RAFTER'S NECK WAS BROKEN

Verdict Rendered by the Coroner's Jury Last Night.

The coroner's jury in the case of Thomas Rafter, of Gordon street, who was found dead in the doorway of the residence of Jacob Loveland, of Raymond court, Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock, met last night in the arbitration room of the court house, Coroner J. J. Roberts conducting the inquest.

We, the undersigned jurors, after hearing the evidence in this case, of Thomas Rafter, do find that his death was due to injuries received in accidentally falling down a flight of steps, in witness whereof we affix our names.

Three witnesses were called, Mrs. Alice Loveland, Winifred Rohan and Mrs. J. J. Roberts. The coroner was in the house at the time of the accident. Mrs. Loveland told her story that she was in the kitchen preparing supper, when she heard a thud, as though some one had fallen down the stairs. She immediately hurried out the back door and in the front hall found Mr. Rafter lying dead with a large hole in the back of his head. She then went around to Mr. Rafter's home and told his family of the tragic occurrence.

The other two women corroborated this testimony and everyone was then excused from the room and the coroner addressed the jury. He told them that he had yesterday morning performed an autopsy, as a result of which it was evident that Rafter, falling from the top of the steps, had broken his neck. The jury was then left alone, and after a short deliberation announced their verdict.

SAFE NOT YET OPENED.

After Eight Days' Work It Still Defies All Comers.

The safe at the Hotel Jermyn, which was locked a week ago Sunday evening and the combination lost, has not yet been opened, although Mechanic Smith has been working on it twelve hours a day since then. The steel bolt through which a hole must be bored if the safe is to be opened is only two and a half inches thick, but is of a superior quality. It is the steel that after a week's continuous drilling with the best and most powerful of drills it has not been completely drilled through yet.

"MUNICIPAL SANITATION."

Subject to Be Discussed by Messrs. Morse and Wingate.

Mayor Moir, Luther Keller and Secretary Ralph B. Atherton constitute a special committee which has been appointed to receive Colonel Morse and Charles F. Wingate, the two eminent sanitary engineers of New York city who are to lecture in the board of trade assembly room next Friday evening on "Municipal and Home Sanitation."

The lecture is to be given under the auspices of the household economic section of the Green Ridge Women's club and admission will be by invitation only.

SPORTING SQUIBS.

All members of the Siders of '99' are requested to report at E. A. Tropp's, 415 Washington Avenue, Tuesday night, February 13, at 7:30 o'clock, as business of importance will be transacted.

The Scranton Bicycle club bowlers will this evening go to Wilkes-Barre, where they will contest with the Wilkes-Barre men's Bowling club on the latter's alleys. This is the third game played in the Northeastern Pennsylvania Bowling League and it promises to be a spirited contest.

In the last game played in Scranton the Wilkes-Barre men, though defeated by the Elks, proved very strong, making much better score than did either the Bicycle club men or their opponents in their game with the Backus club last Tuesday, but the latter claim that the rather poor showing made on both sides was due to the new pins used, it being a well known fact that it is easier to bowl with old pins than with new ones. In any event tonight's match will be a spirited one.

NECESSARY PAPERS

HAVE ARRIVED

MOIR AND ROBERT WILL BE BROUGHT BACK HERE.

City Detective John Moir and Chief of Police Henry Dierks of Dunmore, Will Leave This Morning for Montreal Armed with Requisition Papers for the Men It Is Alleged Shot Kays and Snyder, Dunmore Police Officers on July 1 Last—Men Said to Have Confessed.

Requisition papers arrived in this city yesterday morning from Washington for the arrest of Auguste Morel and Antoine Robert, the two anarchists captured in Montreal, Quebec, two weeks ago, charged with the shooting of Patrick Kays and Henry Snyder, two Dunmore policemen, on July 1, 1899, and, armed with them, City Detective John Moir and Chief of Police Henry Dierks, of Dunmore, will leave the city this morning at 6:50 o'clock by the Delaware and Hudson railroad to bring to the city the two prisoners.

