THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1900.

CARBONDALE.

WATER RESOLUTION DELAYED.

It was expected that the seleot council would meet last evening to act on the water resolution adopted by the commoners Monday evening, which reads: "That the mayor of the city be empowered and authorized to condemn in the manner authorized by law any water or water rights which in his judgment is necessary for use by the city for municipal water," Mayor Kilgatrick declared that it would not cost the city one dollar but there are some selectmen who believe that if there is such a law it does not provide for condemnation proceedings without expense and as that expense will have to be borne by the city they are going slow. The resolution will certainly meet some objections in the upper house.

ROBERT MOYLES' MISFORTUNE.

Yesterday Poor Director Moon and Constable Edward Neary took Robert Moyles, of Salem avenue, to the Hillside Home. For some time Mr. Moyles has been laboring under hallucinations and Sunday he proceeded to smash the furniture and threaten his family without the slightest cause. He went away peaceably, however, but swore vengeance on his wife and family, evidently believing them to be responsible for his difficulty. To the officers he simply said: "I know my business and you ought to attend to yours."

EPWORTH LEAGUE DOINCS.

The monthly literary and musical entertainments given by the Epworth John, and four daughters, Sarah A., League have come to be remarkably Mamle, Bridget and Katle. Three sisinteresting and instructive to those who attend them. This evening at 7:30 o'clock the following programme will be carried out at the Methodist Merriton, Canada; Mrs. Bridget Battle. church:

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Kilgallon to Take Place Today-Personal News.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Kilgallon, who died at her home at Mayfield, Sunday morning, will take dace at 10 o'clock this morning. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in Sacred Heart church, and interment vill be made in St. Rose cometery at Carbondale. The deceased had been sick a number of weeks, and her death was not unexpected. She had suffered much during the past several years and her usually strong constitution had been undermined. She bore her sufferings with true fortitude and passed into her last long sleep with a screnity born of a firm Christian faith. Her children were gathered around her bedside during the last precious moments of her existence and to them she gave parting blessing before rendering up her pure soul to its Maker. Mrs. Kilgallon had resided in Mayfield for a quarter of a century, and by her many true Christian qualities had gained the respect and esteem of all who knew her. She is survived by three sons, Edward F., Patrick J. and ters and a brother also survive her, They are: Mrs. Margaret Loftus, of Archbald; Mrs. Ann Newcombe, of of Ireland, and John Fahey, of Peru,

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker and family, who have been residents of this borough for a number of years, left last night for New York city, and expect to sail today for England, where they will make their future home. A number of men from this borough, among whom are James R. Evans, Joseph Netherton and John Woodworth will leave today for the soft coal fields in Washington county, where they have secured work in the sinking of a shaft. Edith, the child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waters, of West Mayfield, is ill of

CRUSHED BY HER CROWNI

The great "Book of Martyrs" has never been written. Fox's famous work deals only with the martyrdom of the body. When the real book of martyrs is written it will deal with the mental martyrdom of the woman who suffered in silence because modesty would not let her put into speech the questions that burned in her heart.

Modesty is the Crown of Maidenhood and Motherhood, and yet there have been liter-ally millions of women crushed to death by that crown,—that shining symbol of, woman's sovereignty in the home. Here is

A YOUNG GIRT.

In the first critical period of her life she begins to experience suffering which she necessarily connects with the organs of sex. What it is she does not know. Why it is she does not understand. She needs medical advice. But she shrinks from it. Her modesty is up in arms at the thought of questions to be asked, of examinations to be submitted to, both alike repugnant to delicacy. So she suffers in silence. The strain on the delicate machinery of her organism becomes more severe. Painful organism becomes more severe. Painful irregularities become yet more painful And so, silently, she treads the painful path to confirmed invalidism. Her crown of modesty becomes a crown of thorns. She sees the glowing lamp light of cheer-ful homes. She hears the cooing of the happy babe, the prattle of joyous children, and she fears that all that life of home and love is not for her, Or take the other typical case of the woman who has entered on the cares and MOOSIC BOROUGH.

