POLITICAL SITUATION.

The political situation is daily be coming more complicated. The latest citizens' ticket is in the Fourth ward, where A. F. Cook, for poor director, and Patrick McDonald and M. Murphy, for common council, are named. Thos. Boylan may be persuaded to run indepently for school director. T. M. Nearon, who was turned down by the Democratic convention, will put up a fight for select council in the Third ward. The Democrats have completed their ticket by naming Thomas Barrett for select council in the First ward, where his opponent will be G. F. Swigert. W. H. Masters will use the municipal water argument to win votes with which to defeat W. W. Fletcher for select council in the Fifth ward. Adding to these the candidacy of Prof. Hockenberry for school director in the upper wards and we have combinations which ought to produce a very Interesting election.

TWO FIRES.

Saturday evening shortly after $ o'clock considerable excitement was caused on Main street by a brilliant blaze on the front of the Burr bullding. It was caused by an arc light wire. The fire was extinguished by a bucket of water after the wire had been, cut by Lineman Myers. The awning and wood work were burned considerably.

At 1.30 in the afternoon an alarm was rung in from box No. 46. The fire was confined to the house occupied by Thomas Finnegan, near the "Lookout." The blaze was put out before the hose companies arrived and little damage was done.

ANOTHER CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The Italians of this city have purchased the plot of ground at the old Norton pump house, paying $1,000. A Catholic church will be erected at once to be known as Our Lady of Mount Carmel church. The Italian colony of this city is assuming large proportions and is making remarkable progress along business, political, educational and religious lines.
