JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

We advise you to be on hand for this advent. Our clearance sales are bona-fide. Our reputation for doing just as we advertise is too well known to admit of any statements that are not actually so, and we will not waste your time, nor ours, talking about ordinary values as commonplace things. This advertisement talks of wonderful reductions in seasonable merchandise-all winter goods being marked down to quick moving figures-many to half and less. The outgoing winter goods leave space, at once re-occupied by the incoming spring goods, and we will surprise this community in a few days with the greatest sale of spring goods this citv has ever seen. In the meantime the Clearing Sale goes on. The store never offered better opportunities for close buying than now. You cannot afford to neglect Connolly & Wallace during the next few days.

ON FURS---Our January Mark-Down Sale of Furs

Although the fur-wearing season has only begun we realize that the fur-selling period is growing shorter. In marking down prices we haven't considered cost, but we have considered the advantage of reducing stock to the lowest point possible. The prices we will name have no bearing whatever on the actual value of the goods. Sufficient to say, that such bargains have never been offered in high-grade, reliable furs, and that, price and quality considered, each article is an exceptionally good investment for many years to come.

Neck Scarfs, Storm Collars, Collarettes, $3 to $50.

The Great Reductions in Prices of Winter Coats

Thousands of women have been waiting for this announcement. They need wait no longer. Our clock is set fast. It strikes the hour for departure of goods long before yours marks the end of their time of usefulness. Hence bargains like these, rich and seasonable. The Winter Jackets must out. The odd ones--the ones and twos and threes of a kind--the whole stock. We may not have your fit in every style, but you couldn't miss a bargain if you picked with your eyes shut. Two hundred Jackets of the best styles we had this season to be sold this way.

The Price Library association is at present hopeful of being useful to the young men and women of our borough, The officers and members are determined by untiring efforts to make the rooms entertaining and exercises attractive as possible. There is a contest going on at present between the members of the organization, with Evan G. Watkins representing one side, and John L. Neiger on the other, both parties selecting their corps. The side that brings in the greater number of members before April 1st, 1900, will be presented with a beautiful banner, given by the society, while the loser will have to banquet their conquerors The library rooms are opened every evening for members. The library to supplied with magazines, periodicats, newspapers, books, etc., and also dumb bells, Indian clubs, and punching bag. Electrician M. W. Bell has been awarded the contract of furnishing electric lights. The directors are arranging to secure some prominent speaker to give a lecture in the future. The attraction for this evening will be a debate upon the much-discussed question, "Resolved, That marriage is a failure." The affirmative side will be argued by Evan G. Watkins and Oliver M. Williams, while President William B. Owens and Frank Decker will handle the negative side. In connection with the event a short programme will be rendered: Vocal solo, William Price: recitation, T.
