EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM B. OWENS.

Celebrated at Their Home on Oak Street Tuesday Evening-Nicholl-Shaw Wedding-Country Dance in Mears' Hall-Fifteenth Ward Candidates' Conference Adjourned. James Buckley's Body Arrives. Thanksgiving Observance-Other Smaller Paragraphs of General

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Owens. of Oak street, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Tuesday evening in a fitting manner. Their spacious residence was decorated with the national colors, evergreens and Chinese lanterns, and the event was attended by over one hundred guests. Mr. Owens is foreman at the Holden mine, and is a valued employe of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, with whom he has been associated for many

A notable feature of the occasion was the presentation by the employes of the Holden, to Mr. and Mrs. Owens, of a beautiful silver water service. The presentation speech was made by David W. John in behalf of the men. Mr. Owens responded in a few well-spoken words. Isaac B. Felts also presented them with a silver tea service, and they were the recipients of silverware of every description, which was the gift of their friends.

Mrs. Owens was assisted in receiving and serving by her daughter, Jessie, Mrs. John J. Richards and the following young ladies: Misses Carrie De Y elde, Bessie Speicher, Susie Morris, Sadle Gordon and Mabel Nuber. The usual festivities incidental to such occasions were enjoyed, and a graphophone operated by William Davis, was

The guests included many well known people from Taylor and West Scranton

Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. John Hale, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsh, Mr. John J. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. David W. John, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. William Jeremiah, Mr. and Mrs. David O. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. William Dagger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owens, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hughes. Mr. and Mrs Fred Lining, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Tallie Gritfiths, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Freeman,

Uwanta

Good cough remedy, take Dufours French Tar. For Sale at

> GEORGE W. JENKINS', tot S. Main Avenue

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heberling, Mr. and Mrs. William Proberts, Mr. and Mrs. L. Speck, Dunmore.

Mrs. W. W. Watkins, Mrs. Felts, Mrs. Edward Jones, Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, Mrs. Edwin Reese, Mrs. James Morris, Mrs. James Francis, Mrs. David L. Davis, Mrs. Thomas Salnsburg, Mrs. Morgan Harris

Misses Laura Neibell, Bessie Speicher, Carrie DeWilde, Myrtle Perry, Sadie Gordon, Mabel Nuber, Emma Felts, Susie Morris, Ida Hughes, Alda Atkinson, Margaret Reynolds, Lillian Har-

Winifred Harris, Mcssrs, George DeWilde, Harry Francis, Carl Gunster, William Jamie son, George Marsh, David Davis, Jacob Davis, William Burkey, Henry Goodwin, Isaac B. Felts, Frank Williams, Will Reynolds, William Gangwer, Peter Hart, Stuart Richards, William Davis, Will Robertson, CONFERENCE ADJOURNED.

The meeting of candidates for office in the Fifteenth ward, held last evening in Alderman Moses' office, developed into a general citizens' mass meeting, wherein a surplus of candidates developed for every office within the gift of the voters. In addition to the candidates already announced for select council and alderman, several dark horses sprung up from the crowd, which practically rendered impossible the accomplishment of anything pertaining to the fixing of a date or the selection of the necessary committees arrange the details for the caucus. Resolutions governing the candidates vere offered and motions were offered that would tend to make the meeting a farce. It was finally decided to adjourn until Monday evening when something definite will be decided up-

BUCKLEY'S BODY ARRIVES. The remains of the late James J. Buckley, who died in New York, arrived last evening at 9 o'clock on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. The body was taken to the home of the deceased's mother, 341 North Sumner avenue by Undertoker Wymbs.

On account of the late arrival of the remains, the funeral will not be held until 2 o'clock this afternoon. Short services will be conducted in St. Patrick's Catholic church and interment will be made in the Cathedra! ceme-

ENJOYABLE COUNTRY DANCE. The eighth anniversary of the Ladies' Irish Catholic Benevolent union was observed in Mears' hall last evening, and Mrs. Daniel W. Williams, Mr. and with a country dance, in which the Mrs. H. E. Highfield, Mr. and Mrs. participants were attired in grotesque costumes. The grand march was led by John Hennegan and Miss B. Gallagher, and Lawrence's musicians fornished the music. During the evening red lemonade, pop corn, peanuts and molasses candy was sold at the re> freshment booth The affair was under the direction of a committee composed of Misses Margaret Kellett, B. Gallagher, Margaret Cusick. Mame Reilly, Lizzle Thurst, Ella Cavanaugh, Emma Frantz, Nellie Cartin, Mame Gaughan, Margaret McCrea and Mrs. Laura Moran, NICHOLL-SHAW NUPTIALS.