Organization of the New Town Government.

The Moosic people have now launched out from the folds of Lackawanna township and become a borough, to be known as the Moosic borough. When the news of the handing down of the decision in favor of a borough was telephoned to Moosic, the news spread like wildfire over a dry field. The people, deeming a citizens' caucus the most profitable method to be adopted at the beginning, sanctioned it and a caucus was held Monday evening in the double rooms on the upper floor of the public chool. Seven o'clock, the hour specified upon the notices, having arrived, they began the work of appointing their temporary chairman, Mr. Patrick Salmon being chosen, Mr. Thomas Sutcliffe was chosen secretary. The question of how to best vote was discussed in a very stubborn manner. A decision being finally reached that each candidate for office write his name and office desired upon a slip, and each voter was to cast his ballot for his choice of office at once, this proving very successful and economical in saving time. The taking the practice of Dr. Adam Stegnominations for the vacant offices were made in a short speech by Mr. Thomas Hailstone. Messrs. W. S. Hutchings and John M. Robertson were nominated for council by acclamation, while a like honor was conferred upon Mr. Charles Snyder for a 'bree years' term as school controller. tessrs, William Anthony, Thomas Lynott and Daniel McCarty were unanimously chosen as borough auditors, having no opposition. Mr. David D. Davis, having no opponent to the office of assessor, was unanimously elected. Mr. Thomas Maskel, of Greenwood, or northern part of the borough, was also chosen for school director for a term of three years; no opposition. The main fight lay in the flice for tax collector, when Mr. George Griffiths (Republican) and Mr. Patrick Leonard (Democrat) were aspirants for that office. The supporters of each of the two candidates worked hard. Mr. Charles Monie, sr., was chosen overseer of the poor. The interest manifested in the run for the one year term of school director was waged hot when it became known that three candidates were up for the office, namely, Messrs, John Whyte, William C. Draks and Thomas McNally. For the office of register of voters, Mr. S. A. Boam and Mr. Peter Weir were aspirants. When all had cast their ballots, the election board, consisting of Patrick Salmon, William Steverson, John Mulien, Thomas Sutcliffe and Thomas ell, retired to a small room situated at the centre of the school and counted the ballots, which took about

MR. WAIT AWHILE RAYMOND.

He Obligingly Explains How He Came by His Rather Peculiar Name. From the Utica Observer.

Wayte A. Raymond is a name which is nothing pecullar about the name nor about its possessor, but there is an interesting story about the way in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop is a commercial traveller who has been coming to Utica for twenty-five years. and is one of the best known salesmen in the druggists' supply trade. The mood he related how it came about > was. "I was born in the West forty-seven years ago," began Mr. Raymond, "and I was the youngest of a family 10 twelve children. My parents are both still alive and, in fact, there has been but one death in our family for the past fifty years. As is the custom with parents I was no sooner born than my parents began casting about for a suitable name to bestow upon me. They did not find the task an easy one, however, for they had named eleven others and had about exhausted the category. Not being able to agree upon a for their last born it is said that they invited the neighbors to make suggestions, but, it seems, with no better re-suits. I was, therefore, allowed to live along a nameless sort of creature until one day my mother became impatient and said to my father: "Now, it is shameful not to name this child, Let us agree upon something at once.

> replied as he had often done before: 'O, mother, don't let's hurry. Wait awhile and he will find something that will suit us both.'

'Wait awhile,' exclaimed mother, as idea striking her. 'Wait awhile. Well, we have got to call the poor child some thing else except baby and for convenience sake we will call him Wait Awhile until we can think of something better.'

"But father and mother neve thought of anything better or even different, and the result was that I was never, christened. From that time out I was called Wait Awaile by everybody in the neighborhood, and when I grew old enough to know my parents related the circumstances which led to its bestowal. When I moved away from the State and came east the name followed me and I have never tried to change it save that I write the Wait with a 'y and never sign 'Awhile.'"
