CARBONDALE.

POLITICS AND WATER.

A Warm Time Promised at the Polls

Over Municipal Ownership. Forces are already at work on the preliminaries of the spring election in which municipal ownership of a water plant will be the dominant note, and right here it should be said that those who favor city ownership-and they number more than 99 per cent, of the population-must be ever vigilant. The only ones opposed to the scheme are those interested in the Consolidated or some other private enterprise and the bugbear with which they will attempt to frighten the voters is this: Oh, yes, your water rates will be lower, but your taxes will be doubled. This, they say, will be the result of bonding the Now it should not be forgotten that Judge Rhone pointed out a way to acquire municipal water without issuing a dollar's worth of bonds, and he gave it as by far the best way. The interest on the plant will, according to this plan, be taken out of the water revenues and will not affect taxation

DEATH OF PATRICK DUFFY.

Patrick Duffy, of Fallbrook street, died yesterday morning. He was sixty-eight years of age. His demise was due to a paralytic stroke. He was born in Ireland and for thirty-five years lived in Carbondale, coming to this city from the place of his birth. He had always enjoyed good health with the exception of a paralytic stroke, which he had several years ago. Patrick Duffy was a man of genial disposition and was well liked. His wife died three years ago and one sister lives at Dushore, Pa. There is also one son, Patrick Duffy, who survives. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in St.

OBSEQUIES.

The funeral of Mrs. H. G. Baker was held yesterday afternoon. Rev. Charles Lee conducted the services. He had known the deceased for many years The kind words he said were the result of a personal feeling of grief. She had been a member of the First Presbyterian church. Silent tokens of esteem were many beautiful floral offerings. The pall-bearers were Frank E. Burr R. M. Shepherd, T. L. McMillan, R. D. Stuart, R. A. Jadwin and Dr. C. T. Meaker, Interment was made in Maple wood cemetery. Among those from out of town who attended the obsequies were Superintendent and Mrs. George Dowe, of Elmira, formerly of this city.

THEATRICAL.

A Wonderful Woman.

In a dramatization of one of Frank Stockton's odd concelts built around the incident of a theosophical transposition of souls, Miss Fannie Rice and company of earnest comedians at the Lyceum last evening tried hard to entertain a large audience; and by dint of familiar expedients in horseplay and broad farcical effects, including ludicrous gesticulation, frantic arm swinging and vaudeville puns, to some extent succeeded. But the vehicle of this humorous work was unmistakably inadequate. Miss Rice is deserving of a better play.

The Elroy Stock company will present "The Secret Enemy" at the Ly-Up" will be the attraction.

The Secret Enemy.

At the Gaiety.

The "Little Egypt Burlesque" company began a three days return engagement at the Galety theater yesterday afternoon and gave an entertainment that formed a pleasing contrast to the wretched performances that have recently been witnessed in the house. Aside from the only "Little Egypt," who needs no introduction, the company contains some excellent specialty artists. In the foremost rank may be mentioned Eddle Leonard, whose renditions of the "Messenger Boy" and "Rag-time Cake Walk" can scarcely be equalled on the vaudeville

Kittle Lenton sang as sweetly as ever and the "Little Ginger Girls," who are becoming rather beefy in appearance, have lost none of their ability to charm the occupants of the front w. Joe Love, Glen Emery and Bes-Marlow were successful in sustaining much of the humor through the performance and were well received. The spectators were enthusiastic during the meritorious turns and indulgent in passing without hostile demonstration many of the anti-diluvian jokes and horse-power hits that were Introduced. "Little Egypt" will be seen at the Galety for the balance of the week, afternoon and evening.