Edward J. Nicholl, of 217 Everett avenue, and Miss Jane Shaw, of 1722 Price street, were married at 7.30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Shaw. Rev. E. J. McHenry, rector of St. David's Episcopal church, performed the cere-

Our Grand Annual Handkerchief Sale Begins Friday, December 1,

And lasts for ten days only. The opportunity offered for bargains of the most desirable kind is fully understood by sensible people who have long looked upon the Globe Warehouse as headquarters for everything coming under the general heading of Dry Goods and Notions. To those who do not fully understand what these special sales mean, we have merely to say they know what the money saving pils of No. 19 school and Mrs. Thomas amounts to in one or two of them and you will also become a Globe Warehouse trading convert. The Handkerchief sale, regarding which a few details appear below, we consider by far the best of its kin! that we have ever brought under the notice of the

A Few Very Positive Facts:

Fancy Embroidered Linen Handkerchiefs

All of better class quality and worth from 20 per cent, to 40 per cent, more than we will ask for the next ten days.

Handkerchiefs worth 20c. each, at Handkerchiefs worth 25c. each, at

Handkerchiefs worth 35c. each, at 25c, each.

Others from 5c. to $6.00 each.

Hemstitched

Linen Embroidered We have some exquisitely fine

Handkerchiefs coming under this heading. Take time and look over the entire line, it will be a revelation to you. Handkerchiefs worth 18c. each, at

Handkerchiefs worth 35c. each, at

Others from 50c. to $7.50 each.

Plain Linen

H. S. Handkerchiefs A nice everyday quality at 5c.

Finer and larger Handkerchiefs at 3 for 25c A good 20c. Handkerchief at 2 for Regular 25c. Handkerchief at 17c. An extra fine plain H. S. Linen Handkerchief for 25c.

Fine Initial

Linen Handkerchiefs

All Linen, hem-stitched, with fancy hand-sewed initial; fine All Linen, hem-stitched; fancy initial; half a dozen in a pretty box, $1.60. Fancy Embroidered and Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs; very pretty, at 4 for 25c. The Balance of the Handkerchief sale story must be learned at the store, for there's over one hundred ainds and prices to tell about yet.

try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Your stomach is probably over-worked and all clogged
up. The Bitters

Constipation, Dyspepsia, Liver and RS Diseases.

mony. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma Nicholl, sister of the groom, and Walter Jones, his cousin, was grooms-Charles Shaw, a brother of the bride, gave her away. Ruth Shaw, nAce of the bride, was flower girl. Miss Margaret Thomas played the wedding march and just before the ceremony a quartette composed of Thomas Jones, Charles Shaw, Miss Margaret Phillips and Mrs, H. Reilly, sang "The Voice That Breathes O'er Eden." At the conlusion of the nuptials they sang 'Deign This Union to Approve."

The bride was attired in brown cloth, with silk and brown velvet and steel trimmings. Her maid was attired in a costume of garnet cloth, and both vore bouquets of carnations and smilax. A reception and supper followed the wedding, which was participated in by a number of friends and relatives Mr. and Mrs. Nicholl will begin housekeeping immediately at the corner of Garfield avenue and Price street.

THANKSGIVING OBSERVANCE. The spirit of today will be quite enerally observed in West Scranton, particularly among the churches. The usual custom of gathering contributions for the poor was carried out in the public schools and churches yesterday, and a large amount of provisions, and in some instances money, was re-

The Home Missionary society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church were busily engaged during the afternoon in receiving the gifts of the charitably inclined, and this morning many a desolate home will be brightened by these missionaries, whose work during many years has been along this par-

The pupils of No. 19 school carried a large quantity of goods to school yesterday afternoon, and each pupil also notified the teachers of any worthy poor people in their home locality. The edibles and clothing received will be distributed this morning.

