RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED TO REV. JAMES HUGHES.

Has Severed His Connection with the Bible Class of Jackson Street Church-Choir Concert and Oyster Supper-Foreign Missionary Society Meeting-St. Leo's Annual Social-Webster Literary Meeting. Supper and Bazaar-Woman in Black-Funeral Announcements.

The bible class of the Jackson Street Baptist church tendered a reception lats evening to their teacher, Rev. James Hughes, and presented him with a set of resolutions of regret at his leaving the class to devote his whole time to the Adams avenue chapel, Short speeches were made by W. J. Jenkins, B. G. Morgan, William Fowler, John Coombs, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy and Alfred Roberts. Mr. Hughes responded in a fitting manner. Following are the resolutions:

At a meeting held Dec. 8, 1890, by the Jackson Street church Bible class, the following resolutions were passed and tendered to their beleved teacher, Rev.

That having heard with regret that our genial, gifted, intellectual and beloved teacher has been called and accepted a pastorate in another part of our city, which action will necessitate his resignation as our teacher, we desire to express our thankfulness to him for his untiring Christian zeal, gentleness, patience and knowledge manifested during the time we have had the privilege of being his pupils.

We earnestly pray that the continued blessing of the Holy Spirit may attend him in his new field of labor, and that he and his people may be abundantly in magnifying the name of the Great Head of the church.

CONCERT AND SUPPER.

The concert given by the choir of the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening was an enjoyable event and attracted a large audience. Under the able direction of Prof. Lewis Davis the choir has obtained a proficiency second to none in West Scranton. The choruses by male and female voices were rendered with harmony and precision and showed excellent training.

The recitations given by Jenkin Reyonlds, Peter Lewis and Pearl Jenkins were well received and the solos by Elmer Davis, Edith Beddee, William Davis and Marcy Nichols were particularly pleasing. Instrumental selections were rendered by Misses nutcainson and Browning in an acceptable manner.

Before and after the concert the young ladies of the choir served an oyster supper in the diping room of the

WOMAN IN BLACK AGAIN.

The "Woman in Black," who terrorized the residents of Keyser Valley about a year ago, has been heard from again and is evidently up to her old tricks again. A few evenings ago, while a female resident of Cameron avenue was returning home, she was frightened by an object in the middle of the road, which appeared to be a tall woman, dressed in black garments

The Cameron avenue woman was terribly frightened and ran speedily to her home, screaming at the top of James Hughes, late of Kimberly, South | her voice, and apprised her relatives of what had happened. A diligent search was made in the vicinity of the bridge over Keyser Valley creek, where the incident occurred, but no trace of the "woman in black" could be found. Since then several parties have been "laying for her," but thus far their efforts have been unrewarded. It is safe to predict that she will receive a warm reception if caught. It has been suggested that the Keyser Valley Fire company turn their new ose on the woman.

> About a year ago a female resident of the Twenty-first ward was arrested after a difficult struggle and recognized, and when confronted with the truth of her escapades acknowledged the nightly exploits were only made for the fun derived from frightening | terment will be made, people. The vicinity where the latest scare occurred is a lonely spot and is never patroled by a policeman. The street is beyond the railroad and quite infrequented, especially at night time. It has also been learned that several young ladies were f ightened recently while returning home from a dance.

ST, LEO'S ANNUAL SOCIAL.

The thirteenth annual social of St. Leo's battalion was held last evening in St. David's hall. An exceptionally large number of young people were in attendance. Bauer's orchestra furnished the music and the hall was decorated and illuminated with arc lights for the occasion.

The affair was in charge of Master of eremonies P. B. Buckley, Assistant Master of Ceremonies James Degnol.

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Fine Entertainment Given Last Night in the Auditorium by the Pupils of No. 25 school.

One of the best entertainments ever held in this section was produced last evening in the Auditorium by the pupils of No. 25 school, with the assistance of the best talent in this part of the city. The spacious room was packed to the doors and many had to be turned away, as about 300 were unable to secure seats.

The programme was opened with a chorus, "Jack Frost," by the primary pupils of the school. About 200 little tots, each knowled " ir own place, sang with very distinct voice, to the directions of Miss Claudia Williams, Superintendent George Howell was then introduced by Professor Harry Kemmerling, Mr. Howell addressed the audience on "Books," which was thorough'y appreciated.

Misses Henwood and Jackson played plane duet, Solos by Messra, William Davies, William Evans, David Smith, Joshua Johns, John Evans and Mrs. J. H. Cousins were all rendered in the most pleasing manner. The "Little Walters" deserved much praise for the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, way they sang what they would and could do. A trio, "My Lady Sleeps," by Misses Davis, James and Smith, was highly applauded. Professor George Walkenshaw rendered a violin solo, "Ballade et Polo ais," The St. Mary's orchestra and the Young Musicians' will meet in the usual place, in the Glee club gave several selections dur-Welsh Baptist church, at which time ing the evening.
