but now of Forest City, was tried before Judge Edwards on a charge of being the father of the child of Bessia

McHugh. She is the young woman

Bessle McHugh had caused her child's death by giving him laudanum. This proved to be entirely untrue, the child having died from natural causes. Proeedings have been commenced against

Mrs. Calrns because she circulated the

MISS M'HUGH'S STORY.

Miss McHugh went on the stand esterday and swere that she became equainted with Cairns in the fait of present year her child was born. It downfail. He positively denied his re-

Water Company Takes Exceptions.

Hon, L. A. Watres, solicitor for the filed exceptions yesterday to Judge selling the company's vacant lands for

The company, it will be remembered,

ment for the defendants,

pany and not for the court, ownership.

E. G. Thomas.

to hold these lands, and that being wild lands they would not be more useful to the company under the company's ownership than under any other

Court further erred, it is held, in not finding that if the lands were owned the water that would be shed from them would be in danger of contamina-in the finding that the company is limited, in this regard, to lands which immediately threaten contamination and that it must confine itself to special

Two Referees Make Report.

for the plaintiff, and A. J. Colborn, jr.

for the defendant, Referee R. J. Bourks

Prothonotary Copeland to enter judgment in the sum of $30 for the plaintiff in the case of F. E. Everett against

In the case of Thomas Connors however, only three months. When he Later. Connors came around, accepted

"in full, to date." Despite this, he at-

Forfeited Recognizances.

Praecipes for writs were filed yesterday in the following cases where de-ordered forfelted: Patrick McGinty, ac-tery, A. S. Pace, surety; Katie Breen accused of larceny and receiving, P. S.

White, surety; Frank Domensky, accused of aggravated assault and battery, Mathias Bugno and Mathias Sufka, sureties; Aleck Mayfiske, accused of aggravated assault and battery, sureties; John Maiyanskie, accused of aggravated assault and battery, Mathias Eugno and Mathias Sufka, sur-

In none of the cases does the ball ex-

Marriage Licenses.

.... Ransom

Renjamin Watkins.. 2002 Washburn st.

Millie James.......1308 Academy street

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.

Slight Blaze in the Philadelphia

Cloak and Suit House.

ner of Lackawanna and Washington

a match on some papers.

The Phoenix Chemical company,

AN ARTISTIC DISPLAY.

dows.

ery, gold plated picture frames, etc.

A Card.

Finest wines and cigars at Lane's,

For morbid conditions, take Beech-

320 Spruce street

About 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning

eties.

ceed $300.

Mathias Bugna and Mathias Sufka, cused of desertion, John McGinty, sur-which they had disputed.

quit, a dispute arose about the wages

By agreement of counsel, T. P. Duffy emergencies as they may arise.

damaging story.

died Nov. 27.

journing hour.

PERRY BROS.

MUSIC AND MUSICAL GOODS

to the $1,500 VCCALION CHURCH OR-GAN. This is better than ANYTHING, less than the best and highest priced organ. KNABE

Planes, both grand and upright are the finest you can buy. VOSE & SONS are a high grade instrument sold at the least possible price. Also the BRIGGS.

is a good, well built plane at a rea-THE ANGELUS is an instrument that will play on any plane, not only the popular music of the day, but music from the great Masters, thereby enabling us to ap-CARPENTER ORGANS, WILCOX & WHITE PRICUMATIC SYMPHONY OR-GANS, PHONOGRAPHS, GRAPHO-PHONES AND SUPPLIES.

Ice Cream.

25° Per Quart.

LACKAWANNA DAIRY CO

728-327 Adams Avenue.

Scranton Transfer Co., Always Reliable.

kinds of transfer work promptly and satisfactorily done. Office 109 Lackawanna Ave. Office Phone 525. Barn Phone 6982

HUNTINGTON'S BAKERY. CLEAM, ICES AND FROZEN FRUITS

420 Spruce Street. Masonic Temple.

C. S. SNYDER.

The Only Dentist

In the City Who is a Graduate in 420-422 SPRUCE STREET.