Services will be held in the Plymouth Congregational, Washburn Street Presbyterian, and First Welsh Congregational churches. An excellent entertainment will be provided in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church this evening and several social events will occur in the various halls of entertain-

Altogether, between the looking after the poor, attending religious services and participating in the concerts and dances this evening, the people will find ample opportunity to spend a most enjoyable day.

OTHER WEDDINGS.

Joseph Fendick, of Olyphant, and Miss Nellie Selina Williams, of Peckville, were married at the parsonage of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal by Rev. J. B. Sweet. James Williams, brother of the bride, and Miss Emma Fendick, sister of the groom, attended the couple. Octavius Williams, of Carbondale, and Miss Johanna Wilkes, of Washburn street, were married at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Hampton Street Methodist church, by Rev. James Benninger, NOTES AND PERSONALS. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, are the guests of Miss Annie Davis, of Twelfth street, The silver trumpet presented to Chief Walker by the Columbia Hose company is on exhibition in Jenkins' drug store window.

Mary, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, of Everett avenue, was badly burned yesterday while playing with fire in the yard in the rear of the house,

Miss Madeline McGarry, of Honesdale, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wymbs, on Jackson street Donations were received at the West Side hospital yesterday from the pu-

The fifth anniversary of St. Brenden's ouncil, Young Men's Institute, will be celebrated at Mears hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5, with a banquet. The affair will be for members only. Caterer Hanley will furnish the supper. The wedding of George Wetling and Miss Minnie Jones will occur at 9 clock this morning in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. J. B. Sweet will officiate.

A girl baby arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis, of North Bromley avenue, yesterday, Rev. Justin Fuller, D. D., of Boston, Mass., delivered his lecture last evening at the Jackson Street Baptist church on "Grant's Greatest Monument." A large audience enjoyed the lecture.

Dr. Roberts, assisted by Dr. Paine, removed a cystic tumor from under the tongue of Mrs. Hopkins, of the Beech, yesterday. The operation was performed at the home of David Johnon, on South Main avenue.

A Wise Dog.

"Your dog seems to follow you without "Yes, he wouldn't take any orders from to know the real boss."-Cleveland Plain

Grain-O! Grain-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nour-ishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about | as much as coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Try Crain-O!

Sandrand and the state of the s

WE DON'T GUARANTEE A TURKEY AND A BOTTLE OF WINE

For every day in the year with every lot we sell, but we vouch that an investment in a few lots on the Great Diamond Tract, the last remaining piece of Real Estate in the heart of the city, will make you reasonably comfortable by the time you commence to feel that you are getting older.

Don't Put It Off. The Lots Are Selling Fast

You may come too late. Your father was behind time, too, when Lackawanna Avenue, Penn Avenue, Wyoming Avenue and Washington Avenue, etc., were opened up. First Comers, First Choice. Prices will be raised in two weeks from today. A good thing like this cannot last forever. Take a walk today, only seven minutes from Lackawanna Avenue, and look at our property.

ALEX. T. CONNELL. The Diamond Land and Improvement Co.

OFFICES -- Albright Avenue, on Company's Land, and 208 Commonwealth Building, Corner Spruce Street and Washington Avenue. (Open Evenings.)

SOUTH SCRANION NOTES.

Supper Served by Ladies' Sodality of St. John's Church-Thanksgiving Events-Shorter Paragraphs.

Last evening, at St. Mary's hall, the Ladies' Sodality of St. John's parish served a turkey supper. The hall was tastefully decorated

The numerous tables were laden with delicacies of the season and the ladies were kept busy attending to the wants of their numerous guests. The large hall was continuously crowded during the evening and Reif's orchestra rendered pleasing music at intervals. Supper will again be served this evening, and it is expected that the attendance will equal that of last evening. The proceeds of both affairs will go towards furnishing the rooms in the new convent.

THANKSGIVING EVENTS.

The ladies of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will serve a turkey dinner in the church parlors from 12 to 5 o'clock this afternoon. The Ladies' Soladity of St. Mary's German Catholic church will serve a turkey supper between the hours of 4 and 10 o'clock this evening, at St.

