J. Davis and W. R. Hughes. Messrs, Eldred, Lewis and Hughes were appointed a committee to arrange a pool tournament and pedro contest, which will commence some time next week. Several good players are connected with the club and some interesting games are expected.

CAKE WALK AND DANCE.

The society young people of West Scranton who represent some of the best known families in the city enjoyed an exclusive cake walk and dance in the vacant store room at 122 North Main avenue last evening.

The nogelty of the affair was in the make-up of the participants. Each of the dancers were "blackened up" to represent the "real thing" in true cake walk style, and the costumes were in keeping with the event.

Prizes were awarded to the ladies in the shape of a handsome jewel case and sterling silver mounted cut glass ink stand, and to the gentlemen were given some fancy articles. Prof. Leo Crossin furnished the prusic for dancing and refreshments were served. Twenty couples participated in the grand march and a large number of spectators enjoyed the affair.