DR. H. B. WARE, SPECIALIST

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Office Hours-9 a. m. to 12.30 p. m.; 2 to 4 Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice.

OLD FORGE CASE.-The Old Forge berough case is to be argued in the su-perior court next week, in Philodelphia, KERAMIC CLUB,-The Keramic club of Scranton will have an exhibition next week in the Carter building on Adams avenue, beginning Tuesday. A LIFE MEMBERSHIP.-The managers of the Florence Crittenton Home wish to express their thanks for the receipt of $50 from Mrs. J. L. Crawford, as a life-membership.

TEACHERS' PAY DAY .- The school teachers of the city will probably be paid today. President Jayne, of the school board, was out of town yesterday, but is expected back in time today to gign the NEWELL FUNERAL.—The funeral services of Mrs A. S. Newell, wife of Rev. J. U. Newell, will occur at the realdence, Yatesville, Pa., at II o'clock Satur-day. Interment at Ferest Hill, leaving Delaware and Hudson station at Green Ridge, at 1,27 p. m.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE.-The fiftysecond analyersary of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will be celebrated Sunday night in the Penn Avenue Baptist church, under the auspices of Camp 232, The members of that camp are request-ed to meet in the lodge rooms on Wyoming avenue, at 6.30 Sunday evening,

PAY DAYS.-The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company paid its Mrs. Alfred Handemployes yesterday at the Cayoga and Mrs. R. B. Williams ... Brisbin mines. Today the men at the machine and car shops will receive their tay. The Delaware and Hudson com-pany paid yesterday at Baltimore slope. A Priend Conningham shaft, Wilkes-Barre, FUNERAL OF MRS. CARLING.-The sfunctal of Mrs. A. A. Carting was held son Thursday afternoon from the family residence on Spruce street, Rev. McLeod, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. C. gan, officiated at the services, and interment was made in the Forest Hill cometery. Her four grandsons, W. C. Jay, J. S. Jay, B. K. Cerling and J. L. Carling. acted as pallbearers.

OFFICERS CHOSEN .- At a regular meeting of Lieutenant E. S. Griffin Wo-mans' Relief corps, No. 10, Thursday night, the following officers were elected Mrs Lizzie Warner; senior vice, Mrs. '4.

* "THE MODEL,"

VIENNA CAFE AND RESTAURANT, E. MOSES, PROP. 221-223 WASH-INGTON AVENUE, OPP. COURT

Dinner Table d'Hote. Breakfast, uncheon and Supper a la carte. Oysters served in any style. All table delicacies of the season served in case or delivered to famttles in any quantity desired. Fine Catering a specialty, Fresh invoice of fancy groceries and smoked goods, Salmon, Stur-

Balley; junior vice, Mrs. Anna Strong; treacurer, Miss Margaret Bristley; chaplain, Mrs. Margaret Post; conductress. Mrs. Etta L. Pearce; guard, Mrs. Arm-

FIRE ALARM PUT IN .- A fire planm has now been put in the Centre street police station, by Calef of the Fire De-partment Walker, which is similar to those in use at all the hose company houses. As seen as an alarm is sent in from any box, the fire alarm gives the number and so saves a good deal of delay in listening for the gangs. It is a MASONIC VETERANS. The Masonic Veterans' association of Northeastern Pennsylvania held their nanual meeting in Masonic hall. Thursday evening, and elected the following officers for the ch-siling year: President, Juson H. Wells; first vice president, Frank Leuther; secpresident, Presion Robbit third vice president, John Penman; treas eer, Thomas E Lydden; secretary, Ed. Eack. A banquet followed the elec-

FINES IMPOSED -- Late Thursday light three wemen were seen on Lackavanua avonus by Patrolmen Parry and Day, acting in a very old and suspicious manner. They were dencing, shouting and altogether conducting themselves in very disorderly way. They were taken vesterday morning had their hearing before Mayer Moir. One of the women, Nellie Sheldon, was fixed $10, and the other two, Anna Stanton and Anna Mahon, $5 noicce.