The Young People's society of the church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock | Hickory Street Fresbyterian church | Alfred Pennington will preside. will conduct a social at the church cauliflower, wax beans, etc. Green this evening. A very interesting programme has been prepared and refreshments will be served. The Ladies' Catholic Benefit association will hold their annual banquet in Pharmacy hall this evening. At Athletic hall the Ringgold band will conduct its annual ball this afternoon and evening.

The Welcome Dancing class will give social at Snover's hall this afternoon | Thompson, Wayne county. and evening. Music will be furnished by Relf's orchestra.

BITS OF NEWS IN NOTES. The Scranton Tourist club conducted very successful entertainment and social at St. John's hall last evening. The programme, which appeared in yesterday's Tribune, was well rendered and the different members were loudly applauded. A dance followed and altogether a very enjoyable evening was spent by all. The Sunset Paseball club conducted a ball at Workingmen's hall last evening, which was well patronized. The following deposits have been made by the teachers of No. 7 school for the week ending November 25: Elizabeth B. Gaughan, $2.87; Elizabeth Joyce, 43 cents; Kate G. O'Malley, $2.11; total, $5.41. The funeral of John Shafer was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence, 719 Prospect avenue. Interment was made in the Minooka ceme-Michael Schallon, foreman of the steel department at the south mill, had a narrow escape from serious or even fatal injury on Tuesday afternoon. While riding on one of the small locomotives he lost his hold and fell off. Luckily he landed alongside of the track and escaped with several painful P. J. Kane has returned to his home in Beltimore after spending a few days at the home of his mother, Mrs. Kane, of Cedar avenue. Miss Mary Holleran, of Cedar avenue, is visiting friends in Brooklyn.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683, NORTH SCRANTON.

The Cumberland Silver Cornet band will conduct an entertalnment Wednesday evening, December 6, in St. Mary's hall, for the benefit of Patrick Langan. Next Tuesday evening a ball raffle will be held in St. Mary's hall for the benefit of Mrs. Cella McDonough. Dinner and supper will be served in the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church have prepared a menu that is worthy of much praise.
The ladies of the North Main Avenue

Baptist church will serve dinner toclass held a social in O'Malley's hall. The funeral of Mrs. John Leon was held yesterday afternoon #1 2 o'clock from her late home on Wood street. Interment was made in the Catholic The Epworth League of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church will hold an entertainment this evening in the church parlors. Misses Agnes McGowan, Mary Me-Gowan and Mary Beland called on friends in Archbald during the fore part of the week. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. P. Neary, of of Green street, will visit relatives in Peckville today. Dr. J. B. Corser, of 1403 North Main avenue, has equipped himself with a horse and carriage, both of which make a fine appearance. Dr. Corser is fast becoming known as one of the best physicians of this section.

GREEN RIDGE.

There will be services in the Church with red, white and blue flagz and of the Good Shepherd, this morning bunting, and presented a pretty pic- at 19.39 o'clock, with sermon by the rector, and Hely Communion. In the evening there will be special services in the interest of the Brotherhood of Andrew, Rev. Rogers Israel, St. Luke's church, and Rev. E. J. Mc-Henry, of St. David's, will speak in the evening.

Boiled and sweet cider. Green Ridge market.

The pupils of schools Nos. 27, 28 and 34 contributed about three wagon loads of vegetables, canned fruit, groceries and fresh fruit to be distributed among the charitable institutions of the city yesterday Agents for Carr's home-made mines meat and pure lard. Green Ridge Orfield Coleman, of Dickson avenue, spent yesterday hunting in Wayne Bar Le Duc. Green Ridge market.

The music section of the Green Ridge Woman's club will meet in the Library building tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. J

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church on Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

Pure milk, 5 cents a quart. Green Ridge market. Thomas Richards, Clarence R. Shryer, of the West Side, and Charles P Jones spent yesterday hunting near Turkey, ducks and chickens. Green Ridge market. Preparatory services, with lecture by the pastor, Rev. I. J. Lansing, will be held in the lecture room of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church tomorrow vening at 7.20 o'clock. Blue Point oysters. Green Ridge market. Sanderson avenue was finally opened for travel yesterday and the street cars now run to Market street.

DUMMORE.

