THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1899.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ARTICLES ON EXHIBITION AT ST. PATRICK'S FAIR.

Many Valuable Prizes Presented and All Will Be Disposed of-Democratic Caucuses in Eighteenth and Twenty-First wards-Two Children Die Suddenly-Temperance Rally Tomorrow Evening-Officers Elected-Mine Accident-Other Minor News Notes.

Undoubtedly the best collection of articles ever contributed to a fair in this city are now on exhibition in St. Patrick's church, where hundreds of people are nightly engaged in inspecting and taking chances on them. There is furniture of every description, including a bedroom set, sideboard, table, bookcase, writing desks, and rocking chairs; a handsome parlor heater, Keller upright piano, hand-painted placques, oil and crayon pictures, fancy work, jewelry, and hundreds of other useful and ornamental articles.

Among the various gifts presented for the fair are the following: Combination bookcase and writing desk, Thomas Kane, Fairview avenue. oak hat-rack, Richard Lonergan; oak chair, F. J. Johnson; Morris chair, Rev. D. A. Dunne; seal collarette, Mears & Hagen; table and upholstered chair, Protheroe & Co.; sideboard, Clarke Bros.; parlor heater, J. B. Doyle & Co.; set of polishing irons, P. McAndrew, 920 West Lackawanna avenue: handpainted fire screen, Miss B. Barrett, Pittston; silk crazy quilt, Mrs. P. Mc-Cann.

Hand-painted picture of the Sacred Heart, Mrs. Ella Dunne, Altoona; oll Democratic nomination for school con-painting of Rev. J. B. Whelan, Sisters troller. of the Immaculate Heart, St. Cecilia's academy; crayon picture, winter scenpainted by John Gilroy, jr., a pupil at Patrick's Parochial school: complete set of Charles Dickens' works, by a Philadelphia publising house; bedroom suite, P. F. McNamara; point lace handkerchief, valued at $30, Mrs. Susan B. Ryan, 308 North Lincoln avenue; ladies' secretary, Mrs. P. Ward.

Hand-painted placque of the Holy Face, Rev. J. Dunne, Bellevue: picture, moonlight scene, painted by Martin T. Jennings, a pupil at St. Patrick's Parochial school; chest of tea, E. G. Coursen; rocking chair, T. H. Walsh. There is also on exhibition a handsome gold watch, an amethyst rosary, mounted in gold; a gold cross, with diamond settings, and hundreds of other smaller articles.

The above list is only a partial one of the contributions to the fair, and another list will be published in a few days. The young people of the church are taking a great interest in the fair. and that in itself insures much suc-The music committee will arcess.

Uwanta

Good cough remedy, take Dufours French Tar. For Sale at

> GEORGE W. JENKINS'. 101 S. Main Avenus

A good stom-HOSTETTER ach makes nourishing food a poor stouach poisonourefuse. Hoster ter's tomach Bitters will Strengthen the Stomach and scepil from becomina wenk. For 50 STOMACH years it has been noble chief, the champion of noble chief, Herman Gunnell; sir herbealth. Try it.

range a programme, commencing with Monday evening, for every night next Augustus Bauer. week, and some of the best talent obtainable will be secured. This evening vocal and instrumental numbers will be given by several wellknown artists.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUSES.

The Democrats of the Eighteenth and Twenty-first wards will hold their caucuses this ofternoon between 4 and o'clock, and some lively voting is expected. Considerable rivalry exists between the candidates for common council in the Eighteenth, where John Moran and Thomas S. Morris oppose each other. Patrick Langan, the present school controller, is opposed by John J. Finnerty. One judge of election and two inspectors will be nominated.

In the Twenty-first ward a candidate will be nominated for select council to succeed John J. McAndrew, the seeks renomination and is opposed by next Thursday evening. Thomas Hand and Mathew Loughney. The date for the caucus in the Four teenth ward has not yet been decided upon, but in all probability will be announced next week. William Larkin and T. J. Jennings are seeking the

NEW YEAR'S EVE EVENTS. The St. Paul's Pioneer corps will hold a temperance rally in St. David's hall tomorrow evening, when several prominent speakers will deliver addresses. A musical and literary entertainment will also be provided and the public will be welcomed to the meeting.

An entertainment and smoker will be conducted in St. Leo's battalion rooms, in the same building, at which an interesting programme will be rendered.

MINE ACCIDENTS.