DID NOT MEET.-The sinking fund commission, which comprises the mayor, elty treasurer and city controller, did not meet yesterday morning to consider the purchase of the park improvement bands for the sinking fund, the controller being the only member who was on hand. An Tort will be made to have the meeting this morning as the park commissioners are very anxious to have the bonds brought up at once that the contemplated improvements may be begun.

WHIST TOURNAMENT.

Evening Winners Were Miss Dean and Mr. Peck, of Wilkes-Barre.

The winners in the evening session of the whist tournament at the rooms of the Scranton Bicycle club Thursday were Miss Dean and J. L. Peck, of Wilkes-Barre. In the afternoon a tie was made by two couples, H. C. Butler and John H. Reese, of Carbondale, and J. W. Dusenberry and L. G. LaBar, each couple making the score of - 312. Twenty-four couples played in the evening and the following plus scores were made: Miss Dean, Mr. Peck Miss Dale, Mr. Heeley - - 312 Hills and Davis (Jermyn) - - 312 Mr. and Mrs. Tunstall Dr. and Mrs. Matten (W's-Barre). Butler and Reese (Carbondaic) . . . Hintermister and Dusenbury --Dule and Broadbent

The afternoon plus scores were as Butler and Reese (Carbondale) ... - - 35; LaPlar and Dusenbury -- 35 Hooley and Pelton -- 22

CAUSE OF M'CAWLEY'S DEATH.

Had a Blood Clot on the Brain and a Dislocated Spinal Column.

Coroner J. J. Roberts went to Throop examination of the remains of James Troop early Thursday morning, The Carbondale township. doctor found an abrasion of the skin dislocation of the spinal column. Either of these would have been sufficient to cause death, An examination of the internal organs of the man showed that he had church. been in poor health for some time and that he had indulged freely in intoxicants. There is a possibility that McCawley may have been murdered, but the more likely theory is that he sustained way home from the hotel where he had been until 11 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday night.

The coroner will make a thorough investigation and endeavor to get the truth of the matter.

Catholic prayer books. Reynolds Bros.

HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS. Money Sent to the Managers of the Institution Acknowledged. The Home for the Friendless acknowledges with deepest gratitude eash gifts as follows:

Mrs. William Connell Second Presbyterian Thanksgiving services 60.28 Green Ridge union Thanksgiving services Elm Park services Welsh Congregational, Providence, Providence services J. L. Kemmerer A Friend ... Miss Richmond Mrs. W. D. Krunedy Mrs. R. J. Hennell . . . Mr. T. G. Wolfe Mrs. H. M. Boles

Latest card engraving, Reynolds Bros.

A Gift to Give.

Mrs. J. R. Cohen

It is often difficult to decide what to get your friends for holiday gifts. Here is a suggestion: "Good morning, Jennie, I have brought you a nice present," said Gertrude, as she handed her friend a nest-ly wrapped package. The pale, weary looking sirl, who was slowly recovering from severe illness, opened the bundle and held up a large bottle of clear, rich medicine. 'Hood's Sarsaparilla!" she exclaimed. I have been reading about it today and wished I had a bottle."

On New Year's Day Jennie was ablto be out on the street, and to her friends who remarked how well she was looking she simply said, "Hood's Sarsaparilla," and every one of them it was this great medicine that had given back her health.

Fancy Stationery. Reynolds Bron.

Smoke the "Hotel Jermyn" cigar, 10c. Sterling letter seals. Reynolds Bros.

FOUR DEFENDANTS ARE FOUND GUILTY

VERDICT OF THE JURY IN THE MAYFIELD BURGLARY CASE.

