

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

VIADUCT IS THE CHIEF TOPIC OF CONVERSATION.

Full Text of the Ordinance Was Read with a Good Deal of Interest—The People Believe the Crossing Should Be Closed Entirely—Annual Meeting of the Congregation of the First Baptist Church—Funerals of James FitzGibbon and John Reed.

The proposed viaduct is one of the chief topics discussed in this part of the city, and the full text of the ordinance, as printed in 'The Tribune' yesterday, was read with great interest.

There is no doubt about the strength of the viaduct sentiment here. If there are any opponents to this greatly needed improvement they are keeping under cover.

While the necessity for some relief at the West Lackawanna avenue crossing is so patent as to need no discussion, the great mass of the people of this part of the city believe that the relief will be only partial unless the crossing is entirely closed.

A plan suggested is to have the crossing closed entirely by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Scranton Railway company building the viaduct and the city paying the damages that would accrue from the sum of $167,000, which will be set aside for the payments of the improvement if the present ordinance passes and the people approve of the project.

CHURCH BUSINESS MEETING. The annual business meeting of the First Baptist church followed the regular monthly covenant meeting last evening, which proved to be a very pleasant and profitable session.

THE RED ONION AGAIN. Thomas Cusick, of Jackson street, and Jenkin Davis, of Edwards court, became involved in an altercation at the Red Cross saloon early yesterday morning and were arrested and locked up. At the hearing before Alderman John in police court, Cusick blamed Davis for the trouble, but from the appearance of Jenkins' face it was plain to be seen that he got the worst of the argument.

FITZGIBBON FUNERAL.

The remains of the late James FitzGibbon were borne from the family residence on Tenth street yesterday morning to St. Patrick's Catholic church, where at 10 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Whelan celebrated a solemn high mass of requiem. In the sermon he spoke of the life work of deceased, which was of continued self-sacrifice and industry.

The pall-bearers were life-long friends of deceased and worked with him in his daily labors. They were Patrick Sullivan, Jacob Dien, George Brown, Thomas McNe-h-4, Patrick Grady and Patrick Boland. The funeral was in personal charge of Undertaker M. P. Wynick, and the interment was made in the cathedral cemetery.

FUNERAL OF JOHN REED.

Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at the funeral of the late John Reed yesterday. The services were held at the home on North Summit avenue, at noon, and were attended by the members of Electric City Lodge No. 177, Knights of Malta, War Council No. 45, Daughters of Poochontas; Poocon Council, Improved Order of Red Men, and the Briggs' Mine Accidental Fund. Deceased was a member of the above named organizations and was held in high esteem by the members.

The pall-bearers were selected from the lodge men in attendance, and the societies marched with the funeral cortege to the Delaware and Hudson station, where the funeral party boarded the 2:20 train for the Home City, and upon arriving there interment was made in the Carbonate cemetery.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH FAIR.

The attendance at St. Patrick's fair last evening was very encouraging to the promoters. The program furnished last evening was much enjoyed and the vocal solos by Walter Diebold, Rose Arigoni, M. T. Sullivan and Edward Walsh were much appreciated.

A large delegation from St. Paul's Pioneer corps, St. Leo's battalion, Father Mathew society, St. Brendan's council, Ladies' Auxiliary and Irish Catholic Benevolent union and the An-

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

COMPLAINT ABOUT LIGHTS ON BLAKELY STREET.

Scranton Railway Company, Which Maintains the Lights, Has Promised to Remedy the Matter—Other Improvements of a Public Nature—The Young Men's Temperance Literary and Benevolent Dramatic Society to Produce a Play in Hawley—Short Notes of a General Character.

Considerable annoyance has been caused to the residents of North Blakely street by the failure of the incandescent lamps on the street to remain lighted for any length of time. A committee, appointed by council to confer with Manager Silliman, of the Scranton Railway company, who maintain the lights, in regard to the matter, reported that hereafter the company would keep the lights in good working order. The lights have not been burning since the fifteenth of last month.

Another matter which has caused satisfaction to residents of Grove and Monroe streets is the granting of their demands by council for the placing of an additional fire hydrant at the intersection of those streets. The required hydrant will be put in position at once.

At the corner of Green Ridge street and Jefferson avenue the people of the Sixth ward are clamoring for a fire alarm box to be placed, ready for use, in case of fire. Council will undoubtedly grant their petition, which has been presented at that body.

The present system of surface sewerage still remains a menace to pedestrians, as is aptly illustrated on South Blakely street from the borough jail to Cherry street. The gutters having become filled with ice, allowed the water to spread over the sidewalks, which from an already dangerous passageway. Yesterday men were engaged in forcing a passage through the ice in the gutter, but the condition of the walks remains the same.

The Dunmore Gas and Water company has left Webster avenue, where they are laying water mains, in such a condition that complaints have been made to council that some of the residents cannot enter their homes. The street commissioner has received instructions to rectify the prevailing condition as soon as possible.

He Was a Regular.

From the Chicago Times-Herald. Blair, a regular, said to be of the Seventeenth, was shot through the groin at El Cane, July 1. Two wounded men of the Seventy-first New York fell beside him in worse shape than he. They could not move. He could a little.

A Spanish sharpshooter on their right had the range of them as they lay there, their comrades having pushed on. Although down, the three men were his target.

"Split" and one of the bullets cut a lock of hair from Blair's forehead. "Split" again, and one of the New Yorkers winced as his shoulder was cut. Blair for a time could not locate the fellow, but finally discovered him 300 yards distant up a tree. He was incautious and displayed himself in tall grass. Blair had his gun beside him, and with one shot brought him down.
