

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

RECEPTION GIVEN BY MISS OWEN TO HER PUPILS.

Miss Elizabeth Owen, of Brick avenue, tendered a reception from 2 to 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon to her pupils. Recitations, instrumental music and games were indulged in, and the young folks enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

Miss Owen was assisted in serving by Miss Mame Thomas, of Dickson city; Mrs. J. R. Thomas, Mrs. Anna Rogers, of Hyde Park; Mrs. Harry Morgan, Miss Harriet Owen and Mrs. J. R. Davis, and was assisted in receiving by the Misses Lillian Danvers and Helen Churchill.

Those present were Misses Margaret Williams, Dana Evans, Myfanwy and Elizabeth Lewis, Edith and Carrie Morgan, of Olyphant; Master Archie Ace, Arja Morgan, May James, Ruth Peters, Ella Evans, Ethel Roberts, Nina Dworkin, of Hyde Park; Misses Wilhelmina Griffin, Cora Snyder, Minnie Thomas, Edith Lewis, Bertha Morgan, Bessie Owens, Alice and Charlie Rame, Alice Hillier, Hattie Price, Florence and Nellie Prosser, Maud Kemp, Lucy and Harry DeWitt, Amy Colvin, Nellie Featherby, Arthur Dean, May Jones, Nellie Thomas, Irene Gaines, David Gaines, Alice Lewis, Eloise Griffiths, Carrie Evans, Lillian and Annie Morris, Anna Davis, Jessie Wells, Margaret Jones, of Dickson City; Gertrude Heatherrington, Arthur Williams, William Jenkins, Grace and Emeline Lanyon, William Featherby, Irene Rogers, Mrs. W. H. Owen, Marian Owen and Isabella Owen.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DAREEN. The funeral of Mrs. James Dareen was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home on Pawnee street. At 2:30 o'clock the remains were conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted by the Rev. J. O'Toole.

TOLD IN PASSING. On Friday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brink tendered their son, Ray, a party in honor of his twenty-third birthday.

Wonderful Ladies' Three Price Sale of... Jackets

Not low grade, cheap sale, or last year's garments, nor do we offer any broken size, misfit lots—which the chances would be two to one that we could not suit you.

These Jackets Are All New

And as fully up-to-date as advanced fashion can make them. In tailorings, linings, general get up, colors and materials, they are faultless. Indeed it illustrates perfectly the fact that it is possible to produce ready-to-wear garments of a decidedly higher grade in the matter of styles and finishing than the merchant tailor has yet produced.

Enough Said; Now for Bare Price Facts

Without a single word of comment, save to say that the size range in each price runs from 32 to 44 inches, with all the popular shades and prices fully represented. Furthermore, if you want lower priced, broken sized lots, running in price from maybe a dollar each, etc.—we've got them. They are not in any of the three bargain lots named today, however.

- At $4.98 Take your choice of all the Ladies' Jackets we sold at $7.50, $8, $10, etc.
At $5.98 This lot represents Jackets that sold from $10.50 to $12.50. The assortment is great and the values astounding.
At $6.98 We offer a complete range of Jackets that were actually sold this season for $13.50, $15, $16.50, $18, etc. Value such as is to be found here has never before been offered in this city.

VIN MARIANI

Mariani Wine—World Famous Tonic. All who have tested Vin Mariani agree as to its great superiority—this can be readily verified by a personal test—but guard specially against dangerous substitutes and would-be imitators.

birthday, at their home on North Main street. The evening was enjoyed by the young people in singing, dancing and various games, until a seasonable hour, when a dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brink, Miss Catherine Slavin, Miss Margaret Slavin, Miss Grace Sicker, Miss Cora Wolf, Miss Blanche Sicker, Miss Ida Backett, Miss Nellie Karin and Messrs. Charles Boyle, Foster Reynolds, Frank Hipple, Thomas Hurst, Harry Connelly, Frank Thomas, Frank Evans, Samuel Flitzpatrick, John Heirigel, Joseph Scrino and Sumner Banker.

PERSONAL NOTES. Miss Josephine Reading, of Church avenue, entertained a number of her friends at tea Saturday afternoon. In the course of her remarks the speaker described the feast of Tabernacles during which Jesus took occasion to announce Himself. He analyzed the word thirst, and pointed out what the several letters indicated. For the first letter he said it stood for the word thirst—son—thirst—and pointed out the fact that the deepest thirst today can be found among the churches.

GREEN RIDGE. T. J. Snowdon spent the Sabbath at home. There will be a special meeting of Green Ridge Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, this evening in Masonic hall, Dickson avenue, at 7:30 sharp.