Recommendation of Mercy Made in the Case of Young Gaughan, the Boy Burglar Who Was Shot Through the Shoulder-Wul Be Called for Sentence Today-Lyons Jury Out at Adjournment-Horse Dealer Waldron and His Clerk Returned Not Guilty-Other Matters.

At the opening of court yesterday morning the jury in the Mayfield burglary case came into court with a verdict of guilty of statutory burglary and a recommendation of mercy in the case of Gaughan, the youngest of the quartette. The lad's pale, boyish face and the indication of his good family as was conveyed in the appearance of his brother who sat with him during the trial are responsible for the jury's recommendation, it is believed. Judge Edwards did not intimate in any way that he would observe the recommendation.

They will be called up for sentence oday. As previously stated they cannot be imprisoned for more than about three and one-half years, owing to the fact that the maximum penalty is four years, and that the terms must be fixed so that they shall not expire in the

The embezlement case against Thos. Lyons, a former delivery man for the Scranton Dairy company, was given to the jury at noon. No verdlet had been reached at adjourning time.

COMMON SCOLD.

Elizabeth Grady, of Parker street, was found guilty of being a common scold and was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days. Her neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Mc-Cuire, was prosecutrix.

P. G. Waldron and Girt Young were returned not guilty of assault and battery, and the prosecutors, Jacob Schloss and I. Firstine, were directed to pay the costs. John Sweeney, an Olyphant boy, charged with mailcious mischief by Mrs. Jane Walsh, was declared not guilty, and the costs were placed on the prosecutrix. She alleged he threw stones at her house but could not prove It to the satisfaction of the jury.

The case of Harriet J. Davis against George W. Reese, of the West Side, was reported yesterday to have been settled by the payment of $500, and today the district attorney will likely move for a not-pros.

Constable Joseph Moore, of the Twentleih ward, falled to appear to prosecute, Ernest Cenoro and A. L. Dunleavy, whom he had returned for selling liquor without license. The case were dismissed at the cost of the

The failure of Jennie McHugh to appear to presecute Stephen Wuwan on the charge she had brought against was yesterday authorized to direct him resulted in the defendant being acquitted. The costs were placed on the county. CARDEN NOT GUILTY.

Christ Taylor failed to prove his against M, A, Cadden, Referee R, J. charge of Blegal fishing against Mar- Murray yesterday filed a report, in sterday and made a post-mortem tin Carden and a verdict of not guilty which he directs that the plaintiff has attended for three terms. March 17, was rendered. McCawley, aged 49 years, who was on the county. Carden was accused of on a claim for wages. Connors was and read law under J. H. Alexander found dead on the public highway in fishing out of season in No. 4 dam in apprenticed to Cadden to learn the car-

A jury was out at adjourning time on the top of the head and a blood on the case of the commonwealth clot on the brain. There was also a against George Pidage, charged by Michael Massage with assault and battery. Massage says that Pidage assaulted him in a South Side saloon after a discussion over the debt of their

Another jury was out on the case of Elchard Burns and James Brown, charged by Louis Renda with chicken stealing. It was alleged against the defendants that they drove a brood of the prosecutor's young chickens into his injuries from a fall while on his the woods and were in the act of making away with six of them when they were surprised by the owner and compelled to disgorge. The defense was a complete denial. Judge Biddle, in charging the jury, said that one side or the other was committing wilful perjury.

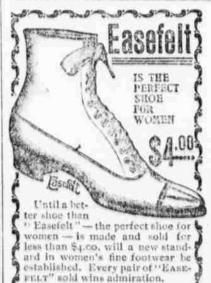

Nicolas Pace, of Dunmore, plead guilty of assault and battery on Celia Burnetti and was fined $5 and costs. Augusta Gartle was called to answer charge of attempted criminal assault n Felicito Carlalmo, but the prosecutrix failed to appear and a verdict of not guilty was taken. The costs were placed on the prosecutrix. Caplases were issued for Lorezno and John Matuchy who failed to appear to defend themselves against a charge of assault and battery preferred by Samuel Devirt.

