Cincinnati, Ohio, The Bachelor's club of this place will conduct a banquet in the Free Mason

The street department has been engaged with the road machine at work which will be generally appreciated. The ridge caused by the filling of the surface water sewer ditches has been scraped off and the thoroughfares prepared for a sudden fall of snow. The contractors will allow a deduction from the contract price of the amount expended for labor in effecting this muchneeded improvement,

DOCTORS ENTERTAINED.

The Carbondale Medical association was entertained by Dr. H. C. Wheeler last night at his private hospital, which has recently been remodelled and furnished. The collation was followed by a feast of reason and flow of soul. Among the carefully prepared and in-structing papers was one by Dr. Mark Balley on anaesthesia-a subject which the doctor has long been considered eminently fitted to treat. An inspection of the institution proved it to be a model of neatness, convenience and hygienic arrangement.

LADIES UNDER THIRTY-FIVE.

Evangelist Dunnett delivered an address especially for young women last evening. The church was crowded to the doors with a mixed audience, but the front portion of the auditorium was reserved for ladies under thirty-five. Certificates of birth were not required but the occupants of these seats certainly did not appear to be older than twenty.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. W. W. Fletcher, who has been taking a special course at Philadelphia, in diseases of the eye and ear, will spend Thanksgiving at home. Alderman Jones was in Scranton yes terday on business. Mrs. Henry Box, of Forest City, is visiting relatives in this city.

Dr. I. S. Graves met with a painful While accident yesterday afternoon.

returning from a professional call at Greenfield his spirited team of horses became unmanageable and ran away, throwing the doctor out alongside the oad. The horses continued their run for some distance until the buggy collided with a fence post, when they were captured. The doctor was later brought to his home, where Drs. Davis and Shields attended him. They found on examination that one of the small bones of his ankle was fractured. The buggy was badly damaged and one of the horses slightly injured. Mrs. James Rogers and daughter Louise, of Hartford, are the guests of their son, Prof. W. L. Rogers, of Second street. 'The Ladies' Aid of St. James' church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Horswell, of Third street. Tomorrow being St. Andrew's day, as well as Thanksgiving day, cervices will be held in St. James' Episcopal church at 10.39 a. m. TAYLOR NEWS.

Firemen's Annual Ball This Evening-Bachelor's Supper at the Calvary Baptist Church-Persona News.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual ball of the Tayor hose No. 1, which will be held in Weber's rink this evening. A large number of tickets have been sold. A grand march will be among the features of the events, for which two necktics will be given as prizes. Burgess J. E. Watkins is about to erect a new residence on South Main street. At the new Catholic parish yesterday Mrs. Matlida Berger, of this place, and Mr. M. J. Kans, of Minooka, were united in the bonds of holy wedlock by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Moflitt. A recoption was held at the bride's home last evening.

An Associated Press dispatch from Galveston, Texas, announced the death at that place Monday night of Charles Coghian who was seen here last season in "The Royal Box." Charles Coghian was 56 years of age. At the time of his death he had nearly finished his dramat-Ization of "Vanity Fair" for his daughter, Gertrude. As an actor he stood in the first rank, and while he had many of the eccentricities of genius, his death makes vacant a place in the dramatic field that No. 55, of Williams will not be filled easily. Charles Cogn-lan, of Irish family, but born in Paris, came to New York from England, owing to inducemnts held out by Lester Wal-lack. He was made leading man in what was at that time the finest theater of order; also ladies' walsta Shoemaker, 212 Adams avenue. New York. He speedily became a favor-ite. He played Romeo to the Juliet of Adelaide Nellson in the revival at Booth's, and the performance has been written of as the finest of that tragedy ever given in New York. He played Macbeth to Mrs. Langtry's Lady Mac-beth, and soon afterward became leading man to his talented sister, Rosa Coghlan, then at the scnith of her renown. He deserted Wallack's and went nown. He deserted Wallack's and went starring. His plays have found approval with both managers and critics. In 1885 he wrote "Jocelyn," and last year "Citi-zen Pierre." It was expected that Mrs. Langtry would produce the former play, but she did not, and Coghian appeared in it himself in 1888-89. Fortune was fickle with the dead actor. At times his act-ing and his plays made much money for ing and his plays made much money for him; at others the golden tide ebbed and left him with scant means. He had great success with "The Royal Box," however, and it is believed his catate will show well on the right side.

Miss Norah O'Brien, who this season playing Anne of Austria with James O'Neill in Liebler & Co.'s tremendous production of "The Musketcers," shortly to be seen here, is well remembered from the season when she was a co-star with Mesars. Spencer and Hanford in their repertoire of Shakespearean plays. Miss O'Brien is a girl of decidely handsome appearance, striking personality and very charming expression. She is said to

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the car. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten and caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
