

BRIEF MENTION OF MEN OF THE HOUR

DR. BEDDOE, THE NEW OUT-DOOR PHYSICIAN.

He is Skilled in the Handling and Preparation of Drugs, as Well as in the Art of Healing—John E. Walsh's New Position Under the N. Y., O. & W.—Deputy City Controller Charles Hartley—Ingenuous Scheme Devised by Plumbing Inspector M. F. O'Malley.

Dr. B. G. Beddoe, of South Main avenue, who has been appointed outdoor physician by the Scranton poor board to succeed Dr. M. J. Williams, in the West Scranton district, is one of the best known men in the city. Prior to his adopting the profession of a physician Dr. Beddoe was identified with the drug business both in West Scranton and the central city, having been connected with Matthews Brothers' establishment a number of years. His peculiar fitness for the position of outdoor physician lies in the fact that he is thoroughly familiar with the use of drugs in every form, having made them a life study, and by the board's determination to have its physicians furnish their own medicines hereafter makes Dr. Beddoe's appointment most desirable.

Dr. Beddoe is not only a prominent factor in his chosen profession, but he is also identified with church and society matters which divide his attention. Besides being a member of the West Side hospital staff, he is superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday school, an active worker in the church and a member of the choir. In lodge matters, the doctor is a past president of Robert Morris lodge of Iovites and was recently elected steward of the society. He is also identified with several other organizations, and in each is an important and influential member.

John E. Walsh, who has been appointed traveling passenger and freight agent by the New York, Ontario and Western railroad company, which practically gives him charge of the company's business on the Scranton division and all the railroads directly tributary to Scranton, is one of the earnest, hustling young business men who are making the fame of Scranton known far beyond its confines.

Mr. Walsh, like thousands of men holding responsible positions in the railroad world, is a telegraph operator and for several years was the Western Union company's star operator in this city. The work was too confining and he gave it up and soon after became chief clerk to T. F. Filtrott, then division passenger and freight agent for the New York, Ontario and Western company. Mr. Filtrott became seriously ill and the work he performed devolved upon Mr. Walsh. He proved equal to the emergency and now that Mr. Filtrott has been compelled to retire because of ill health Mr. Walsh has been named as his successor.

Deputy City Controller Charles Hartley, whose recent little tiff with Mayor Moir regarding police fines attracted much public attention, is one of the most generally all around popular men to be found in city hall. He always has a smile and a joke for every one coming into the controller's office, no matter whether he's friend or foe. A large amount of the intricate detail work connected with the city controller's office devolves on him, and it is generally admitted by all that he is one of the most careful and accurate men who ever filled the position.

Mr. Hartley was born in this city and in his early days was timekeeper at the South steel mill for a number of years. He developed a remarkable talent for ventriloquism and mimicry, however, and went into the theatrical business. He made a big success in this and continued in it for a number of years and would no doubt be at it yet were not home ties too strong. He has now given it up entirely and has centered all his thoughts in his wife and children, who live in this city. One of the latter, a tiny tot of 4 years, Amy Lillian by name, has developed her father's faculty of imitation and has already appeared in public on several occasions.

Concerning Mr. Hartley's wonderful ability as a ventriloquist and mimic, columns might be written. He is considered one of the best ventriloquists in the country and as regards the latter he can imitate the voice, mannerisms and facial expressions of all the leading comedians so closely that those who have heard the original artists

What Makes Home?

Home is made by the family. Without the love which comes with children there may be a house but never a home, in the best meaning of the word. Many a house which was only four walls and a roof has been made a home by the agency of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nature sets her face against childlessness and "Favorite Prescription" works with nature to remove the obstacles to maternity. "I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to children," writes Mrs. Elizabeth E. Evans, of Parsons, Luverne Co., Pa. "I was about to give up in despair, I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after taking it felt better than I had for months. It improved before I had taken one bottle. After taking four and a half bottles I gave birth to a bright baby girl who is now four months old and has not had a day's sickness. She is as bright as can be. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser a work for every woman is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send at once-cent stamps for paper cover and book, or 31-cent stamps for cloth cover to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

much pinch themselves to believe that it is an imitation. Plumbing Inspector M. F. O'Malley with his usual modesty discloses any credit for ingenuity in his very generously commended scheme of fumigating the school buildings. "Nothing more than the practical application of a plank had boys used to be qu'ry' at school," he explained to a Tribune man. "A very small amount of sulphur judiciously applied to the furnace in the cellar had the effect on several occasions that came under my personal observation of forcing the teacher to declare a holiday. With the modern ventilating systems now installed in most of our schools, which changes the air in every room in the building every eight minutes at the most, the matter of fumigation is made very simple. By burning sulphur in the draft of the fan which maintains the positive circulation every nook and corner of the building must necessarily be permeated by the fumes. Any lurking odor of the sulphur can be killed by the application of some of a strong disinfectant or odorizers applied just as was the sulphur."

Doctors and heating and ventilating engineers who have been questioned on the scheme say it is very ingenious and as efficacious as it is simple.

Scranton's Freight Facilities.

To meet the demand for the increasing freightage from upper New York city to Scranton, the Central Railroad of New Jersey has been compelled to put on daily, through merchandise cars between their West Fifteenth street station and Scranton. Cars leave New York at 6 p. m., arriving at Scranton at 5 a. m. the following morning.

In addition to handling freight, the West Fifteenth street station has a large yard for handling carloads of all description, and taking the same rates as the down town stations, it will be a great convenience to Scranton shippers, and another step in bringing the two cities into closer union for their mutual benefit.

Some Improvements. President Truesdale, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western announces a number of improvements to be made in connection with its suburban service. These include an uptown ferry from Hoboken in addition to the present ferries to Barclay and Christopher streets, landing passengers in the neighborhood of Forty-second street, a new tunnel under Jersey City Heights and the elevation of the tracks at the Broad street, Newark station.

It is pointed out that by elevating the tracks at Broad street and depressing them at Roseville avenue the gate tenders could be dispensed with, and the company would save the interest on hundreds of thousands of dollars by the decreased consumption of coal. Building During the Year. Building Inspector Jackson yesterday went over the old permits in his office and compiled a statement of the amount of building done from April to December, inclusive, 1899, as compared with a similar statement for the same in 1898, which was published in yesterday's Tribune. The statement shows that in 1899 there were buildings valued at $639,345 erected, the figures for 1898 being $915,765; the number of permits issued in 1898 was 247, and in 1899, 413, and the amount collected for permits was $1,032 as compared with $1,497 for 1898. At the Green Ridge Iron works, a large double furnace is being erected, and will be used during the latter part of this week for the first time. The plant is crowded with orders, even though for some time it has been running night and day. Spikes to be shipped to South America are now being made there.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT.

Annie Vaughan Strikes Rosa Davis and Badly Injures Her. Alderman Howe's office was yesterday afternoon crowded with what seemed to be the larger portion of the colored population of Raymond court. Action had been brought by Rosa Davis against Annie Vaughan, for assault and battery on her, Sunday night. The trouble took place at 314 Raymond court, where both women live. The evidence showed that there was a row and that Mrs. Vaughan hurled at Rosa a whiskey bottle. It struck her in the forehead, cutting her badly, and a vase followed after it, which also took effect. She was then taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where her injuries were dressed.