REGA ON TRIAL.

Joseph Rega, of Carbondale, was tried before Judge Edwards on u charge of buying stolen brass from William Moffatt, Harry Bunnell and Harry Arnold, all boys. The boys went on the stand and testified that they stole the brass from the Dolaware and Hudson shops at Carbondale and sold it to Hega. Mrs. 50 00 Bloomer, mother of the Moffatt boy, was the presenceic.

avenues. Rega denied having purchased any which was first on the scene, extinbrass from the boys and put witnesses on the stand to swear that he was in done, no stock at all being injured Scranton on the day it was alleged he bought the brass. The jury was out at adjournment hour.

Lewis, Reilly & Davies,

114-116 Wyoming Ave.

Robert Calrns, formerly of Winton, EX-JUDGE WARD AT DEATH'S DOOR

who was brought prominently before AT 2 O'CLOCK A. M. HIS LIFE the public in the latter part of November through the mother of Robert WAS EBBING AWAY. Calrns notifying Coroner Roberts that

> From His Bedside Came the News That His Death Was Expected at Any Moment-He Was the Oldest Member of the Lackawanna Bar. He Was Judge of the Mayor's Court of This City Until That Office Was Abolished by the Legis-

1897 and that he promised to marry her. Their relations continued until September, 1888, and on May 12 of the Judge W. G. Ward, the oldest member of the Lackawanna bar, was in an unconscious condition at 2 o'clock Cairns tried to show that the young this morning, and his death was ex oman did not bear a good reputation pected at any moment. The venerable and that he was not responsible for her jurist has been suffering from a general breaking down in health and has lations with her had been in any way been confined to his home on North mproper. The jury was out at ad-Sumner avenue for the past two months

At different times he has rallied somewhat, but owing to his advanced age the chances for his recovery dur-Spring Brook Water company and the ing that time have been extremely Spring Brook Water Supply company, doubtful. His physicians and nurses have been constantly in attendance, Archbald's findings in the case brought together with his brother, Hon. Z. A. the water company to restrain Ward, of Paterson, N. J.; George S. County Treasurer M. J. Kelly and the Horn, his law partner, and Douglasa officers of Spring Brook township from H. Ward his son.

The judge larged into unconscious. ness late yesterday afternoon and continued to sink gradually from that refused to pay local taxes on the land in question, alleging that it was sub-SKETCH OF JUDGE WARD.

ject only to state taxes, being part of Hon, Walsingham G, Ward was one its capital stock, because it was necessary and indispensible to the purposes of the best known men in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties. He was a man for which the company was organizedto supply pure water to the public.

Judge Archbald declined to see the of energy and honor, who, in the duties both of private and public life, has ever been true and loyal. He was the matter in this light and gave judgoldest attorney at the Luzerne and Lackawanna county bars. It was a The company takes nine exceptions to the judge's finding, the principal one matter of pride with him that his fortune was of his own making; his being that the extent of the land necessary and indispensable to the purhands and brain were buslly employed poses of the company is for the comin its upbuilding, as he had no other capital when he started out in the world for himself. Scranton found in It is alleged court erred in not finding that all the land above the intake dam him a good citizen, whose public spirit was necessary to the purposes of the prompted him to aid in every movecompany, and in finding that it was ment for the welfare of the commununnecessary for the plaintiff company

Judge Ward was born in Dover Dutchess county, N. Y., on Oct. 7, 1819. His father, John, who was a son of Ichabod Ward, a native of Massachusetts, a farmer by occupation, and an early settler of Duchess county, was born there and continued to make it by others than the company, they were his home until 1831, when he brought liable to clearance and cultivation, and his family to Pennsylvania and settled In Tunkhannock, Wyoming county, After residing on a farm there for a tion. The exceptions also allege error time, he came to Scranton, and cultivated a farm in Providence township (now Scranton), where he died in 1847. His wife, Cynthia Sickler, was born in Buckman, Dutchess county, N. Y.: her father, Peter Sickler, a native of the same place, was the son of a German, who emigrated to this country and settled on the Hudson.