Edward Cann, a driver boy in the Archbald mines, was burned about the face while at work on Thursday, by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil. A fire was started in an empty powder can and the oil can was accidentally overturned and exploded. Samuel Davis, of Evans court, was njured by a fall of roof while at work in the Mt. Pleasant mines recently. His head and face were badly cut and he also sustained bodily injuries.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. The funeral of the late William D. Morris will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from his late home on Washburn street. Interment will be made in the Washburn street ceme-

The remains of Mr. and Mrs. Pat-

Cured This Year by

edy-Sample Bottle Free.

of the Golden Eagle, have elected the Thousands who have written for onfollowing officers for the ensuing term: of the free trial bottles of Dr. David Past noble chief, Herman Treager; Kennedy's Favorite Remedy have litvice erally had their lives saved by a postal card. They got the trial bottle, and it ald. Fred Kulp; moster of records, Henry Leber; clerk of exchequer, Willproved to them that Dr. David Kenneam Kalla keeper of exchequer, Frank dy's Favorite Remedy was the only real cure for diseases of the Kidneys. Hess; trustee for eighteen months, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation and the sicknesses peculiar to women They bought a large sized bottle of their druggists and it benefited or cured them (the above is not an idle statement, but the result of careful investigation).

You can do the same thing. If you are in doubt as to whether you have trouble with your Kidneys or Bladder put some of your urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment, or a milky, cloudy appear ance, if it is ropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you should lose no time in taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it can be had of all druggists at $1.00 a large bottle, or six bottles for $5.00 It is without question the surest medicine of the age to put a stop to such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, a frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, scalding burning pain in passing water, inability to hold urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whisky and beer.

Send your full name and address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation. Rondout, N. Y., and be sure to mention this paper when a trial bottle, with pamphlet of valuable medical advice, will be mailed to you absolutely free The publishers of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this liberal offer.

versity, is visiting his relatives on South Main avenue. David Williams, of Bloomsburg State Normal school, is home for the holiday vacation. Hayden Oliver, of Hampton street.

student at Bloomsburg State Normal school, is spending a few days with his parents. ance?" Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, of after the morning service.

Wilkes-Barre, returned home yesterday from a visit with relatives on North Main avenue. Miss Mattie Thompson, of Parsons, s visiting Miss Mabel Spencer, of Meridian street Thomas Richards, of Shamokin, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Davis, mas music will be repeated.

of North Garfield avenue.

NORTH SCRANION NOTES.

Watch Night Services Tomorrow Evening-News of the Churches. Y. W. C. A. Notes-Personals.

Watch night services will be oberved in the Providence Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening, beginning at 9 o'clock.

They will be of a diversified charac ter, so that everybody that attends may be interested and profited. The pastor, the Rev. William Edgar, will

J.D.WILLIAMS & BRO.

A Musical Comedy.

A RAG TIME RECEPTIO

By George Totten Smith.

All Star Cast.

OBITUARY

One of the ploncer fathers of the box period of yours has spent nearly forty

Mrs. Jorome Wade died at 5.50 a'cloc er hushend and four daughters. The uneral will be held on Tuesday morning

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

dhuly we keep "open house"

estenday afternoon at the family electr.

a resident of the borough. Six children, two sons and four curvive. They are: Anthony "" an ex-councilman of this dillek H. Haggerty, of Warh-", Misses Annie, Bluia and Huggerty, residing on East treat: Mrs. Dominick Glidea. " will be held tomorrow, son-bidd in St. Mary's Catholic hold in St. Mary's Catholic and interment will be preceding address

Henry Giess was elected representative to the grand conclave, which meets in Allentown next May, The above officers will be installed on Tuesday evening, January 2, when the council will conduct a social and smoker. P. O. S. of A. ELECT OFFICERS. Washington Camp No. 178, Patriotic Sons of America, elected the following officers at their meeting on Thursday President, Alfred Bevan; evening: vice president, J. G. Sanders: master of forms, Evan J. Jones; financial secretary, Linden V. Decker; treasurer, Alfred Twining: recording secretary, Stewart Beisecker; conductor, Jacob Sweet: inspector. George Pfeiffer; guard, David S. Reese.

where interment was made.

tery yesterday afternon.

GOLDEN EAGLE OFFICERS.

