PRESENTED TO E. Z. HENDRICK.

A handsomely engrossed and beautifully framed copy of the appended resolutions was presented to Hon, E. E. Hendrick at the Columbia's smoker:

"At a meeting of the members of Columbia Hose company, No. 5, of the city of Carbondale, held in their rooms, December 7, 1899, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, The Hon, E. E. Hendrick has manifested his personal interest in this organization by voluntarily contributing the sum of $230, thus enabling us to pay for our handsome horses, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of Columbia Hose company, No. 5, of the city of Carbondale, in regular monthly meeting assembled gratefully acknowledge this generous gift from our esteemed fellow-townsman by a recorded vote of thanks of the entire roster of this company. "Resolved, That our friend and patron, Hon. E. E. Hendrick, be and is hereby elected a life member of Columbia Hose company, No. 5, of the city of Carbondale. Be it further

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at length upon the minutes by the secretary and that a copy of the same be suitably engrossed and presented to Mr. Hendrick as a testimonial of our appreciation of his practical regard for the welfare of the boys who Local Politics Becoming Interesting. make up the active membership of Columbia, No. 5.

ELECTRICITY FOR HOSPITAL.

Emergency hospital, which has always been lighted with its own gas plant, will have electricity in the near future. An attractive rate having been quoted by the Electric Light company, the directors of the institution decided to abandon the old plant. The change will be a saving as well as an improvement.

DR. MEAKER'S CHANGE.

For several days past workmen have been making alterations on the second floor of the Morgan building on Salem avenue. It will be occupied by C. T. Meaker, M. D., D. D. S., who has been located over the Globe store for the past ten years. His new quarters will be admirably adapted to the doctor's requirements.

Funeral of Frank Martin This Afternoon. Political matters in the First ward are getting quite interesting and when election day rolls around there pro-mises to be one of the liveliest elections in the history of that ward. In response to a call a citizens' caucus was held in the ward Monday evening and a ticket placed in nomination, as stated in yesterday's items. Yesterday morning Henry Morcom, who was chairman of the meeting, took the first train to Scranton to file the papers at the commissioners' office. On reaching there, however, he was surprised to find a Citizens' ticket already filed, the nominees being: Councilman, George Edmunds; school director, A. F. A. Battenburg: judge, John Mason: inspector, James Roberts. The death of Frank, the little son of

Prof. and Mrs. R. H. Martin, of Moscow, was caused by inflammation of the bowels, and not from diphtheria, as erroneously stated yesterday. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

The remains will be brought here on the Delaware and Hudson train arriving at 1.53 and will be taken to the Methodist Episcopal church, where services will be held by the pastor. Rev. J. B. Cook. Interment will be made in the borough cemetery. Colonel Boies and the directors of the Moosic Powder company came up from Scranton yesterday morning and made an official inspection of the powder mills. M. F. McDermott has decided not to run for the office of councilman in the Third ward and yesterday had his name withdrawn from the Citizen's ticket on file with the county commissioners. Rev. Wilson Bentle was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walers, of West Mayfield, Tuesday. Mrs. John Yates is confined to her home on Rushbrook street with sick-

Special to the Scianton Tribune,

Susquehanna, Jan. 25.-Eaton and Peters, two Susquehanna county hunters, a few days since went over into Pike county in search of game. After bagging a lot of rabbits one day they sat down on a log to rest and eat their luncheon. While sitting there, their dog suddenly began to bristle up and growl. The hunters looked about them, to see what had attracted the attention of the dogs, and were startled to see a bear sitting on its haunches on a little mound not more than thirty paces distant. It was eyeing the two hunters impudently, but manifested no York, is visiting his brother, Evan G. hostile intention.
