CARBONDALE.

WHERE IS HUBERT BRENNAN?

Five weeks ago little Hubert Brennan, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brennan, of South Main street, left home and has not been heard from since. When last seen by some young friends he said he intended to meet a Jennings boy in Scranton. Young Brennan has dark brown hair, hazel eyes and freckles. Any information concerning him will be gladly received by his parents.

DR. OTTMAN ENTERTAINS.

Dr. R. Ottman, one of the oldest members of the medical fraternity in the valley, entertained the local medical society at the handsome new home of his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Mellen, of Lincoln avenue, last evening. There were toasts, discussions and exchanges of experiences which, with an elaborate spread, made the evening pass very enjoyably.

INSTITUTE CLOSED.

The third annual institute of the Carbondale teachers was brought to a close yesterday afternoon. "The Mission of the Primary Teacher," by Miss Louisa Connelly, and "Schools and Schoolmasters Abroad," by Dr. George W. Phillips were the subjects treated at the final session. The institute has been one of great help to the teachers and interest to many citizens who

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Dance on New Year's Night-Another Paterson Man on the Lookout-Election of Officers-Other

A country dance will be held at Enterprise hall on New Year's night under the auspices of the Twentieth Century wheelmen. The dances given by this society are always delightful affairs and that of Monday night promises to be largely attended.

The Press says a gentleman from Patterson, N. J., was in town Thursday morning looking for a place to locate a silk mill. He wants a mill erected which he would rent for a period of five or ten years, with the privilege of buying it at the expiration of that time. The mill he intends to start employs about 100 hands. The people of Jermyn have about lost patience with Paterson men, who seem to b roaming the country trying to get something for nothing.