Augusta Council No. 388, Knights

William Adams;

A gold badge was presented to David S. Reese, who disposed of the largest number of tickets for the anniversary entertainment held recently. The present incumbent. Mr. McAndrew newly elected officers will be castalled

> DIED WITHOUT PHYSIC-AN. Two children died yesterday without the aid of any physician, and in consequence Coroner Roberts was notified and will investigate the death. One was Sarah, the 10-year-old child of William Yarnow, of 154 Sherman avenue, and the other a 16-year-old son of George Shields, of 1713 McDonald ave-

> The coroner will make an investigation today and ascertain the cause of death in both cases.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A memorial service will be held at the Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow evening in honor of the late Dwight L. Moody. Moody and Sankey hymns will be used for the service and special addresses will be delivered. Among the speakers will be Rev. E.

A. Boyl, Rev. D. P. Jones, and Rev. L. R. Foster. The services will begin at 7 o'clock.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

William Ames, of Price street, and William Bryant, both members of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western machinist gang, were injuged Thursday morning by being thrown from a wagon on Luzerne street. Announcement is made of the marriage of Pryce Thomas, of South Hyde Park avenue, and Miss Nettle Elias, of Washburn street, which will occur on Saturday, Jan. 6, 1900, at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Don't forget that Monday is the an-nual donation day at the West Side hospital, and all favors will be thankfully received A sweepstake shooting match will be conducted on the Diamond field at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. A missionary meeting, led by Miss rick Lynn's child were borne from the Eight Hundred Thousand ome on Luzerne street yesterday afternoon to the cathedral cemetery,

Sufferers from Kidney Trouble A young child of Mr. and Mrs. Michsel Hennigan, of Luzerne street, was burried in the Washburn street ceme-

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remmit avenue. of West Market street. xtended visit in Philadelphia.

Eureka lawn, North again avenue. 'rs of the Third ward, held Thursday John J. Kearney was renominated for select council.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Cathedral cemetery.

Last Chance for Registration of Republican Candidates Tonight.

Tomorrow's Church Services.

Tonight the committee of the Republican party of the borough will meet in the Exchange hotel and perfect arrangements for the coming election. The committee meet especially this evening for the purpose of registering all candidates desirous of running for office, as this is the last opportunity of placing names on the register. The importance of a full attendance of voters from the different wards, especially the Republican strongholds, the Sixth and Third wards, is emphasized, as under the Crawford county system the voice of the people should be known.

Cut Right in Two

tery.

That's what we've done with the

MILLINERY STOCK

All Trimmed Hats, etc., go at exactly half what we asked for them ten days ago, or we'll make up to your order anything you want on about the same terms.

Ladies' Trimmed Hats, 75c to $7.50.

Untrimmed Hats, Shakers, etc

For a fraction of former figures and the selection is still good.

Trimmings and Ornaments

At gift prices. If your taste is good and you're handy with your fingers, you may fix up your own mid-winter millinery for a mere trifle.

Marilla Mott, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3.45 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association rooms, corner of Main avenue and Scranton street. Special music. All young woten welcome. Ray Skinner, of Syracuse university, visiting Charles E. Sweet at the Simpson church parsonage. They will return together to the university after New Year's. The regular meeting of the Webster Literary and Debating society was held last evening at the home of Walter Evans, on North Hyde Park avenue. The usual business was transacted. The name of Edward Morris was proposed for membership. The literary programme consisted of a paper on "Literary Work in Our Soclety in the Coming Year." by E. Willlams, and a paper on "Christmas, 1900," by R. D. Petit.

The Baptist Young People's Union and the congregation of the First Baptist church will conduct a union service at 7.30 o'clock tomorrow evening. Rev. W. G. Watkins is expected to make an address. The students of Fisk university, known as the Jubilee singers, will give a concert in the Jackson Street Baptist church next Tuesday evening, Jan.

A crowded house ought to greet them, as they are singing for their alma mater. Admission will be twenty cents for adults and ten cents for children, giving all a good opportunity to hear these wonderful artists. Edward Ansley, of Meridian street, and Miss Matilda Thompson were married yesterday morning by Rev. S. C. Logan, D. D. The couple were unattended.

The managers and executive committee of the West Scranton branch of the Young Women's Christian association will receive on New Year's avenue and Scranton street, from 6 to 10 p. m. A musical programme will be rendered. The friends of the association are invited.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Mrs. Charles Bender, of Rebecca avenue, is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Gilman, of Johnstown.