Fred Widmayer, the violinist, is suffering with typhoid fever at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Hertz, of Delaware street. The members of Beatrice Lodge, No. 79, Daughters of Rebecca, are requested to meet at 1602 Dickson avenue at 7 o'clock Monday evening, to attend the funeral of Merritt Gardner.

AWFUL EXPERIENCE WITH HEART DISEASE. That Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart works like magic, and cures is proven by the testimony of Mr. L. J. Jay, Toronto, Can. "I was severely troubled with heart disease that I was unable for 18 months to lie down in bed, lost 150 lbs. After taking one dose of Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure, I rested and slept soundly. I used one bottle and the trouble has not returned." For sale by Matthews Bros. and W. T. Clark.—6.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

REV. L. R. FOSTER'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Congregational Meeting at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian Church. Rev. P. H. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, Presided and Delivered an Eloquent Sermon—Commemorative Services at the First Baptist Church—Rev. Kain Concludes His Mission—Other Matters of Interest.

The congregation of the Sumner avenue Presbyterian church accepted the resignation of their pastor, Rev. L. R. Foster, last evening, which it was with a deep feeling of regret that the pastoral relations will be severed. The Lackawanna Presbytery will hold a meeting in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of dissolving the relationship between Rev. Foster and the church. Rev. Foster will become an assistant to Rev. I. J. Lansing at Green Ridge.

Rev. P. H. Brooks, D. D., of Wilkes-Barre, occupied the pulpit last evening and preached a discourse from the text in John vii, 37, "If any man thirst let him come unto Me and drink." In the course of his remarks the speaker described the feast of Tabernacles during which Jesus took occasion to announce Himself. He analyzed the word thirst, and pointed out what the several letters indicated. For the first letter he said it stood for the word thirst—son—thirst—and pointed out the fact that the deepest thirst today can be found among the churches.

THE LETTER H STANDS FOR HOUSE OF GOD, the place where there was so many symbols to satisfy the thirst. Let his people not accept them and build for nothing. The church is a great many things in the churches today to satisfy the wants of any soul, but souls are more and more thirsty and yet in the midst of the House of God. It is for invitation to the first of any man thirst let him come unto Me and drink—which means you and me. It represents rivers of living water, and while we have the spirit within us which will have its influence we cannot give it to any one—only God and Christ can impart that. It stands for satisfaction—the word that has gone around this world and never found a resting place. It is time—the time to tell about Jesus and the living waters of life, which is the wonderful message of Jesus.

COMMEMORATIVE SERVICES. In the First Baptist church yesterday evening commemorative of the destroyed edifice were held. Many friends of the church were present with the members. The morning service was impressive and the pastor read the same Scripture that was read a year ago, the 142d Psalm. The truths of the Psalm were shown to have been realized in the church's experience during the past year. A large audience was present in the evening. Rev. Mathews exhibited several relics from the ruins. Remarks were made by Dr. B. G. Boddie, Dr. T. M. Sanderling and A. B. Holmes.

AMONG THE CHURCHES. Rev. P. J. Kain, of Philadelphia, who has been conducting revival services during the past two weeks at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church with marked success, closed his labors last evening, preaching to an audience that completely filled the church. Professor W. W. Jones sang an effective solo. Benjamin Smith, who was a candidate for mayor of this city at the last election, and who formerly conducted a hotel on North Main avenue, related the experience of his own salvation at the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening.

IN DESISTUTE CIRCUMSTANCES. When the death messenger visits a home it often reveals destitute circumstances which otherwise are not generally known. This fact was illustrated in the case of Michael Dougherty of Aswell court who died at the hospital a few days ago and was buried yesterday afternoon in the Cathedral cemetery. A wife and eight children survive.

FORMED AN ALLIANCE. Representatives from the South Scranton, Taylor and West Scranton, German Presbyterian Sunday schools held their semi-annual meeting in the Chestnut street church yesterday afternoon. The session was presided over by Rev. Jacob Schell. An alliance of the various Sunday schools was formed for the purpose of assisting and establishing other schools connected with the denomination, and other matters pertaining to the schools were discussed.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH NOTES. An important meeting of the members will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock. Matters of great importance to the church will be discussed. Tomorrow evening the Christian Endeavor society meeting will be in charge of Rev. E. A. Boyle. The topic for the evening will be, "Lessons for Simon and Us." A supper will be given in the church on February 22. The affair will be in charge of the Ladies' Aid society. Many useful articles which the ladies have been working on will be disposed of. An "Old Maids' Convention" will be held in the near future. The event will be in charge of classes taught by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Eynon, and promises to be a novel affair.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. St. Paul's Pioneer corps will meet for drill this evening in St. David's hall. At a meeting of the Hyde Park

