The funeral of Mrs. Mary Burns was largely attended at Gelatt on Tuesday, Rev. H. J. Crane, of Herrick, officiating. A Thomson correspondent says it is rumored that the pension of "Blind Henry" Wrighter has been discontinued. About ten years ago he was granted a pension of $72 per month and over $11,000 back pay, the largest amount of back pay that at the time had been granted a private soldier. Unwise speculations soon scattered Henry's wealth. Three years ago a Susquehanna county man sold his small farm and went to Nebraska, "where he could raise something." When he had been located a month he raised a check, and was sent to the penitentiary to do his reaping. A too-previous robin was seen shiver-

For the Babies. There is no better medicine for the bables than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liqueties the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. Honesdale, Feb. 9.-On account of there being a number of cases of scarlet fever in town it has been thought advisable by the authorities to close the public schools for a short time.

The pretty snow-white saddle horse of Major G. H. Whitney that he rode so often at military parades, had to be chloroformed on account of some tumurous disease which affected the spine. The horse was a favorite of the major, who purchased him of Buck Taylor, in Honesdale, about five years ago.

The large audience at the opera house last night was immensely delighted with Will Carleton's lecture, "Drama of Life." For over two hours he had perfect control of the audience, a large portion of which heard him for the first time. The town council should grant the request of the Ladies' Improvement association and enforce the ordinance which prohibits throwing ashes on the streets. The association has done much to keep the streets clean and This matter is beyond their control. If ashes must be put on the streets let it be done all at one time, when the streets are repaired in the spring, and not thrown on daily, as is the custom of many when there is an ordinance forbidding it.

"At Piney Ridge."

The intensely interesting drama, "At Piney Ridge," will be at the Lyceum Wednesday evening next. The story tells of the fortunes of a rich young mountaineer of the Tennessee mountains, who is charged of having the taint of negro blood in his veins on the eve of his marriage to the daughter of a proud southern family. It eventually turns out, however, an Octoroon had exchanged her child for the child of her master when they were bables. This is the important part of the play, and out of it the author has devised some highly sensational, thrilling and effective scenes. The company supporting Mr. Higgins s a powerful one and includes Georgia Waldron, Walton G. Horton, Olive Maude Davis, Benn Sackett, Virginia Tracy, Belle Gaffney, George D. Baker,
