SPEEDWAY CLUB HOUSE.

It Will Be Thrown Open on Monday and the Public Will Have an Opportunity of Inspecting It.

The speedway club house on the Elmhurst boulevard will be formally opened on Monday, when open house will be kept all day for the public's in-spection of the entire building and its furnishings. After that only the pub- light. lic cafe on the south end of the building will be accessible to the general

The remainder of the club house proper will be utilized by the stockholders, and club members, there being eighteen of the former and forty of the latter. These will be privileged to invite friends who will have the privileges of the club house. The house will be under the management of Samiel B. Cox, formerly of the Eagle hotel, Lebanon

The building is 214 feet long, 32 feet vide and three stories high. The structure sets back seventy feet on the left of the speedway going up, and there is a porch twelve feet wide in front and nother fourteen feet wide in the rear of the building. On the south end here is a wide veranda overlooking the speedway. On the first floor of the club housproper is the dining roim, reception room, lobby, billiard room, ladies' parlor, walting room and lavatory. The second floor is occupied entirely by eighteen sleeping apartments for club members. On the third floor there are nine sleeping rooms for the servants and a large room, which will be used as an observatory, having a large dormer window and affording an excellent

NOT GUILTY OF LARCENY BY BAILEE

JOSEPH LUPLUSKI DISCHARGED BY JUDGE ARCHBALD.

He Was Arrested on a Charge of Taking and Keeping a Suit of Clothes-Given a Hearing Yesterday Before Judge Archbald on a Writ of Habeas Corpus and the Case Was Disposed of as Soon as the Facts in the Case Were Developed.

Day before yesterday, Joseph Suplinski, of Dodgetown, was sent up to the county fail by Alderman Millet, of the Sixth ward, to await trial on the charge of larceny by bailee. The prisoner, through Attorney P. F. Loughran, protested to court that he had been illegally deprived of his liberty and Judge Archisald granted a writ of habeas corpus, returnable yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

A glance at the transcript was sufficient to satisfy the judge that Suplinski had been wrongfully imprisoned. The charge as set forth by the alderman was that Suplinski had been committed "for the taking and keeping of one suit of clothes." All this Suplinski did, but not in such a manner, the hearing proved, as would warrant even a less ignorant or unscrupulous man than the average back lots alderman from knowing that he had not laid himself liable to the charge of larceny

It was simply another case of atempting to use the criminal courts to force the collection of a debt. Suplinski bought a suit of clothes from Max Rosenbluth and, failing to pay for it in the stipulated time, the merchant had him arrested for stealing, and the alderman sent him to jail ir default of

A COMMON PRACTICE.

The practice is not at all uncommon, but the public does not hear of the ases in the great majority of instances because a settlement is effected and the record of the cases do not come to

Obtaining goods by false pretenses is the favorite charge upon which these thanks base a prosecution. A poor and ignorant foreigner buys groceries or clothing or some such goods of one of these shark shopkeepers. Sickness, the loss of his job, or trouble of one sort or another leaves the debtor without means to pay his bill at the end of the

The storekeeper is more than pleased at this. Had the debtor come in and paid his bill the merchant would have en necesarily satisfied with his ordinary profits, but if the opportunity of getting him into court is presented e profits and a good-sized bonus will be forthcoming.

The merchant goes to an alderen and swears out a warrant, charging false pretenses, making inormation to the effect that the deendant told him he owned property, The poor ignorant fellow is arrested, held for court under excessive ball, and as he is about to be led off to jail, a third party, generally some relative of the merchant or the alderman, offers to become his bondsman for a consid-

MUST PAY COSTS.

