EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

DEMENTED MINER FOUND ON MAIN AVENUE.

Says Mis Name Is Patrick Dempsey, but Does Not Know Where His Home Is-Ladies' Aid Society Elect Officers-Young Couple Married in Binghamton-Funeral of William Newman-Union Prayer Services. To Attend an Installation at Bald Mount-News Notes and Personals.

A demented man who gave his name as Patrick Dempsey was picked up on Main avenue last evening and taken to the station house, where he spent the night. The man was attired in his working clothes and says he is employed as a miner at the River slope, operated in North Scranton by the Delaware and Hudson company.

When questioned as to where he resided he said that he did not know. He had boarded with Mrs. Robert Marshall, on Wood street, who, he claims, moved to West Scranton a few days ago, and as he was not familiar with the streets lost his way.

The man later asserted that his family resided in Pine Brook and wanted to go there. After he was locked up he continued to talk in an incoherent manner and seemed utterly unconscious of his surroundings. examination will be made into his mental condition today.

SUICIDE AT TROY.

Towarda, Jan. 11 .- Troy was the scene of a great sensation yesterday, when became known in the morning that Edward Watson, an employe in the shoe factory at that place, had taken his own life at the Troy house, and that the deed was committed in the presence of his bride in his room, to whom he had only been married six months.

Mrs. Watson's story of the affair is that her husband got up from bed about 12 o'clock, saying that he was going to write a letter to his mother. thinking nothing of this, fell asleep, but was awakened again about thirty a pistol shot, and rising, found her husband lying upon the floor with a 22-calibre bullet in his right temple He had written and sealed a letter to be sent his parents. Watson came from New Jersey to Troy about one year ago, and held a position as laster in the shoe factory. He was of a pleasant disposition and about twenty-six years old. He married a Miss Sherman, of Troy. The letter to his old home stated: "You know my trouble: I am worried about what to do, but think this is the best, He bade his parents an affecting farewell and arged them not to worry. The motive of the suicide is a mystery, as there had not been the least domestic trouble.