HIS EARLY LIFE.

The parental family consisted of nine children, four of whom are living, one son, Z. M., being a prominent attorney of Paterson, N. J. Judge Ward, who was the eldest of the family, was reared on a farm and received an academic education in Mannington academy, Susquehanna county, which he The costs were placed | no cause for action. The suit was based | 1843, he came to Provi and Judge Danay. In 1850 he was adpenter's trade. He remained with him, mitted to the bar at Wilkes-Barre, and at once began to practice in Scranton. opening an office on Lackawanna avenue, where he has since remained, the check for $20,88 which had at first having occupied the same office since been proffered him and signed a receipt | 1875.

Judge Ward was at one time assoclased with Judge Gunster, formerly his student, also with Judge Edwards, who studied under him, and is now in partnership with George S. Horn, also a student of the venerable judge in earlier days. He was an attorney fendants failed to appear and bail was for defendants in about eighty homicide cases, and for a long time had the principal criminal practice here ety; Annie Benewitz, assault and bat- and in Luzerne county, but of late years he found it necessary to lighten his labors. He was also very successful in civil cases. In 1870 he was elected judge of the mayor's courts of the city of Scranton, and including Dunmore, Providence and Hyde Park, and the townships of Jefferson, Roar ing Brook and Madison and Covington townships. He served until the new constitution went into effect in 1875, when he resigned. MARRIED IN 1848.

In New York state in 1848, Mr. Ward married Miss Maria White, who died, leaving no children. He was a second time married in North Adams, Mass in 1874, his wife being Miss Louisa Hurlbert, and they were the parents of Douglas H. Ward, who was associated with his father in the practice

In former days Mr. Ward was a Whig and before the war he was a campaign orator for Henry Clay. From 1855 until the Rebellion he was a Democrat, but since then he has adfire started in the basement of the vocated Republican principles. In re-Philadelphia Cloak and Suit House at ligious belief he was a Presbyterian 421 Lackawanna avenue. An alarm and for years held the office of elder was turned in from Box 26, at the corin his church.

OBITUARY

Ex-Alderman Isaac L. Post, for over-wenty years alderman of the Sevenguished the fire before any harm was teenth ward, died carly yesterday morning at the home of his son, Isaac Post The cause of the fire is not known, but it is supposed that after lighting the ir, on Clay avenue. The deceased was been in Montrose in 1818 and came to this city in 1865, after serving through gas one of the boys in the store threw the Civil war, as chief clerk of the pay-master's department of the Army of the Cumberland. He engaged shortly after in the insurance business and continued In Reynolds Brothers Show Winin this until elected abdorman of the Seventeenth ward. While in this position handsome display of holiday he made a splendld reputation for him-self as a fair and impartial magistrate. novelties and stationery is shown in the display windows of Reynolds The deceased was a member of the Penn Brothers, Hotel Jermyn building, Dainty calendars, ink stands, stationower, his wife having died four years ago. He is survived by one son, Isaac Post, cashier of the First National are there in great abundance. A more bank. The funeral will be held from the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. beautiful collection of these goods has never been displayed in this city.  Services will be conducted by Rev. R F. Y. Pierce, assisted by Rev. Dr. Mc

We, the undersigned, de hereby agree to refund the maney on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your crught or cold. We also quarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory of money retunded:
Matthews Bros. C. E. Chittenden, Phelps' Pharmacy. D. W. Humphrey McGarrah & Thomas G. Pichel.
H. C. Sanderson. J. P. Donahoc.
N. M. Eiche. Brown's Pharmacy. Gold pens and pencils. Reynolds Bros. TO STARVE IS A FALLACY.-The lictum to stop eating because you have indigestion has long since been exploded. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets intro duced a new era in the treatment of Stomach Troubles. It has proved that one may eat his fill of anything and verything he relishes, and one tablet sken after the meal will aid the stomach in doing its work, and preclude the pos-sibility of any distress. Pleasant and safe. 18 in a box, 10 cents. Matthews Bros. and W. T. Clark .- 65.

