TUNKHANNOCK INDUSTRIES.

A Woolen Mill and Canning Factory Are Assured-Other Notes. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, Dec. 12 .-- George C. Skinner, foreman of the Triton Hose company, has made the following appointments, which are to take effect the first of January Pipemen, Geo. H. McLeod, W. R. Aruts, F. B. Jen-hings, Harold D. Turn. Ed. Purton. Harry Courtright, C. 1. Agheld, and Hiram Courtright; plugmen, Arthur F. Baldwin, H. Stanley Harding; axe-men, T. S. Burson, C. H. Kennedy, Walter Tewksbury, J. Howard Hungerford. C. L. Callahan, second assist-ant foreman, will take charge of the hook and ladder truck and appoint his help, which shall not conflict with the above appointments.

The negotiations that have been going on between the owners of the bobbin factory and a company formed for the purpose of establishing a woolen dier. mill here, has resulted in a sale of the spool plant to the wooten mill company. The majority of the stock in the new concern is owned by the fol-lowing gentlemen: D. W. Stark, W. E. Kelfer, R. W. Lewis, W. C. Kittredge, and R. P. Northtop. The real estate and building of the bobbin mill belongs to W. E. Kelfer and D. W. Stark. The contract for the machinery for the woolen mill has been let, but it will be several months before the new industry will be ready for The plant will probably operation, start about the first of next July. It is the purpose of the company to stimulate the farmers in this section to grow enough raw material to supply the mill and keep it running a good part of the time on native grown wool. At the first most of the raw material will have to be shipped in. The factory will employ a hundred hands. The management will be in charge of the resident owners, but an experienced foreman will be engaged to conduct the inside workings of the mill. This is good news for our town and may be the means of inducing other concerns to locate here.

The canning factory is to be pushed along rapidly during this fine weather. Hiram Countright, the stone mason, with a corps of men is engaged in laying out the foundations beforthe ground becomes frozen. The main part of the building is fors4, with a porch extending across one side 12 feet in width, and avress the other side a portion of the distance will be a porch 16 feet wide. A driveway is being laid out around the building, se that a load of raw material is brought in and weighed on one side of the building and then moves on around to the other side to be uploaded.

Wilbur Lott of Nicholson, was visiting friends in town yesterday. Register and Recorder W. U. Shaw spent yesterday in Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Helen Lewis is home after a three weeks' trip in New York state During her absence the visited Mrs. Mary Bernard, at Syracuse: ME45 Hope Northrop, at Oxford, and Miss-Marian Metchif, at Elmira, a student of the Female college.

The Residence of Abraham Glazier, of Stroudsburg, Destroyed.

special to The Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Dec. 13.-Shortly after midnight today, fire completely gutted the residence of Abraham Glazier, on Lincoln avenue, East Stroudsburg. It is the firm bellef of Glazier and many others that the building was set on fire in revenge, as Glazier had informed on the stealing of brass from the shops, The Glaziers reside in the last house but one on Lincoln avenue. The man is a junk dealer and with his wife, who has but recently given birth to a child, occupied the downstairs front room as sleeping quarters.

Mrs. Glazier, who was awake about 12.45 a, m., saw flames and smoke com-ing out of the cellar. She awoke her husband, who saw at once that the fire had gained great headway. So fiercely did the house burn that the family, consisting of five small children, had to escape from the front door, clail in their night-clothes. They were kindly taken care of in the home of Elmer Smith and Jacob Staples, nearby, who supplied them with clothing.

In a very few minutes the firemen were on the scene, and had a stream of water going on the building. It was impossible to save anything beyond the bedroom suite in the front room.

Samuel Glazier's oldest son three a cest belonging to his father out of the window. The garment contained a packetbook, inside of which was about sixty dollars in money. This has not been found. A stock of dry goods recently purchased was also destroyed. It is popular belief that the Carl fire was started in revenge, Mrs. Glazier states that she heard a noise in the cellar a few minutes before the flames broke out. The cellar door in the year of the house was found anen the was a schell of oil arising Much sympathy is manifested for the Glaziers, who lose all their posncessions The loss is $2,0000; insurance, $1,359.

Statement Is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in Scranton who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by:

Mr. Morgan Williams, of 550 North Hyde Park avenue, employed as a miner at the Hyde Park Mines, who says: "I had for a year off and on sharp pains across my kidneys. If I stooped it hurt me so that I almost yelled from pain, and when I went to straighten the sharp pains in my back were very severe. I mentioned my condition to a friend, who advised me to use Dean's Kidney Fills, saying that they were the best remedy that he had heard of. I got a box at Matthews Bros.' drug store and commenced to use them. Gradually the pain began to leave and when I had finished the box it had left entirely."

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review,

New York, Dec. 13 .- The market yielded to demoralization during the latter part of the day and stocks were thrown over wholesale on the down grade. Prices went below the low point of Monday all around and the market closed in a highly excited condition. The few rallies that were effected were due to the hasty taking of profits by the bears, which were sufficiently attractive on the day to induce the closing out of short accounts by the professional operators, who persistently sold the market at the higher level. The market made some headway against the depression during the early dealings and at one time had very largely overcome the opening losses, which were reflections from the foreign exchanges. The weakness abroad was due to the growing seriousness of the situation of the British campaign in South Africa. London was a very heavy seller in the New York market, but its offerings seemed to be pretty well absorbed. The grangers rose notably above last night's level and sugar and Brooklyn Rapid Transit also made conspicuous progress towards recovery from the recent depression. But during the later part of the day the operators in stock shut their eyes to everything but gloomy apprehensions over the future. The violent jump in sterling exchange rates both here and at other points made it sufficiently evident that London was the real seat of trouble, and apprehension was expressed of future difficulties there. Total sales today, 1.071.600 shares. Bonds went off sharply in the late dealings, but declines were relatively small compared with those in stocks Total sales par value, $1,759,000. United States 5s advanced 14 in the bid price.

JONAS LONG'S SONS' STORE NEWS

Christmas and Prices.

Three splendid examples of our price-lowness became manifest yesterday-and all referred to holiday things.

We repeat the remarks for your benefit:

"Only $1. 10 for Ben Hur," said one lady, "why it's a dollar and a half in other stores"-and she bought it.

This from a man: "Your price on that rocking horse is $3.25, you say? Why, they wanted five dollars for the same thing where I came from"-and the horse went away with the man.

Another man-men are pretty good judges on some things-and this concerning a silver toilet "Aren't you mistaken in the price of this set?" he remarked. "I saw one just like it in another set: store marked fifteen dollars, and your price is $12-1'll take it."

And so it goes.

You'll find this a very inexpensive holiday store-and qualities faultless-no matter what you buy. If not so-your money back.

The Toy Store
