IN HONOR OF THE JUDGES. Dinner Given Last Night in the Scranton Club. One of the most elaborate private dinners ever given in this city was that tendered last evening to the judges of he Superior court, now in session in this city, by members of the local bar, The dinner was served in the Scranton club's private dining room, on the eighth floor of the Board of Trade building, and was attended by a number of the leading attorneys of the city, in addition to Superior court judges. The room and large oval table were decorated by Florist Clark and it is doubtful that, at least as far as the able was concerned, whether the decorations have ever been equalled in this city. In the centre of the table was an immense floral pair of justice scales, composed of American Beauty roses and violets. Surrounding this was a perfect imitation of a pond, trimmed ound with roses and containing a number of stuffed ducks and other water fowl. The dinner itself was served in Steward O'Neil's best style.

At the conclusion of the dinner oper, the cigars were passed and a delightful period was passed listening | Lackawanna, East district....... 106 to impromptu toasts delivered by a number of those present.

The following were present at the dinner: Hon. Charles E. Rice, Hon. John J. Mitchell, Hon. George B. Orlady, Hon. W. D. Porter, Hon. W. W. Porter, Hon, James A. Beaver, of the Superior court: Hon, R. W. Archbald, Hon, H. M. Edwards, Hon, Cyrus Gorion, James E. Burr, Charles H. Welles, E. C. Newcomb, W. W. Watson, George S. Horn, John P. CITY AND COUNTY STEADILY GROWING

CUSTOMARY INCREASE IN DE-CEMBER REGISTRATION.

Allowing Four Persons for Each Registered Voter the County Population Would Be 191,460, and That of the City 102,776-One Year Ago the Total Registration for the County Was 45,802; the Last Returns Show It to Be 47,-865-Registration by Districts.

Scranton and Lackawanna county continue to grow year by year. The December registration which has just been tabulated by Clerk Fred Kirchoff, the county commissioners' office. shows the usual rate of increase. The total number of registered voters is 47,865, of which number 25,694 are in Scranton: 3,784 in Carbondale, and 18,-387 in the boroughs and townships. The May registration showed a total of 46,964; Scranton, 24,743; boroughs and townships, 18,139. The registration for December, 1898, was Scranton, 24,-097: Carbondale, 3,735: boroughs and townships, 17,970; total, 45,502. Allowing four persons for every registered voter the present population of the county would be somewhere in the neighborhood of 191,490, and the population of Scranton would be 102,776.

TWO TREASURY DECISIONS. Referring to Physicians and Clubs Selling Intoxicants.

In the last list of treasury decisions received a few days ago by Internal Revenue Collector Penman, there are wo dealing with questions which have been the subject of some little controversy in various parts of the country. The first is that no physician can prescribe whiskey, brandy, wine or oth-er alcoholic liquors and furnish the same to his patrons under conditions constituting the sale thereof without holding himself liable to a tax as a special liquor dealer. If the stimulants are mixed with other drugs, this rule does not apply.

The second decision is that any so cial club that receives orders from its members for alcoholic liquor in any quantity less than five gallons, and furnishes such liquor and collects pay therefor or accepts the consumer's promise to pay in the future, sells the lquor to its members and is a retati liquor dealer under the internal revenue laws and is required to pay a special tax accordingly.

THE WHITE COMPANY.

First Annual Meeting in the Factory Offices on Linden Street-Plant of the Concern.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the newly organized Theodore A. White Manufacturing company, manufacturers of shirts and everalls, was held yesterday afternoon in the company's office in the Gould building, on Linden street.

The following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, Theodore A. White; secretary and treasurer, L. R. Stelle; directors, George B. Jermyn, J. Lawrence Stelle, O. B. Partridge, W. F. Ketchum and D. D. Evans. The officers of the company reported the business to be already in a very prosperous condition. The company's entire plant, comprising the entire second, third and fourth floors of the Gould building, is now in complete working order, the machines in the shirt department having been started on Monday last

The second floor contains the general offices of the company and the sample and stock rooms. There are now in stock waiting for shipment over 1,000 dozen of men's shirts. On the third floor is the shirt department. On one side of the room is the cutting department. Here may be seen plies of percales, ginghams and outlings waiting to be cut. On the other side of the room are the sewing machines, worked by electric power and some fifty girls may here be seen operating as many machines run by electric power. The forth floor is devoted to the production of overalls. In the cutting department there is a workman who, with an ordinary looking knife, cuts through one hundred thicknesses of the heaviest denim with apparent ease. through this many thicknesses of cloth.