There Is Nothing

That proclaims good management more than a dainty, neatly laid table, and, perhaps there is nothing that adds so much attractiveness as pretty pieces of cut glass and odd pieces of decorated China. There is nothing that makes a more lasting or acceptable Christmas gift. Don't you think this would be a good time to make your selections and have us lay them away for you as we have a store full of such suggestions.

China Wall.

Millar & Peck, "Welk in and loss Ave, THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O

Recognized Headquarters for Reliable Furs, Stylish Tailored Gowns, Handsome Capes.

Everything in Ladies' Outer Garments, Misses' and Children's Coats and Capes, Ladies' Silk Waists in new shades and effects.

F. L. Crane, Lacka. Ave

Raw Furs Bought. Furs Repaired.

文本的中华中的中华中的中华中部中华中华中部中华中部中部市 See Big Window

By the kind permission of a well-known local artist we are enabled to display for a short time only, a superb collection of exquisite Hand Painted Panels. Prices range from $25.00 to $75.00. To miss this exhibition is to deny one's self a great treat.

A Flyer....

For the balance of the week-500 Indian Seats, in Mahogany and Oak. Regular price, $1.50; during this sale $1.00.

East Mountain Lithia

Sold by All First-Class Druggists. Highly Recommended by Physicians.

FAMILY ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

JOSEPH ROSS, AGENT, Office 902 West Lackawanna Avenue, - - - - Scranton, Pa. TELEPHONE 4732.

Everett's

Horses and carriages are superior to those of any other livery in the city.

If you should desire to go for a drive during this delightful period of weather, call telephone 704, and Everett will send you a first-class outfit.

EVERETT'S LIVERY, 326 DIX COURT. (REAR CITY HALL).

THIS WEEK'S PRICES IN WATCHES. DIAMONDS.

The following prices, which we are selling goods for this week, are the lowest that we have ever offered. The goods are the finest grade and cannot help but please everyone Call and see them.

Fine Diamond Rings at $5.00, worth Solid Gold Band Rings at $1.25, worth Solid Gold Band Rings at $1.90, worth Gold Fifted Cuff Buttons, 50c., worth Cuff Buttons, previous prices $1.99, now

Gent's Solid Silver Watch, Eigin movement, $1.50. Ladies' Sterling Sliver Watches, worth $5.50, now $3.75. Gent's Nickel Watches, S. W., price 33.50, now $1.75. Rogers Bros. Spoons, warranted, 50c. Rogers Bros. Butter Knives, Sugar Spoons, Pickie Forks, 37c., previous price

Ladies' Solid Gold Watch, Elgin movement. $14.50.
Laddes' Gold Filled Watches at $6.30, worth $15.00.
We also have about three hundred Ladies' Sold Silver Rings, worth 50c. and 75c., will close them at 10c. each. Special sale now going on at Davidow Bros. Attend as we are offering goods at one-fourth their original value. Extra Heavy Solid Silver Thimbles at Davidow Bros 227 Lackawanna Ava.

Horsemen

Should use the W. & B. RUBBER PAD HORSE SHOE.

AND THE HORSE WON'T SLIP" Ask your blacksmith to shoe your horse with the W. & B. Shoe.

AGENTS FOR Neverslip Removable Calks

126 and 128 Franklin Ave. The Dickson Manufacturing Co.

cranton and Wilkes Barre, Pa.

LOCOMOTIVES, STATIONARY ENGINES Boilers, Holsting and Pumping Machinery.

General Office, Scranton, Pa.