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O! Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich, real, brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. It is the price of coffee, 1c, and 25 cts. per package. Sold by all Grocers.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Scranton Will Show You How. Rubbing the back won't cure back-ache. A liniment may relieve, but can't cure. Backache comes from the inside, from the kidneys. Don't let Kidney Pills get inside. They cure sick kidneys. Here is Scranton proof that this is so: Mr. Joseph Davis, of 424 Fifth avenue, miner by occupation, says: "The pain in the small of my back across the kidneys was very severe, especially if I stooped and attempted to straighten. At night when in bed my back ached fearfully, thus disturbing my rest, and in the morning I was so lame and stiff I could hardly get up and around. I tried doctor's medicines, but nothing did much good. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Matthews Bros' drug store, and they helped me from the start. I highly recommend them and I have already done this with other miners."

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Remains of the Late Martin Jordan Laid to Rest—Other Funerals. Saturday morning the remains of the late Martin Jordan were laid to rest in the Cathedral cemetery. The funeral took place from the home of his partner, Stone avenue. The numerous friends and neighbors of the deceased young man began to gather at the house at an early hour, and the funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in this city.

OTHER FUNERALS. Patrick Langan, of 217 Stone avenue, passed away Friday night, after a brief illness. Deceased was thirty-four years of age, and up to a few months ago was a man of remarkable physique. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, 217 Stone avenue, at 2:30 o'clock. The numerous friends of the deceased began to gather at the home to pay the last sad respects to their departed friend.

George Cunningham, a veteran of the Civil war, died yesterday morning at the home of his sister on Cedar avenue, after a long illness. The remains were removed to the home of his wife 814 New street, from which place the funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Deceased was at one time a member of the Griffin post, Grand Army of the Republic, and of the Odd Fellows.

Alfred Roderick, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, of 26 North Garfield avenue, died Saturday evening. Scarlet fever was the cause of death. The interment will be privately made in the Washington street cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CONVENTION OF THE B'NAI B'RITH [Concluded from Page 5.] which was enthroned on the stage behind a bank of flowers and plants. The speeches made were all very interesting.

OBITUARY. Merritt Gardner, a prominent resident of Green Ridge, at Saturday morning at his home on Dickson avenue. He is survived by a wife and two children, Mrs. Nellie M. Baker, of Paducah, Ky., who was at her father's bedside when he died, and Ernest Gardner, of this city. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock, with brief services at the home following which the remains will be taken to Factoryville, where at 2 p. m. services will be held at the Methodist church, after which interment will take place. The services at the grave will be in charge of the Rev. Mr. Gardner, who was 44 years old and was born near Factoryville. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and of the Knights of Pythias. These organizations will take part in the funeral.

THE SPEECH-MAKERS. The only Scrantonians who made addresses were F. L. Wormser, who, in the capacity of toastmaster, made the opening speech, and Ralph L. Levy, who spoke on "The Coming Men." Other toasts were responded to by the following: "The Order of B'nai B'rith," by Charles Hoffman, of Philadelphia; "The Passing Century," by J. Strauss, of Wilkes-Barre; "Our Beloved Country," by Jacob Singer, Philadelphia; "Union of Israel," Rev. M. M. Eichler, of Philadelphia; "The Expansion of the Order," Adolph Eichler, of Philadelphia; "The Ladies," Rabbi Rosenthal, Lancaster.

THE INEVITABLE WOMAN. It was Henry Savage Landon who told this story the other day about some of his experiences in England since his return from Tibet—which country, by the way, he was more than thankful to leave with nothing worse than a badly tortured body and a volume of experiences, relates the Chicago News. The newspapers all over the world have printed voluminous accounts of his bravery and awful sufferings. His book on the affair is well known. He had been booked to lecture at Bristol on the subject of his travels, and he arrived at the west country capital in time to be introduced to several Bristolians, notably one nice woman who was particularly anxious to know "what the lecture was about."

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

DEMOCRATS TO NAME THEIR CANDIDATES.

They Will Hold a Convention Tomorrow Night in Manley's Hall. Topics That Were Discussed in the Various Dunmore Pulpits Last Night—Letters That Remain Uncalled for at the Postoffice—D. K. Oakley to Rebuild Factory Destroyed by Fire—Personal Notes.

