Brothers: I thank you one and all for this beautiful as well as substantial expression of your esteem. I accept it on condition that it is a presen from a family of brothers to a brother prompted solely by your desire to draw more closely the mystic bonds that have bound us together in the past.

I will accept it as a token that you are charitable enough and brotherly enough to pardon and forget all my mistakes and faults as regent and remem-ber only the little good there may have been in my administration.

I could not acept it as a reward for any services rendered Lackawanna council for that account balances against me. 1 indebted to her and to you for many of my pleasantest recollections and this presentation will be ever in my memory large audiences.

The choir of the First Baptist church visited the county jail last evening and serenaded Warden W. P. Simpson and his family. The singers were invited in and pleasantly entertained by the deputy sheriff, Mrs. Simpson and their daughter. Miss May Simpson. During the evening several pleasing numbers were rendered by the choir and other pleasures indulged in which go to make up an occasion of that kind, and prior to the departure of the guests, refreshments were served by Mrs. Simpson, assisted by her charming daughter. CAUTIONING THE VOTERS. The Republican voters of the Fifteenth ward are very much disturbed on account of the presence in the field of independent candidates for the various district offices and it is the general belief that it is a scheme to defeat the regular party nominees at the coming election by dividing the vote and thus affording the Democratic candidates an opportunity to carry the two districts.

An appeal has been made to the voters to guard against this deception and to stand by the regular party canfidates. Tickets have been placed in both districts, and unless the voters exercise the necessary precaution the Republicans will lose control of the STEALING DOOR KEYS. During the past few days boys who have been engaged in Sistributing advertising matter from door to door have taken the liberty to insert the same under door mats, and in several instances they have carried away door keys belonging to the houses. Whether the theft was intended for a joke is not known, but at all events the occupants of the houses do not take kindly to such actions, and several arrests may follow.

Mrs. Morgan Evans, who resides at 137 South Rebecca avenue, was a victim of the joker and had to burst open the door to gain an entrance to he house, necessitating the purchase of a new lock for the door. The party who carried the key away is known, and unless it is returned a warrant will be sworn out for their arrest.

An interesting debate was enjoyed by he members of St. Brenden's council, Young Men's Institute, last evening, on the question, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should Be Abolished." The affirmative side was sustained by Thomas McHugh, Peter McCoy and John Hughes and the negative debaters were Daniel Lenihan, Thomas Lavin and Michael Burke.

The debate was an impromptu affair, but nevertheless some excellent arguments were advanced. The judges, Matthew Cavanaugh and Thomas Mc-Graw, gave their decision in favor of the affirmative side.
