

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

FIFTEENTH WARD CANDIDATES HELD ANOTHER MEETING.

Attempt to Balk the Recommendations of the Vigilance Committee. Marriage of Fred Cartright and Miss Margaret Thomas—George Russell Booped—Funeral of Mrs. John K. Davis. Missionary Meeting This Evening—Weekly School Deposits—Other Events.

The candidates for select council, alderman and the various board offices in the Fifteenth ward held another meeting last evening in Alderman Moses' office on South Main avenue. In addition to the candidates already named there were present a large number of voters who are bent on preventing the adoption of the vigilance committee recommendations relative to the date for holding the caucus and the rules governing the same.

Candidates Oliver, Jones and Moses want the names printed on a flag ticket, while Messrs. Fellows, Morgan and Williams want a single ballot distributed among the voters. The upshot of the difficulty will probably result in another meeting next week.

All candidates have been requested to register by Saturday next with Secretary Daniel Harris, and the following have already registered: For select council—Joseph Oliver, Horatio T. Fellows, David M. Jones, Edward Williams. For alderman—Daniel Moses, Thomas T. Morgan. For register—First district, David S. James; second district, Morgan Ewan.

WEDDING THIS MORNING.