As will be remembered, the men had been seen by the two officers lurking around the residence of William D. Boyer, and acting in a very suspicious manner. They finally left the spot and were followed by the officers. Suddenly they turned and, drawing revolvers, opened fire, bringing the policemen to the ground.

They then took to their heels and nothing further was heard of them until Jan. 9, when Chief of Police Frank Robling received a communication from Silas H. Carpenter, chief of police of Montreal, saying that two Frenchmen had been arrested who had been boasting of their feat in shooting two Scranton policemen. They had further declared that their object had been to blow up the house of a certain coal operator with a time bomb in their possession.

BOMB FOUND.

Now, after their departure from here the local police discovered a piece of lead pipe on the ground filled with powder, and which was likely to prove a very ugly sort of explosive engine. There is no doubt that the blowing up of Mr. Boyer's house was intended.

After further communication had passed between the two police bureaus the identity of the parties being established, petitions for requisitions papers were drawn up by District Attorney Jones. It is necessary in cases of extradition like this to secure the request in triplicate and, there being two defendants in this case, it was necessary to draw up six sets of papers which were sent first to the office of the secretary of the commonwealth at Harrisburg, where two sets were kept, and then to Washington, where two more sets are retained by the secretary of the state.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning District Attorney Jones received a bulky envelope, containing the requisitions papers, which were given to Chief Robling. There are two sets of papers, exact duplicates, with the exception that in the one is the name of Auguste Morel and in the other, Antoine Robert. They are formidable with the seals of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the official one of the United States, and that of the British embassy. The very first of the papers, addressed to the authorities at Montreal, certifies that the following documents are authentic and the signature of the Hon. John Hay, true and genuine. This is signed by W. G. Max Miller, secretary of Her Britannic Majesty's embassy. The next, signed by the Hon. John Hay, secretary of state, certifies that "the document hereunto affixed is under the seal of the state of Pennsylvania and is entitled to full faith and credit."

MOIR EMPOWERED.

Following this comes a lengthy manuscript from headquarters at Harrisburg requesting that proceedings be instituted against Morel and Robert, and that John Moir be empowered to bring them back to Scranton, signed by Governor William A. Stone and W. W. Griest, secretary of the commonwealth.

In answer to these is the immediate writ of requisition signed by President William McKinley and conferring the power attached to all these documents are the ones made out in Scranton, the statements of Kays and Snyder before Justice of Peace R. W. Cooney, the warrant issued at his office, the statement of Chief of Police Robling and the petition for the papers.

LINCOLN'S DAY OBSERVED.

Anniversary Celebration of Camp No. 8, Sons of Veterans.

The ninety-first anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln was celebrated last night in the rooms of Lieutenant Ezra Griffin post, G. A. R., by the members of Camp No. 8, Sons of Veterans. A splendid programme was rendered, among the features of which were speeches by John T. Howe and L. M. Bunnell. The affair was in charge of a committee consisting of W. L. Nash, chairman; Fred Leber, Charles Meyer, J. C. Allen and J. S. Burke.

"BOB" VEAL BEING SOLD.

Food Inspector on the Lookout for These Who Bring It In.

Food Inspector Wilmayer states that "bob" veal is now beginning to be brought into the city by a certain class of farmers, and he has already succeeded in capturing a small amount of it, and warns the parties that prosecution will follow if he successfully locates them.

The more reputable class of butchers will not handle this meat, but there are certain unscrupulous dealers who will do so. In these cases the food inspector can only condemn and destroy the stuff, but if he succeeds in laying hands on the farmers who bring it in, he says they shall suffer.

Roy and Ralph Haan, two young but very clever musicians, rendered an excellent violin and mandolin duet, and Miss Mary Hughes gave a splendid recitation. Robert Rankin sang a ballad and F. E. Hepler and F. P. Cole made one of the hits of the evening with a banjo and guitar duet. Both the speeches made by John T. Howe and L. M. Bunnell dealt with the life and deeds of Abraham Lincoln and proved very interesting. The evening's entertainment closed with a tableau, "America."

