Daring Burglary Committed at an Early Hour Yesterday Morning. Revival Services at the M. E. Church-Personals.

A daring burglary was committed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glazier, on Second street, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. At the hour menioned, Mrs. Glazier was aroused from her sleep by an unusual noise and, becoming alarmed, she awoke her husband, telling him some one was walk-ing around the house. The husband was not thoroughly awake and paid little attention to his wife's fears for a few moments, but at last hearing the back door shut, he arose and at once saw that someone had been in the room. Investigation soon showed that the burglar had carried away a box containing $25.60, two gold watches half a dozen silver knives and forks, and half a dozen silver teaspoons. The silverware, watches and money were in a box which had been placed underneath some children's clothing in a chest of drawers in the room in which they slept downstairs. Entrance to the house had been obtained through a pantry window at the rear and the unbidden visitor departed through the back door. Mr. Glazier at once dressed and went in search of Chief of Police McGinley, whom he found on Main street, acquainting the officer with the robbery. The chief accompanied him back to the house and made an investigation. The footprints of the burglar was plainly distinguishable in the snow and the chief followed them for some distance, but the snow was falling then and the fresh snow finally obliterated the tracks, and the investigation along Superintendent R. B. Williams called | that line had to be given up. It is the general opinion that the robbery was committed by someone familiar with the house and knew the money was secreted there. Mr. Glazier conducts a small shoe store and shoe repairing business on Main street, and the money was to pay some bills he expected to meet this week. He is a hard-working, industrious man and is nearly distracted at the loss, which, he says, will about ruin him. On every hand expressions of sympathy are heard for him, and it is hoped that the authorities will be successful in bringing the guilty one to justice. Rev. J. B. Cook is continuing the revival services in the Methodist church, and much interest is manifested in the meetings.

The Eclipse Social club are arranging to hold a dance in Enterprise hall on the 18th. They have engaged the services of Miss Kate Reardon, the Scranton planist, and will award a prize in the grand march.

THEATRICAL.

"Shannon of the Sixth."

W. H. Power's production of Edward E. Kidder's romantic military drama, "Shannon of the Sixth," will be seen at the Academy of Music the last half of this week. Matinees will be given Friday and Saturday. It is a picturesque play of life in India during the Sepoy rebellion og 1857, and the author has drawn his inspiration from actual occurrences of those stirring times.

There are a number of other strong-ly outlined characters. A Brahmin priest, Ram Koorah, stands out boldly against the background of mystery, which dominates the play. His connection with the plot is important and as it is unfolded, the mysterious influence of occult science is skillfully shown. Umbollo, "The Dumb Man of Allahabad," is another striking piece of characterization and shows the touch of a master hand. One of the features of the production is the magnificent scenery carried by the com-W. H. Power is repeating his successful impersonation of the leading role, Lieut. Larry Shannon, and he has the support of a strong corps of players.

At the Gaiety.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday the Rice and Barton Rose Hill English Folly company will be at the Gaiety Heading the galaxy of entertainers is that rollicking farce, "The Jolly Old Sports," just crammed to overflowing with up-to-date songs, music and bevy of bewitching loveliness. Berry and Hughes, the recognized kings of musical comedy, have made an extra effort for this tour.

Joseph J. Sullivan, Irish comedian, and Carrie Webber, singing soubrette, Miles and Raymond, Willard and Raymond, Swan and Bambard are the features of the oilo. "The Naughty with Parisian costumes and elaborate stage effects, conclude the performance.

"A Texas Steer."

At the Lyceum Saturday afternoor and evening Hoyt's "Texas Steer" will be produced. The fun is fast and furious at times, but is never allowed to take the interest from the plot of the story, which is keenly and logically arranged and carried out.

The character types are splendidly drawn. They are not ready made men and women, but develop as the story proceeds. The company is well balanced. It is headed by Katle Putnem, who has been specially engaged for the beautiful role of Bossy, and includes Will H. Bray, the original "Minister to Dahomey." James R. McCann, "Maverick Brander" and the original Texas Steer quartette.

Herrmann, the Magician.

Herrmann the Great, the eminent prestidigitator, will be seen at the Lyceum Monday evening, January 8. His fame is wide-spread throughout two continents. He has mystified young and old with his wonderful optical illusions, and has never disappointed the expectations of an audience. Herrmann and magic, what a familiar For many years they have been intertwined, and to mention one is to recall the other to mind. Leen Herrmann is a remarkable expert in necromancy. His equal has not been found.

A prominent feature of the programme will be the musical act of the Four Luciers who will play on various kinds of instruments with exquisite skill. J. R. Lucier is a cornet soloist whose superb playing on that instrument in many respects equals, if not surpasses, the playing of Levy o. Arbuckle. Mile. Marguerite possesses a contratto voice of rare depth and resonance, and lovers of sweetly sung ballads have a treat in store for them. A quartette of saxaphones, the pipes, a quartette of ocarinas are among the novelties introduced. The bewitching and fascinating "Lona" will also sing popular songe.

The Hillman Company.

Maude Hillman and her clever company come to the Academy all next week with matinees, commencing on Tuesday. The opening bill Monday evening will be "Special Delivery." It Swelling has given Miss Hillman support excelled by no other repertoire company on the read.