There are the same number of ordinary machines in use here as in the shirt department, and in addition there are four of the costly double needle machines in operation. The latter are used in sewing up the seams on the overalls where there is any special strain.

Mr. White says the company now has six salesmen on the road and that the orders on file at the present time for overalls are 1,000 dozen in excess of the production. He further state! that, in his belief, it would be but a short time before the company would be employing 250 hands, instead of 150, as at present.

Welcome News.

· The announcement made in yesterday's Gazette that the Acheson Graphite company will enlarge their plant is welcome indeed. It is one of the se-

the great power plant here which made the commercial manufacture of this article possible,

Graphite is very extensively used. It has a multitude of uses. Its demand is steady and increasing. That Niag-420 ara Falls is manufacturing it makes Niagara Falls the center of another vast industry. The remarkable success attendant upon the first trial of the patents for graphite manufacture pected, that the new building to be put is distinctly a subject for gratification. It is to be hoped, and confidently exup by the company is merely a starter. Niagara Falls calls attention to herself by such progressiveness as is indicated in the manufacture of articles of commerce which hitherto have never been manufactured. The graphite plant is an object of curiosity to the entire scientific world .- Niagara Falls Gazette, Jan. 13th, 1900.

TWO MORE CASES

SUPERIOR COURT SESSION WILL END TODAY.

The Opinion in the Little Libel Case Is Expected to Be Among the Number That Will Likely Be Handed Down Before Adjournment-Bradford, Susquehanna and Wayne County Cases Consumed All of Yesterday's bession-Many Prominent Attorneys Present.

Only two cases remain to be argued before the superior court and these, it is expected, will be finished with before noon today. A number of opinions will probably be handed down before adjournment, among them the one in the Little libel case. Yesterday's session was devoted to the hearing of Bradford, Susquehanna and Wayne cases, and a number of the most prominent members of the bars of those counties participactd. Albert Morgan, for the appellant, and H. K. Mitchell, for the appellee, argued the appeal of Clara Roy, from the auditor's distribution of the estate of her grand uncle. Daniel Dai-rymple, deceased. The decedent was a prosperous farmer of Southport, Chemung county. N. Y. He owned among other properties, three farms in Bradford county and attempted in his will to divide them equitably among his heirs. The terms of the will are somewhat vague and possible of several readings particularly where they deal with the distribution of the per-

TROY WATER CASE. The case of the Troy Water company and Ell B. Parsons against the porough of Troy and others, appellants, in which Albert Morgan, J. T. McCollum, H. K. Mitchell, William Maxwell and I. McPherson, are the

sonal property, and a contest is the attorneys, was certified to the supreme court. A non pros was entered in the case of the Vermont Farm Machine company, to the use of C. H. Tiffany against Jackson Chandler, appellant, common pleas of Susquehanna county. M. S. Allen and T. J. Davies were the attorneys. Rodney A. Mercur for the appellant, and W. J. Young, for the appellee, argued the case of John Howle to the use of N. M. Betts, cashier, appellant, against Evan Lewis, common pleas Bradford county. Lewis secured a rule to open judgment on a note on which he was an accommodation endorser for Howie, alleging that after he signed it some one raised it frem $200 to $1,200. The appellant wants to have the rule quashed.

The appeal of William C. Moran from the auditor's distribution of the estate of Patrick Moran, deceased was argued by Miller S. Allen and Edson W. Safford. The appeal comes from Susquebanna county, and is a contest between heirs over $1,200, which was to be paid by one son to another under the directions of father's will.

AN EQUTY SUIT.

Ex-Judge Henry Wilson and F. P. Kimble, of Honesdale, argued the casof Thomas S. Soloman and others, appellants, against John Rogers and Nelson Jordan, in equity. The case machine cutting is faster there has yet involves the question as to whether or been no machine invented that can cut not one of these co-tenants who was in the exclusive enjoyment of the property is turned into money. W. S. Huslander, for the appellants, and M. Kimble, for the appellee, argued the Wayne county case of Andrew Biesecker, assignee, against 3. E. Cobb and others. The two cases yet to be heard are Emma Brechtel against E. H. Cortright, sheriff, appellant, common pleas, Wayne county, and commonwealth against Michael McMahon and others, appellants, quarter sessions, Alle-gheny county. The latter case was put over from last week,
