SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Handed Down by Justice Harlan. Lackawanna Case.

Washington, Jan. 29.-In the United ates Supreme court today two deisions were handed down by Justice Harlan in cases involving the queslons of the report of preference over the mortgage holders of insolvent railroads by the creditors of such roads whose debts are contracted in connection with the current conduct of the roads. The first of the cases was that of the Southern Railroad company vs. the Carnegie Steel company. This suit involved an indebtedness contracted by the Richmond and Danville Railroad quently absorbed by the Southern, to the Carnegie company for two pur-chases of steel rails made by the railompany, whose property was subseaffairs gave it an equitable lien and a preference over the mortgage creditors, because the indebtedness was contracted in the operation of the road and was therefore a part of its running expenses. He is a man about 45 years of age and is matried and has a wife and seven children. Sivley is a youth about 18 years of age and was defended by Attorney James E. Watkins. Assistant District Attorney W. Gaylord Thomas conducted the case for the commonwealth.

Maxim was employed as a miner in the Connell mine at Duryen and Sivley was a driver at the same place. rick Conroy, John McGurl, Thomas A. was shown yesterday on the part of the commonwealth that on October 19 a driver boy went into Maxim's chamber and hit him a terrifle blow with a piece of coal. He was taken to the atekawanna hospital, where for some time his life was despaired of and he still has his head swathed in bandages.

The blow has rendered Maxim almost blind and affected his speech. He has not worked since and it is doubtful if he will again. The commonwealth was not able to bring the crime home direct to Sivley. Two driver boys, Sivley being one of them, were employed in serving a tier of feur chambers, in one of which Maxim was employed and it was not shown with any degree of clearness whether it was Sivley or the other driver who committed the assault.

One of the Features of the Day Was the Presentation to Retiring President Charles Hoffman of a Silver Service - This Was Done at an Informal Reception in the Hotel Jermyn Following the Close of the Convention-Next Meeting to Be Reld in Philadelphia.

The business meeting of the representatives of about fifty sub districts to the biennial convention of District No. 3, Grand Lodge Independent Order of B'nai B'rith was yesterday morning and afternoon conducted at the local headquarters in Guernsey's hall, on Washington avenue.

The chief feature of the day's work was the election of officers for the ensuing term, Fred L. Wormser, of this city, being chosen as president. Following the afternoon session an informai reception was held in the waiting room of the Motel Jermyn, at which Charles Hoffman, esq., of Philadelphia, was presented with a magnificent case of silver containing about four dozen handsome pieces of table

S. J. Strauss, esq., of Wilker-Barre. in behalf of the district members, presented Mr. Hoffman with this token of appreciation, saying that it was a testimonial of the general regard felt for him and a recognition of the value of his services. Mr. Hoffman was deeply affected by the presentation and in a few words accepted the gift and expressed his gratitude.

OFFICERS ELECTED.
