GOOD RESULTS ALREADY.

The Retail Butchers' organization, which is not more than a week old, and which was organized for common protection from "beats" who have been systematically defrauding them, has Sabbath school at 11.30 a.m. already been fruitful. The plan is to 'blacklist" those who neglect to pay after reasonable time and shut off supper in the church parlors on the evening of George Washington's-birththeir credit all around. One member day. Programme will appear later.

COLD WATER MEN NOMINATE.

The Prohibitionists met in the office of Contractor T. C. Robinson and nominated a partial list of officers for the coming February election. Profsesor H. J. Hockenberry was name1 as a candidate for school director from the First, Second, Fifth and Sixth wards. In the Sixth ward George W. est and dearest to him, be it Norris and John G. Evans were named as candidates for common councilmen and W. S. Bonham, for poor director. David Orr and John Norris were named as register of voters and inspector of election in the First district of the ward.

J. E. MORGAN GOING WEST.

J. E. Morgan will leave in a few days for Colorado for his health. some time Mr. Morgan has suffered from a throat ailment which his physician says will not yield to treatment in this climate. He will probably remain wet until warm weather. During his absence his business on Salem avenue will be conducted by his chief clerk, Miss Tillie Murphy. Many friends hope he will return fully restored to health.

CHARMING ENTERTAINMENT.

Lu. B. Cake and Ella June Meade-Cake gave a charming entertainment in the lecture room of the Me bodist church last evening, in the presence of a good-sized audience. The ontertainers appeared under the auspie s of the Hebron class. Miss Maule teacher, This class pledged $25 to the church at the recent anniversary e-lebrativa and this was one of the plans for raising the money.
