NEW TELEPHONE IN OPERATION

The new telephone exchange in the Burke building will be opened today. More than 100 subscribers have already enrolled and a considerable number is already on the connected list. The exchange, and in fact the entire system, is a model of up-to-date elec-trical equipment. Everything is the very latest and ought to work to perfection. Miss Cora Vegle will be the "Hello" girl.

COSTS THOUSANDS.

The hard freeze-up which will profit some lines of business thousands of dollars will also be a detriment of thousands to others. The traction and telephone companies, for instance, have work under way which must be continued, and when the laborers stuck their picks yesterday the earth was like flint. There is more than a foot of frost in the ground, and it is no small job to get through it. To those who have time for sport the cold is welcome. Skating on No. 4 pond yesterday was excellent.

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. It will be remembered that "Little Egypt" did the dance at the Seeley dinner that made the whole world talk. Through this dance she became famous in a night.

The famous dancer is not the only feature to be seen on this occasion. There are a number of well known vandeville artists and a large number of pretty girls with sweet faces, headed by Kitty Lenton and Virginia Seymour, who will appear in the furiously funny burlettas, "One Night in June," and "A Pachelor's Baby," making beyoud a doubt the stronges; combination of talent and beauty ever seen in Fanny Rice Coming.

It will be remembered that Fanny Rice is to appear at the Lyceum this evening in "A Wonderful Woman," her latest and greatest success. She was one of that famous all-star cast which presented "The Rivals" last spring. When the managers of that famous or ganization first approached Miss Rice as to the terms she would accept for this tour, she was obliged to name ; very low figure. As the salary list of the other stars already amounted to an enormous sum, the managers began think that they had better look about for some one who would not be quite so expensive as Miss Rice. When Mr. Joseph Jefferson heard of this, he is reported to have said:

Expense must not be considered to forming this organization. It must be an artistic success above everything. There will only be ten of us, and each oen must be the representative of his or hr line. We want Fanny Rice, and we must have her." That settled it. Miss Rice's terms were acceded to, and it is gratifying to note that her success fully justified Mr. Jefferson's high opinion of her. The critics were unanimous in pronouncing her performance a revelation.

NEW IDEA PATTERNS-Next time you're in the store, let us introduce you to the New Idea Fatterns. Been selling them now for several months and they're giving universal satisfaction. Some Few Toys Less Than Cost.

Kindly place the accent on the FEW, for there are not many of them.

Santa Claus did his work faithfully and well. But he couldn't carry them quite all. There is a half dozen wash sets, three or four express wagons, a few games and as many dolls, besides other odds and ends of trinkets, including some very handsome doll's furniture.

You can pick from them today at MUCH LESS THAN COST. They MUST be sold this week at some price or other. A small lot of picture books reach the same fate. Not over a hundred all told. 50-Cent Bric-a-Brac at 29 Cents.

We told of this lot yesterday, and the selling has been lively. The reduced price is no exaggeration-some say we were too modest in our estimate of the values. At 29 cents you may choose from any number of pretty. things in Vienna Decorated Vases, pretty Cups and Saucers, Shaving Sets, Flower Vases, and many other useful and need-

Many of them were 45 cents; most of them were 50 cents, and a few were 65 cents. ALL ARE NOW 29 CENTS.

A tableful in the basement. Coats and Suits--Much Reduced.

Though our prices on Coats and Suits were MUCH lower before the holidays than those of any other store, still greater reductions have been made, that there may be clean racks before stock-taking. Thus today you will be able to choose from the finer sorts at much less than half the original prices in many instances. A phenomenal season of Coat and Suit selling will be given new impetus during this sale. Here is a stock FAR superior to any other for many miles around, at prices LESS than the actual cost of the bare materials.

Furs, too, of many styles and sorts, for young and old.