Thanksgiving service will be held at St. Mark's this morning at 9 o'clock The services will be Holy Communion with sermon. The offering will be for the support of St. Luke's hospital. In the evening from 6 till 9 o'clock a Thanksgiving day supper will be served by St. Mark's Woman's guild in the Guild hall. Tickets may be had at the door for 25 cents.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary McKinney died yesterday morning at $.30 o'clock at the Hotel Nach, on Adams avenue, after a two weeks' illness. She was born in Philipsburg. N. J., June 6, 1818, and came here with ner husband fifty-four years ago. James McKinney, her husband. lied twenty-seven years ago. She was a charter member of the First Presbyterian church and a woman of the noblest character and deeds. Two daughters and one son survive her-Mrs. George L. Gage of Huntington, Pa.; Mrs. Margaret Renshaw, of Newark N. J., and C. W. McFinney, of this city. She is also survived by nine grand and eight great grand-children, Friday afternoon the funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock from her son's residence, at No. 4 Platt Place. Rev. James McLeod, D. D., will conduct services at the house and interment will be made in the Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. John L. Wolf, formerly Miss Jessie Lewis, died vesterday morning at her home on North Main avenue and Putnam street, after an illness of church to-day. The ladies of the a few days, Eright's disease being the cause of her death married last May, and her demise is mourned by a heart-broken husband and a multitude of friends. She was the daughter of the late Colonel T. D. Last evening the North End Dancing Lewis, of North Scranton, and was only 21 years old. A husband, mother, one sister and two brothers survive her. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, with interment in Dunmore cemetery.

> Henry F. Phillips, contractor, of 1622 Washburn street, died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of several weeks. Deceased was 38 years of age and is survived by his wife and one son. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Anna Larkin, the 3-year-old daughter of James Larkin, of 642 River street, died last evening. The funeral Prof. and Mrs. J. Hayden Cousins, announcements will be made later.

ARRESTED IN FREELAND. Alexander Perkowiski Accused

Bigamy by His Wife.

On Nov. 28 Rosalie Perkowiski came before Alderman Howe and swore out warrant for the arrest of her husband, Alexander, on the charge of bigamy. It seems that a few years ago Perkowiski, who lives in Priceburg, went to his old home in Prussia and there met Rosalie. He proposed to her and she accepted him and they returned to this country man and wife. Since then two children have been born to them, one of which is still a babe in arms. A short time ago a wo man appeared on the scene who spouse went before Alderman Howe and swore out a warrant. 'Last night Alderman Howe received telegram from Constable John Mailock, at Freeland, in which he stated he had captured Perkowiski would bring him to this city. He will probably get his hearing some time tomorrow or Saturday before Alder-claimed to have been married to Per-kowiski before Rosalie had. The husband now deserted wife No. 2 and departed with wife No. 1. The slighted

BIKE CLUB ENTERTAINMENT. Programme That Will Be Rendered

at Club House Tonight. The second of the series of entertainments and socials under the auspices of the Scranten Bicycle club will take place at their club house on Washington avenue this evening, on which oceasion Mr. Alton Packard, carteonist and lecturer, will appear, assisted by Mr. Tom Beynon, tenor, and Bauer's orchestra. The following is the programme

Selection, from "Cyrano De Bergerac,

Bauer's Orchestra. Baver's Orchestra. Solo, "The Sallor's Grave" ... Mr. Tom Feynon.

Humorosity and Pleturesqueness, Mr. Alton Packard. March, "From the Ameer" ... Baver's Orchestra.

The entertainment to be followed by informal social. Music furnished by Bauer's orchestra. BALL OF THE PRESSMEN.

Their First Annual Ball in Snover's

Hall Last Night. The first annual ball of the Feeders' Helpers' and Job Pressmen's union was given last night at Snover's hall on Penn avenue. It proved even a greater success than had been hoped for, fully seventy-five couples being present. The following had charge of the affair and were responsible for its

Master of Cerementes-William T. Pur-

Assistant Master of Ceremonies-John Dawson. Conductor of Dances-A. J. Langan Floor Committee-Thomas Conningham, Harry Koch. Philip Fischer. Peter Young, Edward Gibbons, Michael Cava-

Reception Committee - Thomas Cunningham, Thomas Nealon, William Albricht, M. Cavanagh, Joseph Dufty, James McKenna, Steve Thornton, Philip Fischer, Joseph Waench, John R. Fischer, Joseph Wuene Thomas, Harry Richards.