If the debtor can borrow money ding ring, or from some of his vided from the private part by the kitchen. The cafe is 26x32 feet and about the same amount to the alderdirectly above is a public ladies' parior, man and constable and other loungers with a large open porch adjoining on about the office in the way of "costs," he is allowed to go. The merchant, moved to compassion by the generosity of the alderman in knocking off a $1.25 from his regular fees of $18.25 or some such sum, agrees to withdraw the case, or at least to a temporary suspension until such time as he reing will be admirably provided for, a pay of the victim, which of course, is pre-requisite of the settlement-

This sort of thing is almost of daily occurrence, it is safe to say, and it will improved in the spring. The building fluence takes it in hand to put a stop ntinue to be, until some party of into it, as those who are selected for victims are always of the kind who, even if inclined to institute prosecutions, would not have the means to carry out the inclination.

LOCATING THE MONUMENT.

Site Is to Be Fixed Upon Today by the Commissioners. One of the last acts of the retiring ounty commissioners will be the selection of a site for the soldiers' and sailors' monument on court house square. A meeting is to be held today for that purpose. Surveyor Edmund A. Baril spent yesterday in making an examination of the mine workings under the square and will submit a report to the commissioners this morning. The matter of foundation will be the controlling element in the location of the nonument.

The commissioners are congratulating themselves upon the fact that they did not delay longer in making the contract for the monument, as the price of cut granite is to go upwards after the first of the year in consequence of the increase in wages of granite cutters, which goes into effect May 1, all over the United States.

PREPARING REQUEST.

Attorneys for the Contestant and Respondent in Langstaff-Kelly Election Contest at Work on Lists.

The attorneys in the Langstaff-Kelly ection contest are laboring on the briefs containing their requests for findings on the part of the commissioners. In other words, the attorneys for Mr. Langstaff and Mr. Kelly are reparing a list of names of persons they believe to have voted illegally for the office of county treasurer in November, 1897, and these lists are filed with court for the commissioners and are in effect notice to them that these otes are questioned.

The commissioners thereupon from their records examine the testimony of the person whose right to vote is questioned and report to court whether or not in their opinion the vote ought to be cast out.

Court has given the attorneys until January 20 to prepare their requests. At the time the order was made the attorneys on both sides said it would not be possible for them to complete the work by that time. If requests are not presented and the commission ers have to proceed themselves to find the illegal votes it will take at least six months for them to prepare their report and it may take considerably onger.

The outlook for the final settlement of the contest before next fall is not very bright.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED.

Then the Members of the Crystal Company Had a Banquet.

The members of the Crystal Hose company elected the following officers last evening in their rooms on Linden street: President, D. J. Newman; vice president, r. W. Roll; recording secretary, C. E. Tropp; financial secretary, Nelson Teets; treasurer, F. M. Aylesworth; foreman, D. J. Slowe; first assistant foreman, Henry Hines second assistant foreman, W. s. Gould: delegate to state convention, Frank Scholl; trustee for three years, C. R. Hineline; delegates to relief association, D. J. Newman and C. R. Hineline; pipeman, Harry Rice; assistant pipemen, Art Ridgeway, Stanley Coyne and James Tropp; property elerk, Robert Willard. After the election the members repaired to John Lohmann's, on Lackawanna avenue, where a banquet was served at the expense of the newlyelected officers. W. S. Gould acted as tonstmaster and short speeches were made by the following: Deputy Sheriff J. Ferber, William Weichel, Nelson Teets, Charles Hamilton, H. Riker, Frank Schell and Theodore Fahren-

NEW CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.

Plot Is Located on Part of the Lincoln Heights Tract.

Attorney M. F. Sando yesterday filed the charter recently granted the Stratford Cemetery association, a local corporation which is to establish and maintain a public burial place near Lincoln Heights.

The incorporators are Charles Schlager, C. D. Jones, I. F. Megargel, G. F. Reynolds and J. T. Porter and the capital stock is $50,000. The cemetery plot is part of the Lincoln Heights tract. It is located on the easterly side of Main avenue, below Landis street.

The company proposes to spend con siderable money in beautifying the plot. A feature of the cemetery will be small lots for single burials.

Henry Ward, a veteran of the Civil war, who is receiving treatment at the Lackawanna hospital at present, in person is the exact counterpart of the venerable St. Nicholas, or more com-

Not Fever. Miss Mamie Duffy, of 1707 Keyser avenue, the sister of John and Pat-rick Duffy, who died last week, was somewhat improved yesterday and Dr. J. J. Sullivan, who is attending her, hopes for her recovery.

