A MOCK TRIAL.

At the conclusion of the business meeting of John Connell lodge of Odd Fellows, on Wednesday evening, a mock trial was enjoyed by a number of the members.

Arthur Hewitt was tried for alleged assault and battery, Arthur Nichoison being the prosecutor. The trial was very amusing, the witnesses for that prosecution telling such a plausible and convincing story as to almost convince the defendant of his own guilt.

The cross-examination by the attorneys was a very interesting feature of the mimic trial and the members derived much amusement from the exercise,

WILL ADOPT AIR BRAKES.

Street Railway Company to Equip Cars with Them.

The Scranton Railway company has decided to adopt the air brakes re-cently tried on all of their doubletrucked cars. These brakes are far superior to the ordinary ones now in use, as they can be operated almost instantly by turning a lever without any muscular effort on the part of the motorman. As Master Mechanic Mullen says:

"The new brakes can be put on while the motorman would be thinking of putting the old ones on."

The delegates from the different districts are all expected to be present and number thirty-six, as follows: First ward-First district, 3; Second district, 2; Second ward-First district, 9; Second district, ; Third ward-First district, 4: Second district, 2: Thir1 district, 3: Fourth ward-First district, 1; Fifth ward--First district, 2; Sixth ward-First district, 3: Second district, 3.