Committee of Arrangements-Arthur Lang, William Weber, M. J. Swift, Jacob Kiser, Arlington Leonard. OLD FOLKES CONCERT.

It Will Be Given at Penn Avenue Baptist Church Tonight.

The Penn Avenue Baptist choir will give an enterpolament of choice much agled with Somme of ve lest harmful of ye worldlie tunes," this evening, at the Penn Avenue church. The reputation of the choir for superfor music is well established and the announcement that they will give an evening's entertainment should assure them of a large audience. In addition to the attractive contumes of "ye olden time" and the merry songs of the lonago, Professor Haydn Evans has intro duced in the programme some patrioti numbers which will always be popula-Miss Imorene Chandler, of Philadelphia, a reader of extended reputation, will give choice recitations. She has delighted the great sudiences in the being for the musical fund of the Mine Fire Under Control. Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 29.—The officials at the Kehley Run colliery, Shenandoah, are confident that the flames in the mine are now under control and that the streams of water now being played on the urning coal in the chute in the gangway will be effective by some time tonight popular lecture and entertainment courses in Philadelphia and other large ities. Cards of admission are twenty-five cents, the proceeds of the concert

AMUSEMENTS.

YCEUM THEATRE

BURGUNDER & REIS. Lessess. H. R. LONG, Manager, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 30. Dec. 1 Special Thanksgiving Matinee Thursday.

28th annual tour of the legitimate

Irish comedian.

Mr. Joseph Murphy

"THE KERRY GOW"

"SHAUN RHUE."

Friday night, Prices-Matinee, 75c., 50c., 25c. Even-ng, $1.00, 75c., 50c., 25c. Monday, Dec. 4.

Return ergagement, New York's Great Big Hit. Alice E. Ives and Jerome H. Eddy's Picturesque New England Play.

THE VILLAGE POSTMASTER

Mr. Archie Boyd

in the title role, Seth Huggins, "The Village Postmaster." Management of J. Wesley Rosenquest. "Another Old Homestead."—N. Y. World. "A Play like Blue Jeans,"—N. V. Herald. Prices-$1.00, 75, 50, 25.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC,

BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager. Balance of the week, Matinees every lay. America's greatest repertoire or-ganization (Edna) THE SPOONERS (Cecil)

Special engagement, week of Dec. 4. Matinees Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Mr. Thomas E. Shea

Supported by a Clever Company in topertoire. Opening with "Man O' Wars

Repertoire. Opening with "Man O' Wars Man." Evening Prices, 10, 29, 30 and a few choice sents at 10c. Matinee Prices, 10 and 20c.; no higher. Matinees

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 27, 28 and 29. Phil. Sheridan's City Sports

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30-Dec. 1 and 2. SPORT! WIDOWS BG EXTRA AGANZA CO.

35-PEOPLE-35.

New York Announcement.

is the subject of this announcement. The term stands for everything that is reliable and fashionable in Furniture, in both the simple and ornate lines, whether wanted for town or country homes. Two other important features are the moderate prices at which the goods are marked, and their unequalled assortments.

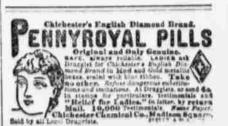

Dining-R om Furniture in all finishes of An ique, Be gian, Flemish and Golden, with Tables, Dining Chairs, China Closets and Side Tables to match. Bedroom Furniture in all the various woods and finish s, including special lines for country homes. Brass Be isteads mover 70 pa terms from $15.00 upward. Enamelea from Bedsteads from $4,50 up. Latest designs in Parlor Furniture, Library Furni ure, Hall Furniture, Venetian Carved Furniture. Couches, Seitees, Ersy Chairs, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Dre-sin: Tab'es, Chaval Glasses, Writing Desks, etc., etc., all in unequalled assortments, and all prices.

Send for Hustrated Handbook, "Our American omes and How to Furnish Them." R. J. Horner & Co., Furniture Makers and Importers, 61-65 W. 23d St., New York

(Adjoining Eden Muses.)

TRIBUNE WANT ADS. BRING OUICK RETURNS.