1,000; W. N. to come from the vicinity of the Ferry bridge, and were followed by a heavy splash, as if something had been throw from the bridge into the river below. Then followed more screams. The occurrence was heard by several persons, who hurried to the bridge to investigate, but nothing could be found to account for It.

The affair is still a mystery, although the theory is advanced that a crime may have been committed.