Mrs. A. M. Dershimer, of South Main avenue, has as her guest Berton Davies, of Wilkes-Barre, who will leave on Monday for Montana.

A. F. Dershimer, of Bucknell uni-

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!

Ask your Grocer to-day to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee

The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. 1 the price of coffee. 15 cents and 25 cents per package. Sold by all grocers,

Tastes like Coffee Looks like Coffee Insist that your procergives you GRAIN-O ccept no 1 ably assisted by other pastors of this section. There will be a sermon, brief addr.ss, bright songs and an open conference. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be one feature of the services. The choir, under the leadership o

Prof. J. H. Cousins, will be present it render anthems and assist in general throughout the evening. Everybody is invited to this service.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES. Tomorrow evening the music which was rendered in the Providence Presbyterian church last Sunday morning will be repeated. Tomorrow morning at the Nerth Main avenue Baptist church the pastor, the Rev S. G. Reading, will preach on the subject: "Christian Union Real and Unreal." In the evening the theme will be, "The Unchanging One."

The regular services will be ob served in the Court Screet Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow. The Sunday school of the Memorial Baptist church has denated from its treasury a good sum of money to the building fund of the new church soon to be crected on Church avenue.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES A meeting of the executive board i called for this afterneen at 2 o'clock. A very delightful feature of the educational department of the Young Wo men's Christian association is the orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Walkenshaw, The members are increasing and expect to soon have a large orchestra. All the girls are invited to visit the rooms and hear the

The gospel meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock will be led by the secretary, Miss Musselman. All woday at the association rooms on Main men and girls are welcome.

If you care to know more of the work come to the Young Women's Christian association and the secretary will be glad to see you. "Our Young Women," the organization pa-

Kelly. per, which is full of interesting news. is now ready and you are invited to walk in and get one.

On New Year's day there will be an informal reception from 4 o'clock until 10, when the association home will be open to the general public. An interesting programme has been propared for each hour and refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to you.

SHORT ITEMS OF NEWS. G. R. Clark was pleasantly surprised last Tuesday evening, when the teachers and officers of the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church tendered him a surprise party at his home on North Main avenue.

John Pritchard, a miner in Storr shaft, had his left ankle badly injured by a fall of roof Thursday afternoon He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital in the ambulance. He is now doing as well as can be expected. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of Michael Shields, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields of McDonough avenue will take place from the home. Interment will b made in Cathedral cemetery.

Mrs. George, of Plymouth, is the guest of her sister, Miss Dora Davis, of West Market street. The funeral of Miss Catherine Haggerty will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass of re-ley's hall, on Chestnut street. The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will repeat their Christmas can-tata, "The Wise Man from the East." Monday evening in the main auditor-ium of the church. An admission fee of 4. cents will be charged, the pro-ceeds to be used to replenish the funds of the Sunday school. Jonday evening Rev. W. F. Gibbons and wife, as has been their custom for the past years, will give a recention the past years, will give a reception to the members of the Presbyterian church and congregation at the Presbyterian house. "The Manse," on Elm street.

entertainment and the first public affair held under the auspices of the newly organized Lackawanna Base Ball association will be held in Manley's hall, on Chestnut street.

X

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richards, of "hestnut street, have moved their household goods to Throop, where they will reside in the future Mr. Jacob Easterline and little sor are visiting at the home of Mrs. Dony on Clay avenue Earl Miller, of Tamaqua, Pa., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Swartz, of Electric avenue Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Haves, who have been visiting triends on Electric avenue for the past week, returned to their home in Binghamton yesterday

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Gus Pixley, Edith Kingsley, Glady Miss Julia M. Donnelly, the composed Van, Charles Roach, May Methabe, Phil of "Pretty Blue Eyed Waltz," has Michiels, Olive North, William P. and Birdie DeVaulf, J. B. Murphy, Ruth Jorcomposed an "Ave Maria" which she has dedicated to Rev. E. J. Melley, pasan, J. G. Odell, Bertha Wilsca, Richard tor of St. John's church. She will sing Jonn, Lillian Roberts. the piece Sunday morning at the 10.30 Prices-E, 25, 35 and 50 cents. o'clock mass at St. John's church, accompanied on the violin by her sister Townsend, of Jermyn, are visiting Miss

Dr. Charles S. Gelbert, veterinary Jeanette Gardner, of Green Ridgsurgeon, 520 Spruce street. Telephone, street 6904.

