

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

PUBLIC SCHOOLS ARE BEING REOPENED.

Pupils May Return to Nos. 16 and 19 Today and No. 18 on Monday Next—Petty Thefts Attributed to Yellow Kids—Republican Club Standing Committee—A Boy's Frightful Fall—Ladies' Aid Elect Officers—Other Events of General Interest.

All the public schools which have been closed during the past week will be reopened one week from the day of closing. An order to that effect has been issued by Health Officer Dr. W. E. Allen, and the principals will be governed by that order.

Principal John T. Jones, of No. 18 school, announced to The Tribune correspondent last evening that the sessions at his school will be resumed next Monday morning. It is hardly probable that either No. 13 or No. 32 will be closed, as the investigation by the authorities failed to reveal the existence of any contagious diseases in that locality.

Only a small percentage of the pupils returned to school on Nos. 16 and 19 yesterday, owing to the failure of the teachers to publicly notify them that the buildings were reopened. The rush will occur today, however, and all the classes will be closed to-day and the same methods used in fumigating them as in the other schools.

THE YELLOW KID GANG.

Several merchants have complained recently that boys have been stealing various articles from their stores and a special watch was kept at two places yesterday for them. The thefts have been committed by members of the Yellow Kid gang of Hennessy court, and when two of the number were detected, they confessed their part of the work and returned the stolen articles.

It has since been learned that the parents of the boys shielded them in their nefarious practice and also that the receivers of stolen goods are known, and unless the practice is stopped several arrests will follow. The merchants are not inclined to gain any notoriety on account of the petty thefts, but are determined to put a stop to the practice engaged in by these boys.

FELL FROM A BUILDING.

Daniel Williams, aged 17 years, son of Contractor John Williams, fell from the top of a building yesterday at the corner of Luzerne and Tenth streets, and sustained painful injuries about the head and body. The boy struck squarely on his head and how he escaped instant death is

After Inventory, Silk Clearance Sale

Inventory is just closed and a few weeks ahead comes the opening of new silks for spring wear. In a good many respects there's little difference between silks of last year and silks of this year. They could easily mingle together in the same fixtures and but few people could say which is which.

We Are Very Careful, however—in fact it's a matter of conscience—to keep clean stocks from season to season, even if it does entail a heavy sacrifice, hence the slaughter of prices recorded below.

Ladies will find in the present sale an excellent opportunity for the display of fore thought and good judgment as well as a chance to fill their needs for present wear or the coming spring at an immense saving from regular prices.

a miracle. His face was badly cut, but no bones were broken. When the workmen picked him up they thought he was dead, but after being removed to his home, where Dr. Roberts examined him, it was discovered, to their astonishment, that the boy was alive and not seriously injured.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon at the parsonage on North Hyde Park avenue and was attended by a very large number of members. The reports of the secretary and treasurer for the past year were read and showed much encouragement.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. B. G. Beddoe; first vice-president, Mrs. S. F. Mathews; second vice-president, Mrs. Belle Dorsheimer; secretary, Mrs. A. B. Holmes; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Bush. The society assumed the responsibility of the interest on the church indebtedness and it was announced that $250 were contributed to the building fund last year.

Mrs. Mathews, wife of the pastor, served luncheon, and the ladies spent the evening at the parsonage in social converse and were joined by several of the gentlemen from the church. The members decided to conduct an initial supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton on Tenth street, Thursday evening, February 1.

BROKE GROUND YESTERDAY.

The contractors in charge of the work of building the new church on the Mott lot, on South Main avenue, to replace the First Baptist edifice, destroyed by fire a year ago, began operations yesterday by excavating for the foundation. The preliminary work was done under the direction of Contractor John Aswell, who has been awarded the contract for making the excavations and building the foundation.

Mr. Aswell will also remove the foundation of the old church on Scranton street and the stone will be utilized in the new building. W. H. Wickhizer, of the West Mountain, has generously contributed a large quantity of stone from his quarry to be used in the foundation.

A. A. Fletcher, of Wilkes-Barre, will be the superstructure and it is expected that work will be commenced by his men as soon as the mild weather sets in.

COMMITTEES NAMED.

At the regular meeting of the West Side Republican club last evening the newly elected officers assumed their responsibilities and transacted the business that came up for consideration. Several new members were admitted and President Reese appointed the following standing committees for the coming year:

Campaign committee—W. Gaylord Thomas, Penn Morgan, Charles Acker, Griff T. Davis, Charles Oliver.

Membership committee—Eli Harris, Ernest Walker, William Lewis, David E. Jones, Fred C. W. Brown, Charles Laning, W. A. Brown, W. E. Thayer, Robert Eldred, William Phillips.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. Benjamin Knight, formerly of Wallisville, was tendered a surprise party at the home of her son, John B. Knight, of Jackson street, Tuesday evening. It being her seventy-seventh birthday, Mrs. G. W. Bennett entertained the company with graphophone selections and at a seasonable hour refreshments were served by Mrs. J. E. Knight, assisted by Mrs. Edith Lewis. The aged lady received many useful presents.

Those present were: Mrs. Reese Thomas, Mrs. Reese D. Reese, Mrs. Giles Sanford, Mrs. Benjamin Reynolds, Mrs. E. J. Jones, Mrs. Thomas Emerson, Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Mrs. M. O. Jones, Mrs. Edward Eva's, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lewis, John Taylor, of Wallisville; Eburn Harding, Leroy and Bennie Knight.

AT ST. PATRICK'S FAIR.

The exhibition drill at St. Patrick's fair last evening was witnessed by a large crowd and was cleverly executed by the members under the direction of Captain McCoy.

Commencing this evening every purchaser of a door ticket will be entitled to a change on special prizes which will be drawn every Wednesday. The programme for tonight is as follows: Vocal solo, James McHugh; vocal solo, John Fadden; violin solo, Stephen McDonough. The Cumberland band, of North Scranton, has been engaged for tomorrow evening.

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

BANQUET OF CRYSTAL LITERARY SOCIETY.

Held Last Evening in the Rooms of the Society and Attended by Over 100 Persons—Clarence McAllister Surprised by His Friends Last Evening—Five Poles Charged with Aggravated Assault and Battery. Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins Injured. Other News and Personal Notes.

The annual banquet of the Crystal Literary and Dramatic club was given last night, upwards of one hundred persons enjoying the occasion. The rooms of the club in the Outehouse building were handsomely prepared for the event, festoons of flags and many potted plants blending in making the scene beautiful.

The banquet served the club and its guests by Caterer F. H. Durkin, of Lackawanna avenue, and was as appetizing as the most exacting epicure would demand. It was nearly midnight before the tables were cleared and the toast given. The responses were all clever, of course, for the men of the literary circle who make up the club are easy talkers and say many clever things.

The affair lasted along into the early morning hours, and from the way it was being enjoyed there is no doubt that the hour for dispersing, when it came, was deeply regretted.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

Clarence MacAlister, of Belmont terrace, was tendered a surprise party at the home of his parents last evening and a most enjoyable time had by all who were in attendance. All sorts of amusements were indulged in and the young folks made the evening pass merrily.