The Democrats will hold their primaries at the different voting places in the eleven districts tomorrow afternoon and on the evening of that day will name their ticket at the convention to be held in Manley's hall. The campaign will then begin in downright earnest. The make-up of the ticket as stated by the leaders will be as follows: Burgess, Victor Burschell; tax collector, Peter Reilly; treasurer, August Walker; street commissioner, Michael McDonnell; school directors, A. T. Irvin and Anthony McLaughlin; council, Thomas McLoughlin and J. J. Brogan. A lively battle may be looked for after the placing of the candidates for office has been accomplished on both tickets. Both parties are fully determined to win, especially the Republicans, who received such an overwhelming defeat at the election last year. This year will see many important measures coming before the heads of the different departments of the borough, as the letting of the contract and work which will be rather arduous and the sewerage of the town; the street and sidewalk difficulties, which will undoubtedly be settled; the enforcing of the borough resolutions and other important matters which the business men and citizens are fully determined shall be placed in the hands of thoroughly competent and trustworthy men.

YESTERDAY'S SERVICES. Rev. A. J. Van Cleft preached to two excellent audiences in the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning and evening on the subjects, "Ezekiel's Vision of the Valley of Dry Bones" and "The Doctrine of the Cross," respectively. The themes were conducive of interest to his listeners, who followed the thoughts presented with the best of attention.

LETTERS AT THE POST OFFICE. Letters bearing the following names are at the post office waiting redemption. Persons calling for these letters will please give date of the list and say what is being done. M. K. Bishop, postmaster: Miss Carrie B. Brown, Theodore Fetzer, Larch street; J. H. King, Joshua Miller, esp., Mrs. P. A. Neaton, 111 Monroe avenue; Maria Frarona, Giovanni Scaglia, Diego Apa, 540 Adams avenue, 2.

LITTLE NUBS OF NEWS. The members of the Ladies' Temperance society met in their rooms yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock. D. K. Oakley, of Madison avenue, is rebuilding the factory on the rear of his premises which was destroyed by fire a little over a year ago. Ira, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mowery, fell in such a manner while at play Saturday as to strike his head violently on the ground. For some time he remained in such a dazed condition as to alarm his parents, but at present is doing nicely. All members of the local Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, are requested to meet in the hall of the organization tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

PERSONAL NEWS ITEMS. Miss Nellie McDonald, of Main street, entertained Mr. Marcellio M. Gee, of Hyde Park, and Miss Margaret Cawley, of Pittston Saturday. Robert McMillan and John Winters were hunting at Promised Land Saturday. Essie Tonkin is quite ill at the home of her parents on Electric avenue.

JAPANESE IMITATIVENESS. Two Stories That Illustrate Their Cleverness in This Characteristic. From the Youth's Companion. The Japanese are adepts at imitation. It seems next to impossible to develop a permanent market for American products in Japan on this account. Every valuable new thing imported into the country is immediately and successfully copied by the natives, and wages for skilled labor are so low that the imitations can be sold for a fraction of the cost of the originals. A missionary who went to Japan some years ago tells two anecdotes that well illustrate this Japanese fondness for mimicry.

It seems that some facetious friend at home sent the missionary one of the famous "Pigs-in-Clover" puzzles—the entire United States being under the spell of that novelty at that particular time. He exhibited the puzzle freely among his Japanese acquaintances, and even loaned it out several times, and it is putting a case mildly to say that it created a sensation. What was his surprise a few weeks later, in passing along the Ginza—Tokio's great business thoroughfare—to note that the shop windows were all filled with "Pigs-in-Clover" and that a number of fakirs on the street were selling them to the susceptible passers-by as fast as they could be handed out. The affair developed into a craze, which any one who was in Tokio at the time can hardly forget.

The missionary being struck with the fact that the puzzle was sold for only two sen, or about one cent in our money, whereas the price in the United States was from 10 to 25 cents, took the pains to scrutinize the Tokio puzzle, which proved to be a Japanese production throughout. It was a perfect copy of his own original, even to the English reading matter and the picture of the boy and the pig on the clover, but it plainly showed the car marks of Japanese work. The same missionary, when he first went to Japan, took with him a bicycle—one of the old "uprights"—which was at that period a great curiosity, it being one of the first bicycles to be seen in that country. One day it needed some minor repairs, and he sent it to a blacksmith who was known to be a skillful workman. In the course of a few days the missionary sent for the machine, but received word that it was not yet ready. Again, after a few days, he sent for it, but the same answer was returned, with some variations. The missionary was not in a hurry for the machine at that time, and the matter slipped his mind for several weeks. Then he sent a third time and received such an evasive answer that he lost patience and himself went to the blacksmith to see what was the matter. When he arrived at the shop the blacksmith was just completing the repairs. Imagine the surprise of the missionary when, on going out for a early morning spin a few days after, he came suddenly upon his blacksmith himself astride the exact duplicate of the missionary's bicycle, on which he was wobbling his way along at a very fair pace for a beginner. The fellow had had the machine apart and had reproduced it to the last screw.
