

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF JOHN GRIFFITHS AND MARGARET WILLIAMS.

Ceremony Performed by Rev. David Jones at the Home of Bride's Parents—Palmer L. Williams Admitted to the Bar—Several Funeral Announcements—Observance of Lincoln's Birthday—Events of This Evening—St. Patrick's Fair. Other Minor News Notes.

The ceremony uniting in marriage John Griffiths, of 145 Plimrose avenue, and Miss Margaret J. Williams, of 1306 Eynon street, was performed by Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church, at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Williams. The happy event was witnessed by a large circle of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly attired in a costume of steel grey and carried white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Rebecca Jones, was similarly attired, and carried pink carnations. Benjamin Griffiths, a brother of the groom, was the best man, and Taliesin Lewis played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a reception and supper was enjoyed by the bridal party and guests, and the evening spent in an enjoyable manner. Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths were the recipients of many valuable presents. They will reside at 1306 Eynon street.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR. Palmer L. Williams, the only son of Hon. and Mrs. John T. Williams, of South Main avenue, was yesterday admitted to practice law at the Lackawanna county bar. Mr. Williams has been a student in the law office of Carpenter & Fleitz, and is a graduate of Bucknell University.

His preliminary studies were taken at Keystone Academy, and he spent one year with the Thirteenth regiment at camp during the Spanish-American war. He is a member of the West Side Republican club and Robert Morris lodge of Iovites, and one of the most popular young men in West Scranton.

His many friends join in congratulating him upon his successful examinations. For the present Mr. Williams will remain in the office of Carpenter & Fleitz.
