LIVE NEWS OF THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD

ANOTHER INDUSTRY FOR THIS CITY IN SIGHT.

It is a Silk Mill, Which Desires to Move Here from Paterson, N. J. Make Up of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Board for Today—Changes That Are to Be Made by the Lehigh Valley Railroad. Directors of the Scranton Steam Pump Company.

Scranton is now practically assured another industry and this time a very large one, namely, a silk mill to employ in the neighborhood of 600 hands. The owners of a large mill, manufacturing silk ribbons, in Paterson, N. J., have been desirous for some time past of locating a branch mill in some other city, and through the efforts of George Brown they hit upon Scranton as being probably the best adapted city within a near radius of Paterson for the purpose.

Negotiations were entered into with the local company controlling the Diamond tract and a meeting was arranged for this morning, when the Paterson people will inspect the plot of land offered.

Having, the manager of the land company, stated last evening that there was hardly any doubt but that a satisfactory agreement would be entered into and that the mill would be located here. The building to be erected will be 500,000 feet in size and two stories high.

Lehigh Valley Changes.

When the Lehigh Valley railroad abandons the present depot at Mauch Chunk and erects a new and modern structure at East Mauch Chunk, the Lehigh division will then be extended to the latter place, instead of from Easton to Mauch Chunk, as now.

Michael J. Lennon, who holds the position of assistant trainmaster of the Lehigh division of the Lehigh Valley railroad, with office at Packerton, has been appointed to the agency of the new freight station and yards now in course of construction at the foot of West Twenty-seventh street, New York city, to be known as Pier 58, North River.

The office of M. B. Cutter, superintendent of transportation, and S. Higgins, superintendent of motive power of the Lehigh Valley, will be moved from South Bethlehem to New York early in the spring.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Strike at Leggett's Creek Mine.

Thursday afternoon the driver boys of the Leggett's Creek mines of the Delaware and Hudson company went on a strike for an increase in wages. About seventy boys are causing the trouble, the mine being completely shut down.

The mine officials and boys have not yet come to terms but it is expected that today the matter will be arranged and work resumed Monday.

This and That.

Work was resumed at the South steel mills yesterday after a five weeks' shut down.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Scranton Steam Pump company, held Thursday, the following board of directors was elected: Thomas F. Wells, John H. Poore, E. S. Dolph, E. B. Sturges and C. B. Sturges. The company's new plant, near the lace works, is now almost completed.

The stockholders of the Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley Traction company held their annual meeting Wednesday and elected the following board of officers: President, John A. Rigg; vice president, H. C. Moore; secretary and treasurer, W. S. Bell; board of directors, E. J. Moore, R. N. Carson, F. W. Robbins, T. C. Barr, W. J. Harvey, W. G. Ene, N. Reichard, R. N. Buckley, Reuben Nelson and Theodore Royal. The stockholders of the Wilkes-Barre Harvey's Lake and Dallas railway also held their annual meeting on that day, at which the following were elected: President, John A. Rigg; vice president, H. C. Moore; secretary and treasurer, W. S. Bell; directors, E. J. Moore, H. N. Carson,

T. C. Barr, W. J. Harvey, George N. Reichard.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The day on which the literary society is expected to hold its meeting is thought by most of the members to be Monday. The question which is to be discussed by the debaters on each side is "Resolved, That women should have the right of suffrage." This question, although it has been the subject of many an interesting debate, is as yet new in this society, and as many good authorities can be consulted on this subject the debate will, no doubt, be interesting. Besides the debate it is expected that the programme committee will have something interesting to offer.

The result of the week's examinations will be known by the students on Monday. This will mean considerable more work for the teachers, who will have to spend the greater part of today at the school arranging the different classes so that on Monday the work of the last half of the term can be taken up and carried along without having to stop for the purpose of making out a class schedule during school hours.

The examinations, which have been going on the greater part of this week, closed yesterday. These examinations have been as fair as it was possible to make them. Any pupil who devoted the required time to his lessons and did faithful work in class, ought to be able to make at least seventy in all of the subjects in which he was examined. Those who fail to make a passing mark will derive the benefit of going over the work again.

One of the most peculiar things relating to the freshman classes, the Freshman Classical, is the fact that nine of the boys composing it are sons of prominent ministers. This is probably why this class has such a fine record for exemplary deportment.

The heating apparatus of the school has worked admirably during this entire week, and although we have had some extremely cold weather, yet in no instance has it happened that a class left any classroom on account of the temperature being low.

The Glee club held a special rehearsal yesterday for the purpose of going over the selections which are to be sung at the lecture, with the aid of the director, Professor Derman.

Professor Derman was able to take his accustomed place, that of leading the singing, on Thursday morning.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

The grand commandery of Pennsylvania, Ancient and Independent Order Knights of Malta, held a special convention in Malta temple, North Main street, Wilkes-Barre, Tuesday evening and conferred the past commandery's degree on thirty-seven candidates. After this work had been accomplished brief talks were given on the conditions and work for the order by the visiting officers and others, Grand Recorder George H. Pierce, of Philadelphia, made an eulogistic address on the work of late Past Grand Commander Frank M. Williams, of Pittsburg, in the interests of Maltese. Interspersed with the talks were bits of humor making the evening an enjoyable one for all in attendance.

The degree was conferred by these officers: Grand commander, Sir J. Liebenberger, No. 7, Hazleton; grand generalissimo, Sir W. S. Bartlett, No. 21, Scranton; grand commander general, Sir E. S. Forward, No. 9, Bloomsburg; grand prelate, Sir John Curtis, No. 23, Nanticoke; grand recorder, Sir George H. Pierce, No. 21, Philadelphia; grand senior warden, Sir John J. Bissell, No. 12, Wilkes-Barre; grand junior warden, Sir George F. McCord, No. 12, Wilkes-Barre; grand warden, Sir W. J. Ashman, No. 23, Nanticoke; grand sentinel, Sir E. R. Jones, No. 21, Scranton; grand sword bearer, W. H. Lloyd, No. 28, Pittsburg; grand standard bearer, Sir John Hart, No. 7, Hazleton; grand first guard, Sir J. L. Jackson, No. 77, Williamsport; grand second guard, Sir J. W. Bogart, No. 49, Wilkes-Barre.

Meredith Sun commandery, No. 69, at Lancaster, on January 29 held a sociable for its companions and their families. The large council chamber was filled, and a fine programme was presented. Sir Rev. A. B. Taylor delivered a fine address. The council chamber was beautifully decorated. The command now has 28 members in good standing, and its assets amount to $800. The charter was drafted for thirty days in memory of Past Grand Commander Frank M. Williams.

The third commandery at Reading, Pa., will be ready for institution in a few weeks, with a large charter roll.

Patmos commandery, No. 117, at Lebanon, on January 29, conferred the order of the Red Cross and Sepulchre on forty novitiates in full form.