SKETCH OF C. C. FERBER.

A Man Who Would Make a Capable Director of School Affairs

C. C. Ferber, who is a candidate for school director as a member of the board of six from the city at large, and who is also a candidate for school controller in the Eighth ward, is a sturdy, active Republican and a thorough business man, who has a standing in the city of which any man might be proud.

Mr. Ferber was born on Washington Avenue in this city, and resided about all his life either in the sixteenth or eighth ward. He now lives in the latter, having resided for some years past at 226 Millin Avenue. Seven years ago he began his active business career, when he became a member of the firm of Coursen, Clemons & Co., wholesale grocers, of Lackawanna Avenue. Later the firm was known as the Clemons, Ferber & O'Malley company, which continued in business until about one year ago. Since then Mr. Ferber has devoted his attention to the real estate business.

Mr. Ferber has a deep interest in the building and loan associations which have done so much to develop the city and is at present the treasurer of the Harmony Building and Loan association. He is also a director in several others. He is one of the most prominent real estate men in the city and is also a member of the Masons, Elks and Royal Arcanum.

His name will appear on each ballot printed for the city at large, and will appear twice on the ballots for the Eighth ward, where he is a candidate for school controller. Citizens of the Eighth ward can vote for him for both offices.

Mr. Ferber would make a thoroughgoing, business-like member of the school board and the people will make no mistake in electing him.

WRIGHT QUESTION DECIDED BY SCHOOL BOARD.

A Number of the Members Opposed the Idea, Claiming It Was Establishing a Dangerous Precedent, but Mr. Gibbons' Arguments Won Out—Animated Discussion on Stationery Question, in Which Mr. Jennings Made Personal Remarks About Mr. Frendergast.

The board of control last evening, after an exceedingly long and interesting debate, finally decided to allow the Baptists of Bellevue Hill to use a room in No. 13 school building for Sunday school purposes up to May 1. The board refused a similar request from a branch of the United Mine Workers, who also wanted a room two nights in every month.

When the matter was brought up by Controller E. E. Evans, Captain W. A. May spoke against the plan, stating that it was a step in the wrong direction and a dangerous precedent to establish. Mr. Evans, in reply, stated that unless the board granted the request the church would be without a Sunday school for three months.

Mr. Gibbons then arose and said he was surprised at the board, that he didn't think there was a man on it who would oppose such a motion. It had been done before for the Catholics of South Scranton and there was no reason why it shouldn't be done again. He further remarked that it was for educational purposes, any way.

"Why," said he, "at the last meeting a motion was carried granting the city controller a salary of $100 a month, where he had no right to get 100 cents and there was no opposition raised, yet, now where some people want to get a room to teach children about their Creator you all oppose it. It's a shame."

NO SENTIMENT IN IT. Captain May said it was not a matter of sentiment, but a matter of principle. The law says that buildings shall be used for educational purposes only," he said, "but a great many things can be construed to mean educational purposes."

Mr. Jennings moved that the matter be referred to the solicitor of the board for an opinion, but his motion was lost and a motion to grant the request was then adopted. Mr. Roche then moved, amid a general laugh, that the miners' union be allowed to use two rooms in the same building, but the motion was lost.

WRIGHT QUESTION DECIDED BY SCHOOL BOARD.

A Number of the Members Opposed the Idea, Claiming It Was Establishing a Dangerous Precedent, but Mr. Gibbons' Arguments Won Out—Animated Discussion on Stationery Question, in Which Mr. Jennings Made Personal Remarks About Mr. Frendergast.

The board of control last evening, after an exceedingly long and interesting debate, finally decided to allow the Baptists of Bellevue Hill to use a room in No. 13 school building for Sunday school purposes up to May 1. The board refused a similar request from a branch of the United Mine Workers, who also wanted a room two nights in every month.

Mr. Evans, in reply, stated that unless the board granted the request the church would be without a Sunday school for three months.

Mr. Gibbons then arose and said he was surprised at the board, that he didn't think there was a man on it who would oppose such a motion. It had been done before for the Catholics of South Scranton and there was no reason why it shouldn't be done again. He further remarked that it was for educational purposes, any way.

