WATER IN POLITICS.

Municipal Ownership Will Be the Issue of Issues.

of the hottest municipal elections ever experienced by this city is promised for next month. In some wards the fight will be at the primaries as the Crawford county rules will make the nomination tantamount to an election in those wards which are overwhelmingly partisan. The issue of issues will be municipal ownership of a water plant and while ninety-nine per cent, of the voters favor the prolect they will have the influence of rich consolidated bond holders to overcome and that influence is being already exerted. water committee met last night and discussed plans of combat. The battle will be open and above board on one side at least. One of the first moves will be to ascertain the identity of these bond holders. The enemy must be located before he can be an-

THEATRICAL.

"Shannon of the Sixth."

That interesting drama, "Shannon of the Sixth," by Edward E. Kidder, will be presented at the Academy of Music three days, commencing Thursday next, W. H. Power, a young romantic actor of marked ability, will again be seen as Lieut. Larry Shannon and he promises a supporting company of unquestioned merit. The scenes of the play are laid in India and the plot turns on the theft of a sacred jewel from a Brahmin temple. During a mutiny of the Sepoys at Delhi an English officer steals a diamond of immense value, known as "The Light of Heaven," that is set in the forehead of an idol in the Temple of the Moon. Its loss and recovery offer opportunity for a number of very dramatic situations.

The scene where Dora Kimber is tied to the mouth of a cannon and rescued just as the cannon is discharged, has never been surpassed, and opportuni ties for gorgeous scenic display are Mrs. Fairchild, an agod resident of utilized in every act. The comedy features are mere pronounced than ever this season, and the supporting company, including a well trained quartet has been carefully chosen.

Rose Hill Company.

The attraction at the Galety theater for the last three days of this week is Rice & Barton's Rose Hill English Folly company. The ever-popular providers and producers of peculiar pensities will produce for the first time in this city, a sparkling frivolity of frivolities, entitled "The Naughty Soubrettes." The olio is composed of strong and pleasing features. Joe J. Sullivan, Irish comedian, and Miss Carrie Webber, a talented soubrette, present a comedy sketch which is a suddenly at his home on West Main great mirth-provoker. Berry and street on Monday morning, of heart Hughes contribute one of the best and Raymond make a big hit in their unique comedy sketch. Miss Ravoccur from Christ Episcopal church mond's singing catches the house, while Mr. Miles, as the baby in the eradle, makes the audience shrick with laughter. Willard and Raymonn,two plump and pretty girls, prove great favorites in their singing and dancing specialty. ter. Interment will be made in the Swan and Bambard create a sensation with their aerobatic comedy act.

"A Texas Steer."

Hoyt's merriest and most popular farce-comedy, "A Texas Steer," will appear at the Lyceum Saturday afterncon and evening. This play which is known as Hoyt's masterpiece, is a collection of saws and incidents supposed to hear more or less upon the extraordinary possibilities of American politics, and the development of the statesmanship of the average type. The first act is laid at the doorway of Mr. Brander's home in Texas.

Katie Putnam has been specially en-gaged for the part of "Bossy." Will Will H. Bray still appears in his original creation "The Minister to Dahomey," James R. McCann is the honest Texan 'Maverick Brander.'