The Order of American Knighthood will meet this evening in Morgan's hall Century Hose company, No. 10, met and will discuss the report of the counlast night at its quarters on Pittston avenue and elected the following offity auditors on the county commissioners' accounts.

President, Emil Bonn; vice-president. S. S. Spruks: treasurer, Edwin Frable recording secretary, John A. Miller, jr. financial secretary, Robert O'Donnel! trustee, P. J. Hickey; foreman, Georg. Hufnagel: first assistant foreman Christian Storr, jr.: second assistant ugh of Dunmore and a most respect citizen who has figured in the welfare of the town during the past thirty-si years, passed away Thursday afternoo foreman, Fred Saar; pipeman, Harry at the home on East Drinker street. De ceased was 65 years of age, and of thi

GREEN RIDGE.

Miss Bowman, of Bald Mount, is vis-Iting her sister, Mrs. Horace Smith, of Monsey avenue

Miss Jean Mitchell, of Monroe avenue, gave a dance last night in honor of her friend, Miss Wade. About forty guests were present, and it was a very lelightful affair.

Miss Carrie Hitchcock will give thimble tea to her young lady friends this afternoon. on Delaware street. She is survived by her hushend and four daughters. The typeral will be held on Tagatary. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck and fam ily will spend New Years with Will-iam Peck, of West Pittston. The Green Ridge Avenue Presby terian church will have their Christmas entertainment in the lecture room this evening. Just what it will be only the committee in charge seem to know, These entertainments are always delightful surprises, and the one tonight yesterday at Tompson, Wayne county, fishing for pickerel.

Miss Patterson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Jones, of Monsey avenue, spent yesterday at Sunnyside farm, Benton where they were the guests of Mrs. Thomas Patterson.

Miss Mollie Hitchcock, of Washing- city, from 4 until 10 o'clock. The finton avenue, will give a card party to- | est musical tilent in the city has been night. secured and our friends are promised Misses Gertia Carter and Grace a delightful programme. From 4 un-

312 and 314 Lackawanna Avenue, SCRANTON, PA. AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS. LYCEUM THEATRE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager. BURGUNDER & REIS. Lessess. H. R. LONG, Manager. One Week and Daily Matinces Saturday, December 30, Matinee and THE ELROY STOCK COMPAN Emp re Amusement Co. (Incorporated) Admissions 10, 20 and 30 cents John C. Patrick, John H. Beniger, Managers, Three days commencing Monday, Jan. Matinee every day.

Present a grand revival of the world-famed beautiful American drama and ev rinsting success,

XXX

BLUE JEANS" BY JOSEPH ARTHUR.

BY JOSEPH ARTHUR. Positively the only traveling company presenting this beautiful play. See the sensational saw-mill scene. See the bar-beene. See the Rising Sun Rearers band, See the Christmas tree and Santa Claus. Mear the Blue Jeans Quartette. Note the Blue Jeans Orchestra. Prices for this engagement: Matinee, 25c., 50c.; night, St. 75c., 50c., 75c.

Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 1 and 2.

Special Matinee Monday, Agustus Fitou's Mammoth Scenic Production

The Gunner's Mate Not a War Play, A Strong Company. The Greatest of All Naval Dramas. Scenes laid in New York and on board the U.S. Cruiser New York.

Prices-Night 25, 50, 75, and $1. Matinee 25, 50 and 75.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday December 28, 29 and 30.

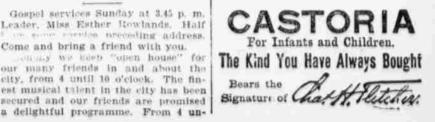

LITTLE EGYPT BIGEXTRAVAGANZAG

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday January 1, 2 and 3. MONTE CARLO GIRLS

35-People-35.

til 6 o'clock the "gym" classes will give an exhibition of class work done during the past two months.

The Lunch club holds its first meeting Tuesday, Jan. 2, at 4 o'clock. This club promises to be one of the most attractive features of the year. AU association meetings open to all girls in the city.

made in Forest Hill cemetery. Mary, the f-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Burns, of 921 Cabouse ave-nue, died on Thursday last. The funeral will be held this afterneon and inter-Mrs. L. ment will be made in Olyphant. looked forward to with an unusual

Messrs. Mason and Snowden spent degree of interest.

Gospel services Sunday at 3.45 p. m. Leader, Miss Esther Rowlands, Half Come and bring a friend with you.