CARBONDALE.

RESIGNATION NOT ACCEPTED.

The Executive Water Committee Will Be Enlarged.

About thirty of the water committee of one hundred met in council rooms last night and heard read the resignation of the executive committe which was published several days ago. There were lengthyaddresses of a condemna tory and conciliatory character delivcred by L. A. Roberts, Mayor Kilpat rick and Attorney R. D. Stuart.

A motion to accept the resignation of the committee was lost and then Mr Stuart moved that it be eulogized by adding eight members-it now consists of seven. This motion was adopted as was also one authorizing D. W. Humphrey, who was chairman of the meet ing, and Mayor Kilpatrick to name the additional members, no one to be named however, until he has agreed to serve More than 600 contracts have been signed.

Treasurer O'Conneil made a repor of the committee's finances,

Franz Wilczek made the great hit of the evening with his violin playing. In rendering Sarasate's "Gipsy Airs" he fairly entranced the audience. Francis

Carrier, baritone, would probably rank next, his splendid voice filling the entire auditorium and especially when Adams' "Adieu Marie" was rendered by him, producing a notable effect on the audience. He was enthusiastically encored and after bowing his thanks sang another selection. The Misses Bernardine Sargent, and