Dr. Sullivan says she is not suffering from fever but from acute indigestion, brought on by her attendance upon her brothers during their last illness, and by the general derangement of her method of living due to the sad events that happened in the Duffy family during the last two weeks.

MEETING OF THE ARMORY TRUSTEES

CONSIDERED THE NECESSITY FOR A NEW BUILDING.

Good Deal of Work Has Been Done with a View to Getting Affairs in Such Shape That the Erection of a New Armory Building Would Be Possible—Is Not Likely to Be Erected Upon the Site of the Present Structure as the Land There Is Too High Priced.

There was a meeting of the trus-ees of the Scranton City Guard as sociation in the office of Colonel L. A. Watres yesterday morning which was presided over by Colonel H. M. Boles he president of the board of trustees At this meeting the necessity for new armory was discussed at som length and the trustees were agreed that it is essential for the welfare of the local regiment of the National Guard that a suitable building be erected at the earliest possible moment. For a long time those interested in the project of erecting a new armory have been hard at work and they are hopeful that success will crown their efforts, although they cannot as yet say definitely that it will There is a strong probability that the new armory will not be erected on the site of the present building. The land there is so valuable that it would be almost an impossibility to erect and maintain a sultable ermory building at that point without having stores in it. Many of those interested in the proposed armory are opposed to having stores in the proposed building. They say the entire building ought to be devoted to the purposes for which it is erected.

By selling the present site and se curing land on Adams or Jefferson avenues, near Myrtle street, which would be as well suited for armory purposes, it is thought that a nucleus of $40,000 or $50,000 for the fund for the erection and maintenance of the new armory could be secured.

JUDGE BUFFINGTON REVERSED. Still Another Decision in the Oak-ford-Hackley Suit.

In the case of James W. Oakford, of this city, against Mrs. Frances A. Hackley, of New York, Judge Dallas, of the United States circuit court of appeals, has reversed the finding of the lower court in favor of the plaintiff and dismissed the bill at the plaintiff's cost.

The action was brought to compel Mrs. Hackley to execute a lease for a coal tract in Winton, which she bargained to sell to Mr. Oakford, through her attorney, ex-Judge Jessup. The Dolph Coal company, it is understood, will now get the coal.

BEFORE REFERÈE MURPHY.

Testimony Heard in the Mary Barrett Trespass Case. Referee John J. Murphy took testimony yesterday afternoon in the city solicitor's office in the case of Mary Barrett, of Carbon street, against the city of Scranton, the plaintiff claiming $3,000 damage was done her property the construction of the Carbon street sewer. Contractor Anthony Mullarkey was the only witness who testified for the city, the plaintiff's side of the case having been heard before. Another hearing will be held some time next week.

BEFORE VAN WORMER.

Proceedings in Two Insolvency Cases Before Him.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy filed by Charles A. Mansfield, of this elty, was yesterday transmitted to Referee C. A. Van Wormer. His liabilities are $3.213.97 and his assets, 289. Referee Van Wormer conducted a hearing at Tunkhannock Taesday in the Abel A. Carter bankriptcy case. There was no appearance of creditors. The liabilities were $2,430. He had no assets.

NO TRACE OF M'DONNELL.

Disappeared on Christmas Day and Has Not Been Seen Since.

Special to The Scranton Tribune Pittston, Dec. 29.-Alexander McDon nell, aged 21 years, has been missing from his home in Duryea since Christmas day. The last trace that could be learyed of him was that he was in North Main street, Pittston, saloon about 10 o'clock Monday night. Since then nothing could be learned of his whereabouts. He had about $40 in his pocket when he left home, and his friends fear he has met with foul play. The missing young man is smooth-faced, has light hair and fair complexion, is 5 feet 61/2 inches in height and weighs 155 pounds. He were a black tailor-made suit of clothes, black derby hat, black shoes, high turn-down col-