"Why," said he, "at the last meeting a motion was carried granting the city controller a salary of $100 a month, where he had no right to get 100 cents and there was no opposition raised, yet, now where some people want to get a room to teach children about their Creator you all oppose it. NO SENTIMENT IN IT. Captain May said it was not a matter of sentiment, but a matter of principle. The law says that buildings shall be used for educational purposes only," he said, "but a great many things can be construed to mean educational purposes."

Mr. Jennings moved that the matter be referred to the solicitor of the board for an opinion, but his motion was lost and a motion to grant the request was then adopted. Mr. Roche then moved, amid a general laugh, that the miners' union be allowed to use two rooms in the same building, but the motion was lost.

The stationary question also caused considerable discussion. Mr. Roche, chairman of the supply committee, stated that the contract with R. E. Frendergast for school pads had run out, or rather been filled and, as paper had gone up 50 per cent, and Mr. Frendergast had wanted an increase of 10 per cent, he wanted to be advised how to act.

A number of members asked to have the contract read and upon the secretary doing so it was found that it called for 50,000 pads at a stated price per 1,000. Mr. Evans said that the contract should have called for 100,000 pads, but, as it did not and as the 50,000 pads had been furnished, the board could not hold Mr. Frendergast. This prompted Mr. Jennings to remark:

"Stationers who have entered into contracts with this board have furnished pads until the end of the year at the price mentioned in the contract, even though they did have to furnish more than a stated number. I think this a slim jim way of trying to crawl out of a small hole, and the contractor who wants to crawl out of a small hole must necessarily be small himself."

TO RE-ADVERTISE.

A number of the members resented this personal attack on Mr. Frendergast, who was present, and wanted to give him the privilege of the floor, but Mr. Langan moved that bids be re-advertised for. Mr. Jennings then, for the second time in the evening, moved to refer the matter to the solicitor for an opinion as to whether Mr. Frendergast could be held or not. His motion was lost, however, and Mr. Langan's was adopted.

A bid of Peter Stipp, to furnish copper gutters for new No. 33 school for $587, was read and referred to the building committee. On recommendation of the teachers' committee, Miss Annie E. Judge was appointed primary C teacher at No. 2 school.

On motion of Mr. Schriefer, a number of old school books were donated to a young lady in North Scranton, who has a small private class of little Italian children.

Mr. Gibbons moved that the superintendent and a committee of five controllers attend the state convention of

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY.

Important Missionary Meeting to Be Held Today.

An important event in missionary circles will occur today when the Women's Auxiliary Board of Missions of the archdiocese of Scranton will hold its winter meeting in this city. About sixty delegates from the various churches affiliated with the archdiocese will be present, coming from up and down the valley.

This morning at 11 o'clock there will be a communion service in St. Luke's church to be followed with an address by Bishop Talbot. The following Episcopal clergymen will assist at this service: Rev. Francis Bateman, Rev. E. J. McHenry, Rev. F. S. Ballentine, Rev. E. J. Haughton and Rev. M. B. Nash.

Luncheon will be served in the parish house at 1 o'clock and at 2:30 the business meeting will be held in the auditorium of this building. The bishop will deliver another address at this meeting and the president, Mrs. E. G. Scott, of Wilkes-Barre, will speak on "The United Offering Fund." A letter from Miss Emery, the general secretary, of New York, will be read, as will also letters from missionaries in Japan, China and Manila.

school directors at Harrisburg this week, at the expense of the board, but the motion was defeated by an overwhelming vote.

On motion of Mr. Barker, the secretary was directed to present at the next meeting of the board a complete statement of all money expended this year up to date and the amount remaining of each separate appropriation.

An opinion from the board's solicitor was read, stating that the board had not the power to exonerate real estate taxes and that such taxes became a lien on the property.

The teachers and night school teachers' pay-roll for the month of January were passed, as was the kindergarten teachers, providing the latter was approved by the kindergarten committee.
